Statement of the Catholic Bishops of Minnesota in Response to the U.S. Supreme Court's Ruling in Dobbs v. Jackson June 24, 2022

Along with women and men across our nation who respect the inherent dignity of each human life, the Catholic bishops of Minnesota give thanks to God on this historic day as the Supreme Court ends the injustice of the Roe v. Wade decision. We are grateful that the Supreme Court has returned to state Legislatures and federal officials the ability to protect preborn children and save mothers and fathers from the untold pain of abortion.

For almost 50 years, Roe grievously denied one of America's founding principles: that all men and women—irrespective of their stage of development—are created equal, with God-given rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Forgetting this self-evident truth has resulted in the death of over 60 million preborn children and the wounding of millions of mothers and fathers.

As a Church, we have been committed to providing help to every mother and father dealing with a crisis pregnancy, so they are not forced to choose abortion. We are proud that many of our Catholic faithful work in crisis pregnancy centers that create nonjudgmental networks of support for women. These centers offer shelter, housing assistance, free diapers and clothing, pregnancy and parenting classes, community referrals, childcare, and other charitable assistance. Through our continued efforts to respect the well-being of both the mother and the child, we have been honored to accompany countless women and men tempted to choose abortion. We have been privileged as well, through post-abortion healing retreats, to help parents who have chosen abortion to work through the pain they so often suffer.

To further support our work, the Catholic bishops of the United States have launched a nationwide initiative, Walking with Moms in Need (walkingwithmoms.com), to create additional avenues of support for mothers in our communities by way of Catholic parishes, ministries, and crisis pregnancy centers. We also pledge that our Catholic churches will be a sanctuary for women in crisis pregnancies. Any woman in a crisis pregnancy who comes to the door of a Catholic church in the state of Minnesota seeking assistance will be supported and, at a minimum, referred to resources where she can get help.

The Church's contribution to public life walks with the two feet of justice and charity. Our direct assistance to women in crisis pregnancies through charitable and philanthropic efforts is fundamental in our endeavor to build an authentic culture of life. But we also commit to working in our state Legislature to ensure that every child is welcomed in life and respected by the law.

Unfortunately, the landscape in Minnesota is shaped by our own version of Roe v. Wade. The 1995 Doe v. Gomez decision of the Minnesota Supreme Court characterized the state right to an abortion as a "broader protection" than Roe, including the right of low-income women to a taxpayer-funded abortion. Sadly, Gomez is unlikely to be overturned without a change in federal law or a state constitutional amendment.

Despite Minnesota's legal landscape, we should continue to find ways to place reasonable limits on the availability of abortions, especially after viability (Minnesota is one of the few states without limitations on post-viability abortions). We should also put in place, and keep in place, measures to help protect women from further serious injury arising from the risks already involved with an abortion. Such protections include, among other things, licensing abortion clinics and requiring that chemical abortions be procured only through a physician.

To limit the demand for abortion, the state should also commit its resources to ensuring that women have the support they need to choose life. Some pregnancy centers are supported in part by the state's Positive Alternatives Grant Program, which promotes healthy pregnancy outcomes and assists pregnant and parenting women develop and maintain family stability and self-sufficiency. In a budget that will reach $60 billion by 2024, our state allocates only $3.375 million for these services, even though the need is much greater. The most recent round of funding requests totaled roughly $6.5 million.

The prospect of Roe being overturned has already sharpened partisan division on the abortion question. As bishops, however, we have no interest in engaging as partisans, and we will continue to work to build common ground rooted in the principles articulated above. This is a matter of prenatal justice—giving to both mother and child that which is their due, namely, support and protection.

But make no mistake: we will rigorously oppose efforts to expand the abortion license in Minnesota and we will work with people on both sides of the aisle to prevent Minnesota from becoming an abortion sanctuary state.

Abortion advocates want people to believe that abortion promises liberation, but instead, it leads to sadness, pain, and the death of a human being. To quote one pro-life leader, "Abortion says 'I sacrifice your life for my convenience.' But Love says, 'I sacrifice my convenience for your life.' Only love will lead to fulfillment." Let us be a credible witness to the Gospel of Life by sacrificing ourselves for the sake of others, both born and unborn.

We ask all Minnesotans to join our efforts to combat a throwaway culture, foster prenatal justice, and create a state where love prevails.

