Marriage: Sacrament of Enduring Love (Continued from Last Week's Bulletin)

Marriage: A Great Mystery

From this perspective, we can see better the roots of the Lord's teaching about the indissoluble character of marriage. The preaching of the Lord had the effect of making clearer the teaching of the Old Testament. Although Moses had permitted a man to leave his wife so as to marry another, the Lord says no to this: "I say to you, whoever divorces his wife (unless the marriage is unlawful) and marries another commits adultery" (Mt 19:9). The commitment of love between a man and a woman reflects the irrevocable covenant between God and his people. In his Letter to the Ephesians 5:31-32, St. Paul teaches that Christian marriage has a special form so as to be a visible manifestation of the love of Christ: "For this reason a man shall leave [his] father and [his] mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.' This is a great mystery, but I speak in reference to Christ and the church." St. Paul thus teaches that Christian marriage becomes a sacrament ("a great mystery") showing forth openly what is contained in the mystery of Christ's love. The relation between husband and wife both participates in and reflects the relation between Christ and his Church. If we want to know the distinguishing marks of Christian marriage, we have only to contemplate the distinguishing marks of the love of Christ revealed in the Gospel. Likewise, if one wants to see an example of what we mean by the love of Christ, one could look to how this love is reflected in the married life of Christians.

Marriage: A Concrete Sign

The love of Jesus, as we have seen, shows itself in ways quite concrete and clearly distinguishable. The love of Christ for us, for his Church, is an intimate union of generous love, it is an enduring love, and it is a fruitful love. I would like to take each of these three aspects of the love of Christ and point out their correlation with marriage as an exceptional sign of this love present in the world.

A Generous Love

The testimony given by couples living the Sacrament of Marriage is a concrete testimony. The grace given by God does not operate in another world; it operates in daily life. Life is a journey and a daily struggle. The love of Christ accompanies us on this road and aids us in this struggle, giving us new strength to encounter in our "today" the joy that Christ showed forth as he gave himself freely for the life of the world. The Lord himself speaks of this: "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete. Love one another as I love you" (Jn 15:11-12). Daily, a husband dedicates himself generously to the good of his wife, and she dedicates herself daily to his good. This generosity is an expression of the intimate union between themselves, and it shows itself in their daily sacrifices. Above all, this generous love shows itself in their ability to forgive one another. The marital union creates for the couple a road that leads to sanctity, because sanctity consists in our participation in the generous love of Christ Jesus.

An Enduring Love

The marriage commitment is notable for being an enduring commitment. Love sealed with fidelity calls us out of our selfishness. Faithfulness to the marital commitment is one of those aspects of Christian marriage most difficult for the modern world to understand, and for this reason, it is an aspect that takes on greater importance in our times. A world that is losing confidence in the possibility of a faithful and enduring love needs living signs of this reality. This is a mission that the Lord confides in a particular way to married couples. The happiness that is lived in the midst of a faithful and freely generous marital commitment calls us all to remember our better aspirations; it invites those who are disheartened to have new hope. In this sense, the Sacrament of Marriage contains within itself an evangelizing mission.

A Fruitful Love

Marital love is a fruitful love. As St. Augustine would often say, Christ Jesus, by means of his sacrifice, that is, the flow of his Blood, generates new life on the earth. This means that the sacrifice of Christ on the Cross brought forth the life of the Church. We are the fruits of Christ's generous love. In just such a way, the enduring love between a man and a woman is destined for the generation of new life. This new life shows itself ordinarily in the bringing forth of children; this is a mystery of life that requires the cooperation of the man and the woman with the providential will of God. The presence of children in a family is a great blessing, calling the couple to a new experience of generosity and fidelity expressed in the daily care they give for the lives of their children. God is the Lord of Life, and we desire to live always with an openness to receive this gift. Nevertheless, it is sometimes the case that for various physical reasons, not all marriages are blessed with children. But all married couples are still destined to live a life of generosity and spiritual fruitfulness. Married couples live not only for themselves but for the good of others. We hear this in one of the blessings given at the end of the wedding Mass: "May you always bear witness to the love of God in this world so that the afflicted and the needy will find in you generous friends and welcome you into the joys of heaven" (Rite of Marriage, no. 125). An Invitation the Lord invites us all, whether married or not, to contemplate the generous, faithful, and fruitful love made visible in Christian married life, so that we might perceive through this sign what the love of God is about. And by means of this grace of seeing, we are strengthened to follow with greater courage our most high calling, that sublime vocation to love in truth, revealed to us in the person and mission of our Lord Jesus Christ.

