His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI & the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops On the Fundamental Right to Life

Pope Benedict XVI

God's love does not differentiate between the newly conceived infant still in his or her mother's womb and the child or young person, or the adult and the elderly person. God does not distinguish between them because he sees an impression of his own image and likeness (Gn 1:26) in each one.

Life is the first good received from God and is fundamental to all others; to guarantee the right to life for all and in an equal manner for all is the duty upon which the future of humanity depends.

U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops

The failure to protect and defend life in its most vulnerable stages renders suspect any claims to the 'rightness' of positions in other matters affecting the poorest and least powerful of the human community. If we understand the human person as the "temple of the Holy Spirit" – the living house of God – then these latter issues fall logically into place as the crossbeams and walls of that house. All direct attacks on innocent human life, such as abortion and euthanasia, strike at the house's foundation. These directly and immediately violate the human person's most fundamental right – the right to life. Neglect of these issues is the equivalent of building our house on sand. Such attacks cannot help but lull the social conscience in ways ultimately destructive of other human rights.

On Abortion Pope Benedict XVI:

Children truly are the family's greatest treasure and most precious good. Consequently, everyone must be helped to become aware of the intrinsic evil of the crime of abortion. In attacking human life in its very first stages, it is also an aggression against society itself. Politicians and legislators, therefore, as servants of the common good, are duty bound to defend the fundamental right to life, the fruit of God's love.

As far as the right to life is concerned, we must denounce its widespread violation in our society. Abortion and embryonic experimentation constitute a direct denial of that attitude of acceptance of others which is indispensable for establishing lasting relationships of peace.

Even in the most difficult circumstances human freedom is capable of extraordinary acts of sacrifice and solidarity to welcome the life of a new human being.

U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops:

Among important issues involving the dignity of human life with which the Church is concerned, abortion necessarily plays a central role. Abortion, the direct killing of an innocent human being, is always gravely immoral (The Gospel of Life, no. 57); its victims are the most vulnerable and defenseless members of the human family. It is imperative that those who are called to serve the least among us give urgent attention and priority to this issue of justice.

While at times human law may not fully articulate the moral imperative – full protection for the right to life – our legal system can and must be continually reformed so that it will increasingly fulfill its proper task of protecting the weak and preserving the right to life of every human being, born and unborn.

Embryonic Stem Cell Research

Pope Benedict XVI:

Research involving the destruction of human embryos is not truly at the service of humanity. History itself has condemned such a science in the past and will condemn it in the future, not only because it lacks the light of God but also because it lacks humanity.

No one can dispose of human life. An insurmountable limit to our possibilities of doing and of experimenting must be established. The human being is not a disposable object, but every single individual represents God's presence in the world. The new frontiers reached in bioethics do not require us to choose between science and morality: rather, they oblige us to a moral use of science.

U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops:

We must help those who are suffering, but we may not use a good end to justify an evil means. Moreover, treatments that do not require destroying any human life are at least as promising – they are already healing some conditions, and are far closer to healing other conditions than any approach using embryonic stem cells. The choice is not between science and ethics, but between science that is ethically responsible and science that is not.

Euthanasia & Assisted Suicide

Pope Benedict XVI:

The freedom to kill is not true freedom, but a tyranny that reduces the human being to slavery. More and more lonely elderly people exist in big cities, even in situations of serious illness and close to death. In such situations, the pressure of euthanasia is felt, especially when a utilitarian vision of the person creeps in. In this regard, I take this opportunity to reaffirm once again the firm and constant ethical condemnation of every form of direct euthanasia, in accordance with the Church's centuries-old teaching.

U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops:

Euthanasia and assisted suicide can appear a reasonable and even compassionate solution to the suffering of individuals and families struggling with illness or the dying process. Yet these are not real solutions – they do not solve human problems, but only take the lives of those most in need of unconditional love.

PHÚC ÂM: Mc 10, 35-45 (bài dài)

"Con Người đến để ban mạng sống Mình làm giá cứu chuộc cho nhiều người".