PHÚC ÂM: Lc 10, 1-9 {hoặc 1-12, 17-20}

"Sự bình yên của các con sẽ đến trên người ấy".
Tin Mừng Chúa Giêsu Kitô theo Thánh Luca.
Khi ấy, Chúa chọn thêm bảy mươi hai người nữa, và sai các ông cứ từng hai người đi trước Người, đến các thành và các nơi mà chính Người sẽ tới. Người bảo các ông rằng: "Lúa chín đầy đồng mà thợ gặt thì ít; vậy các con hãy xin chủ ruộng sai thợ đến gặt lúa của Người. Các con hãy đi. Nay Ta sai các con như con chiên ở giữa sói rừng. Các con đừng mang theo túi tiền, bao bì, giày dép, và đừng chào hỏi ai dọc đường. Vào nhà nào, trước tiên các con hãy nói: 'Bình an cho nhà này'. Nếu ở đây có con cái sự bình an, thì sự bình an của các con sẽ đến trên người ấy. Bằng không, sự bình an lại trở về với các con. Các con ở lại trong nhà đó, ăn uống những thứ họ có, vì thợ đáng được trả công. Các con đừng đi nhà này sang nhà nọ."
"Khi vào thành nào mà người ta tiếp các con, các con hãy ăn những thức người ta dọn cho. Hãy chữa các bệnh nhân trong thành và nói với họ rằng: 'Nước Thiên Chúa đã đến gần các ngươi'.
{ "Khi vào thành nào mà người ta không tiếp đón các con, thì hãy ra giữa các phố chợ và nói: 'Cả đến bụi đất thành các ngươi dính vào chân chúng tôi, chúng tôi cũng xin phủi trả lại các ngươi. Nhưng các ngươi hãy biết rõ điều này: Nước Thiên Chúa đã đến gần'. Ta bảo các con, ngày ấy, thành Sôđôma sẽ được xử khoan dung hơn thành này".
Bảy mươi hai ông trở về rất vui mừng và nói rằng: "Thưa Thầy, nhân danh Thầy thì cả ma quỷ cũng vâng phục chúng con". Người bảo: "Ta đã thấy Satan từ trời sa xuống như luồng chớp. Nay Ta đã ban cho các con quyền giày đạp rắn rít, bọ cạp, mọi quyền phép của kẻ thù, và không có gì có thể làm hại được các con. Dù vậy, các con chớ vui mừng vì các thần phải vâng phục các con, nhưng hãy vui mừng vì tên các con đã được ghi trên trời". } Đó là lời Chúa.

Rosary Society

The Rosary Intention you are praying for this week is for the preservation of religious freedom in our country, that the right to freely worship God and live according to His commands may be protected and upheld.

Pro Life

O God our Creator.. we ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the right of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith.

Evangelion Lucas 10,1-12.17-20

EN aquel tiempo, designó el Señor otros setenta y dos, y los mandó delante de él, de dos en dos, a todos los pueblos y lugares adonde pensaba ir él. Y les decía:

«La mies es abundante y los obreros pocos; rogad, pues, al dueño de la mies que envíe obreros a su mies.

¡Poneos en camino! Mirad que os envío como corderos en medio de lobos. No llevéis bolsa, ni alforja, ni sandalias; y no saludéis a nadie por el camino.

Cuando entréis en una casa, decid primero: “Paz a esta casa”. Y si allí hay gente de paz, descansará sobre ellos vuestra paz; si no, volverá a vosotros.

Quedaos en la misma casa, comiendo y bebiendo de lo que tengan: porque el obrero merece su salario. No andéis cambiando de casa en casa.

Si entráis en una ciudad y os reciben, comed lo que os pongan, curad a los enfermos que haya en ella, y decidles: “El reino de Dios ha llegado a vosotros”.

Pero si entráis en una ciudad y no os reciben, saliendo a sus plazas, decid: “Hasta el polvo de vuestra ciudad, que se nos ha pegado a los pies, nos lo sacudimos sobre vosotros. De todos modos, sabed que el reino de Dios ha llegado”.

Os digo que aquel día será más llevadero para Sodoma que para esa ciudad».

Los setenta y dos volvieron con alegría diciendo:

«Señor, hasta los demonios se nos someten en tu nombre». Él les dijo:

«Estaba viendo a Satanás caer del cielo como un rayo.

Mirad: os he dado el poder de pisotear serpientes y escorpiones y todo poder del enemigo, y nada os hará daño alguno.

Sin embargo, no estéis alegres porque se os someten los espíritus; estad alegres porque vuestros nombres están inscritos en el cielo».