PHÚC ÂM: Ga 14, 23-29 "Thánh Thần sẽ nhắc nhở cho các con tất cả những gì Thầy đã nói với các con". Tin Mừng Chúa Giêsu Kitô theo Thánh Gi-oan. Khi ấy, Chúa Giêsu phán cùng các môn đệ rằng: "Ai yêu mến Thầy, sẽ giữ lời Thầy, và Cha Thầy sẽ yêu mến người ấy, và Chúng Ta sẽ đến và ở trong người ấy. Kẻ không yêu mến Thầy, thì không giữ lời Thầy. Lời các con nghe, không phải là của Thầy, nhưng là của Cha, Đấng đã sai Thầy. Thầy đã nói với các con những điều này khi còn ở với các con. Nhưng Đấng Phù Trợ là Thánh Thần, mà Cha sẽ sai đến nhân danh Thầy, chính Người sẽ dạy các con mọi điều, và sẽ nhắc nhở cho các con tất cả những gì Thầy đã nói với các con. Thầy để lại bình an cho các con, Thầy ban bình an của Thầy cho các con. Thầy ban cho các con không như thế gian ban tặng. Lòng các con đừng xao xuyến và đừng sợ hãi. Các con đã nghe Thầy nói với các con rằng: Thầy đi, rồi Thầy trở lại với các con. Nếu các con yêu mến Thầy, thì các con hãy vui mừng vì Thầy về với Cha, bởi lẽ Cha trọng hơn Thầy. Giờ đây Thầy nói với các con trước khi việc xảy ra, để khi việc xảy ra, thì các con tin". Đó là lời Chúa.

Rosary Society

The Rosary Intentions you are praying for this week are that the Supreme Court acts to restore legal protection for the lives of unborn children by overturning the tragic decision of Roe v. Wade.

Pro Life

Society as a whole must respect, defend and promote the dignity of every human person, at every moment and in every condition of that person's life. May we commit ourselves to urgent prayer and fasting, that the Court may act to uphold the dignity of unborn human life.

Evangelion Juan 14,23-29

En aquel tiempo, dijo Jesús a sus discípulos: «El que me ama guardará mi palabra, y mi Padre lo amará, y vendremos a él y haremos morada en él. El que no me ama no guardará mis palabras. Y la palabra que estáis oyendo no es mía, sino del Padre que me envió. Os he hablado de esto ahora que estoy a vuestro lado, pero el Defensor, el Espíritu Santo, que enviará el Padre en mi nombre, será quien os lo enseñe todo y os vaya recordando todo lo que os he dicho. La paz os dejo, mi paz os doy; no os la doy yo como la da el mundo. Que no tiemble vuestro corazón ni se acobarde. Me habéis oído decir: "Me voy y vuelvo a vuestro lado." Si me amarais, os alegraríais de que vaya al Padre, porque el Padre es más que yo. Os lo he dicho ahora, antes de que suceda, para que cuando suceda, sigáis creyendo.»

Misa de Bachillerato

o invitamos a unirse a nosotros para celebrar y orar por nuestros graduados de secundaria en una misa de bachillerato que se llevará a cabo en su honor el domingo 5 de junio de 2022 en la misa de las 9:30 am. Seguirá una recepción en Jesuit Hall.