Tin Mừng Chúa Giêsu Kitô theo Thánh Marcô.

Khi ấy, Giacôbê và Gioan con ông Giêbêđê đến gần Chúa Giêsu và thưa Người rằng: "Lạy Thầy, chúng con muốn Thầy ban cho chúng con điều chúng con sắp xin Thầy". Người hỏi: "Các con muốn Thầy làm gì cho các con?" Các ông thưa: "Xin cho chúng con một người ngồi bên hữu, một người ngồi bên tả Thầy trong vinh quang của Thầy". Chúa Giêsu bảo: "Các con không biết các con xin gì. Các con có thể uống chén Thầy sắp uống và chịu cùng một phép rửa Thầy sắp chịu không?" Các ông đáp: "Thưa được". Chúa Giêsu bảo: "Chén Thầy uống, các con cũng sẽ uống, và phép rửa Thầy sắp chịu, các con cũng sẽ chịu. Còn việc ngồi bên hữu hay bên tả Thầy, thì không thuộc quyền Thầy ban, nhưng là dành cho những ai đã được chỉ định".

Mười môn đệ kia nghe chuyện đó liền bực tức với Giacôbê và Gioan. Chúa Giêsu gọi các ông lại gần mà bảo: "Các con biết rằng những người được coi là lãnh tụ các nước, thì sai khiến dân chúng như ông chủ, và những người làm lớn thì lấy uy quyền mà trị dân. Còn các con không như thế. Trái lại, ai trong các con muốn làm lớn, thì hãy tự làm đầy tớ anh em. Và ai muốn thành người cầm đầu trong các con, thì hãy tự làm nô lệ cho mọi người. Vì chính Con Người cũng không đến để được phục vụ, nhưng để phục vụ và ban mạng sống mình làm giá cứu chuộc cho nhiều người". Đó là lời Chúa.

Year End Giving

The year is quickly drawing to a close. If you want to use your IRA required minimum distribution (RMD) for your charitable giving to SS Peter and Paul Catholic Church, you can maximize your gift by giving directly from your retirement account to the church. You need to decide to do this before you take a distribution to get the tax benefits of making a qualified charitable distribution. The best way to guarantee that it gets done in the right tax year is to initiate the gift by the end of Nov.

Second Collection

Next weekend the Second Collection will be for the Propagation of the Faith (World Mission Sunday). Envelopes are in this week's bulletin.

Rosary Society

The Rosary Intentions you are praying for this week are that the life of every person, from conception to natural death, will be protected in our laws and cherished in our hearts.

Pro Life

"Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child... Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life—especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things. Amen."

Evangelio Marcos (10,35-45):

En aquel tiempo, se acercaron a Jesús los hijos de Zebedeo, Santiago y Juan, y le dijeron: «Maestro, queremos que hagas lo que te vamos a pedir.»

Les preguntó: «¿Qué queréis que haga por vosotros?»

Contestaron: «Concédenos sentarnos en tu gloria uno a tu derecha y otro a tu izquierda.»

Jesús replicó: «No sabéis lo que pedís, ¿sois capaces de beber el cáliz que yo he de beber, o de bautizaros con el bautismo con que yo me voy a bautizar?»

Contestaron: «Lo somos.»

Jesús les dijo: «El cáliz que yo voy a beber lo beberéis, y os bautizaréis con el bautismo con que yo me voy a bautizar, pero el sentarse a mi derecha o a mi izquierda no me toca a mí concederlo; está ya reservado.» Los otros diez, al oír aquello, se indignaron contra Santiago y Juan.

Jesús, reuniéndolos, les dijo: «Sabéis que los que son reconocidos como jefes de los pueblos los tiranizan, y que los grandes los oprimen. Vosotros, nada de eso: el que quiera ser grande, sea vuestro servidor; y el que quiera ser primero, sea esclavo de todos. Porque el Hijo del hombre no ha venido para que le sirvan, sino para servir y dar su vida en rescate por todos.»
