The SSPP Latin Mass is always looking for boys or men to serve the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. For those interested in becoming an altar server, please contact Ryan Wersal at melissawersal10@gmail.com. If you're interested in singing for Mass, please contact the SSPP music director Grace Kunkel at music@sspeterandpaul.com. A SSPP Latin Mass attendee is interested in forming a schola group to sing traditional Gregorian Chant for the Latin Mass. If this interests you, please contact Denis Crnkovic at deniscrnkovic14@gmail.com

Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe - St. John Paul II

1. “Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews”. This is the title put on the cross. Shortly before Christ’s death, one of the two condemned men crucified with him said to him: “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom”. What kingdom? The object of his request was certainly not an earthly kingdom but another one.

The good thief speaks as if he had heard the words exchanged earlier between Pilate and Christ. Indeed, it was before Pilate that Jesus had been accused of wanting to make himself king. Pilate had questioned him about this: “Are you the King of the Jews” (Jn 18:33). Christ had not denied it; he had explained: “My kingship is not of this world; if my kingship were of this world, my servants would fight, that I might not be handed over to the Jews; but my kingship is not from the world” (Jn 18:36). Jesus had replied directly to Pilate’s repeated question as to whether he were a king: “You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth. Every one who is of the truth hears my voice” (Jn 18:37).

2. Today’s Liturgy speaks of the earthly kingdom of Israel by recalling the anointing of David as King. Yes, God had chosen Israel; he sent it not only prophets but even kings, when the Chosen People insisted on having an earthly ruler. Of all the kings who sat upon the throne of Israel, the greatest was David. When the first reading of this celebration speaks of that kingdom, it does so to recall that Jesus of Nazareth was of the line of King David, but also, and above all, to emphasize that the royalty proper to Christ is of a different kind.

The words which Mary heard at the Annunciation are significant: “The Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there will be no end” (Lk 1:32-33). This kingdom, then, is not only the earthly kingdom of David, which came to an end. It is the Kingdom of Christ, which will never end, the eternal Kingdom, the Kingdom of truth, of love and of eternal life.

The Good Thief crucified with Jesus came in some way to the heart of this truth. Indeed, in a certain sense he became a prophet of this eternal Kingdom when, hanging on the cross, he said: “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom” (Lk 23:42). Christ said in reply: “Today you will be with me in Paradise” (Lk 23:43).

3. To this Kingdom, which is not of this world, Jesus invited us to look when he taught us to pray: “Thy Kingdom come”.

Obedient to his command, the Apostles, the disciples and the missionaries of all times have done their best to extend, through evangelization, the boundaries of this Kingdom. For it is both the gift of the Father (cf. Lk 12:32) and the result of man’s personal response. In the “new creation”, we will be able to enter into the Kingdom of the Father only if we have followed the Lord during our earthly pilgrimage (cf. Mt 19:28).

This, then, is the program of every Christian: to follow the Lord, the Way, and the Truth, and the Life, in order to possess the Kingdom which he has promised and given.

4. In the second reading the Apostle Paul explains the nature of the kingdom of which Jesus speaks. He writes to the Colossians: we must give thanks to God who “has delivered us from the dominion of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins” (1:13-14). It is precisely this forgiveness of sins which the good thief inherited on Calvary. He was the first to experience the fact that Christ is King, because he is the Redeemer.

The Apostle then explains what Christ’s kingship is: “He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation; for in him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities — all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together” (Col 1:15-17). Thus Christ is King above all as the first-born of all creation.

The Pauline text continues: “He is the head of the body, the Church; he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that in everything he might be pre-eminent. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross” (ibid., 1:18-20). With these words the Apostle again confirms and justifies what he had revealed about the essence of Christ’s kingship: Christ is King as the first-born of the dead. In other words, as Redeemer of the world, the risen and crucified Christ is King of the new humanity.

5. “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom” (Lk 23:42).

On Calvary Jesus had a rather unusual companion in his passion, a thief. For this unhappy man the way of the cross became, infallibly, the way to paradise (cf. Lk 23:43), the way to truth and life, the way to the kingdom. Today we remember him as the “good thief”. We can make the “good thief’s” prayer our own:

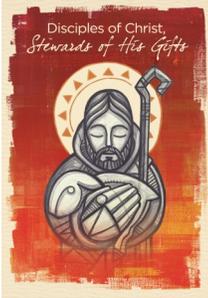

“Jesus, remember me, remember us as we pray that your kingdom come, we see that your promise is becoming a reality: after following you, we come to you in your kingdom, drawn by you when you were lifted up on the Cross (cf. Jn 12:32); to you, lifted up over history and its center, the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end (cf. Rv 22:13), the Lord of time and the ages!

We address you in the words of an ancient hymn:

It is through your sorrowful death, King of eternal glory,
that you obtained eternal life for the nations;
therefore the whole world calls you King of humanity.
Reign over us, Christ the Lord!”.

Amen.

Catholic Ministries Appeal Update

The remaining balance due on our 2022 CMA goal is $18,379. Any unpaid balance remaining on December 31, 2022, will be paid from our parish general fund. Any amount received above our goal will be returned to the parish. Envelopes for your gift are in the gathering area. The envelope can be returned directly to the Catholic Foundation of Southern Minnesota, put in the collection basket, or returned to the parish office. You can also enter your gift on the Appeal Website noted below. Please take a moment to discern your gift.

All gifts will be used solely for the restricted purposes of the 2022 Catholic Ministries Appeal. The Appeal supports specific ministries and programs of the Diocese of Winona-Rochester. Please visit the Appeal Website, <https://catholicfsmn.org/catholic-ministries-appeal> to learn more about the Appeal funded ministries and read/hear compelling testimonials from Catholics throughout southern Minnesota who have renewed faith, extended mercy, and inspired hope by participating in these ministries. If you have any questions regarding the CMA, please feel free to contact the parish office at (507) 388-2995. To those who have already donated to the CMA this year your generosity is greatly appreciated

December 2nd—Paint and Sip

All are invited to join Margie Larson Friday, December 2nd for a Paint and Hot Cocoa Night beginning at 7pm. The image you will be painting is a Nativity Scene. All proceeds go to offset funds of our parish youth attending Catholic Camps, Conferences, and Pilgrimages this coming summer. Register early and receive a complimentary Hot Cocoa mug! (supplies are limited) Contact our Youth Ministry office for more details and to reserve your spot.

Agape Gala

IN THANKSGIVING FOR THE CHRIST IN YOU....

"It was an act of love"

~Deacon Frank Cesario

Those who attended our Agape Gala this past week had a special treat with Deacon Cesario in the kitchen preparing his Stuffed Manicotti and Green Bean Avante! Combined with an incredible Antepasto Bar, beautiful music by Grace and Forrest Kunkel, and an amazing team made up of our Parish Priests, Sisters, Staff, adult helpers and dozens of youth group students—made for an incredible evening!

The night was meant to be more than a youth fundraising Gala. It was meant to be an opportunity for our Parish family to “Unite together in His Sacred Heart to help our Youth come to an Encounter with Christ and discover their mission”

We are so grateful for all who gave of their time, talent, and treasure in order to help make that a reality!

Loyola Catholic School

Did you know that November 29 is Giving Tuesday? This is an international movement that encourages us to practice generosity during this season of thanksgiving. This year it is Loyola Catholic School's goal to raise $20,000 on Giving Tuesday and we're already halfway there! Thanks to the generosity of an anonymous donor every dollar you give to Loyola will be matched up to $10,000. Look for opportunities to support Loyola Catholic School on this day of giving in your email inbox and on Facebook, and thank you for supporting our mission to form leaders rooted in their faith, committed to lifelong learning, and service to their communities!

Be sure to keep up with all of Loyola's happenings on social media! Find us on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram. Thank you for your continued support of Catholic education in Mankato!

PHÚC ÂM: Lc 23, 35-43 "Lạy Ngài, khi nào về nước Ngài, xin nhớ đến tôi". Tin Mừng Chúa Giêsu Kitô theo Thánh Luca. Khi ấy, các thủ lãnh cùng với dân chúng cười nhạo Chúa Giêsu mà rằng: "Nó đã cứu được kẻ khác thì hãy tự cứu mình đi, nếu nó thật là Đấng Kitô, người Thiên Chúa tuyển chọn". Quân lính đều chế diễu Người và đưa dấm cho Người uống và nói: "Nếu ông là vua dân Do-thái, ông hãy tự cứu mình đi". Phía trên đầu Người có tấm bảng đề chữ Hy-lạp, La-tinh và Do-thái như sau: "NGƯỜI NÀY LÀ VUA DÂN DO THÁI". Một trong hai kẻ trộm bị đóng đinh trên thập giá cũng sỉ nhục Người rằng: "Nếu ông là Đấng Kitô, ông hãy tự cứu ông và cứu chúng tôi nữa". Đối lại, tên kia mắng nó rằng: "Mi cũng chịu đồng một án mà mi chẳng sợ Thiên Chúa sao? Phần chúng ta, như thế này là đích đáng, vì chúng ta chịu xứng với việc chúng ta đã làm, còn ông này, ông có làm gì xấu đâu?" Và anh ta thưa Chúa Giêsu rằng: "Lạy Ngài, khi nào về nước Ngài, xin nhớ đến tôi". Chúa Giêsu đáp: "Ta bảo thật ngươi: ngay hôm nay, ngươi sẽ ở trên thiên đàng với Ta". Đó là lời Chúa.

Pro Life

Although we may feel unsure how best to comfort those who mourn, we must stand with them in their time of suffering. Miscarriage touches the lives of many people, yet all too often this tragedy remains unaddressed. This lack of response not only often leads to unresolved grief, but also fails to clearly manifest our belief that each person, from conception onward, is precious and unique.
