A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

IS HERE TO HELP

The Sacraments of Christian Initiation

We were blessed to welcome nearly thirty people into fuller communion with the Church through the Sacraments of Initiation this Easter Vigil. Thanks be to God we will also have several students receive Confirmation and First Holy Communion at the beginning of May.

In light of this, it may be helpful to review what the Catechism tells us about the Sacraments of Initiation.

The sacraments of Christian initiation - Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist - lay the foundations of every Christian life. The sharing in the divine nature given to men through the grace of Christ bears a certain likeness to the origin, development, and nourishing of natural life. the faithful are born anew by Baptism, strengthened by the sacrament of Confirmation, and receive in the Eucharist the food of eternal life. By means of these sacraments of Christian initiation, they thus receive in increasing measure the treasures of the divine life and advance toward the perfection of charity.

Holy Baptism is the basis of the whole Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit, and the door which gives access to the other sacraments. Through Baptism we are freed from sin and reborn as sons of God; we become members of Christ, are incorporated into the Church, and made sharers in her mission: Baptism is the sacrament of regeneration through water in the word.

It must be explained to the faithful that the reception of the sacrament of Confirmation is necessary for the completion of baptismal grace. For by the sacrament of Confirmation, the baptized are more perfectly bound to the Church and are enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit. Hence they are, as true witnesses of Christ, more strictly obliged to spread and defend the faith by word and deed.

The Holy Eucharist completes Christian initiation. Those who have been raised to the dignity of the royal priesthood by Baptism and configured more deeply to Christ by Confirmation participate with the whole community in the Lord's own sacrifice by means of the Eucharist. At the Last Supper, on the night he was betrayed, our Savior instituted the Eucharistic sacrifice of his Body and Blood. This he did in order to perpetuate the sacrifice of the cross throughout the ages until he should come again, and so to entrust to his beloved Spouse, the Church, a memorial of his death and resurrection: a sacrament of love, a sign of unity, a bond of charity, a Paschal banquet in which Christ is consumed, the mind is filled with grace, and a pledge of future glory is given to us.

Mission Quilters

Mission Quilters found homes for 30 lap robes at a facility nearby. One of the residents said, "I've never had anything this beautiful." Another resident reacted with a "Why Me"? The reactions that we hear about these donations are extremely heartwarming.

We will keep quilting!

The quilters could use buttons, blankets,

Thank You.

VINE Faith in Action

May is Mental Health Awareness Month, and we want to take this opportunity to raise awareness. Mental health is just as important as physical health and it's important to prioritize both, especially as we age. At least one in four older adults experience some mental disorder, such as depression or anxiety. As we age, we may face challenges related to isolation and loneliness, which can have negative impacts on our own well-being. It's important to acknowledge that these feelings are valid and seeking help is a sign of strength. VINE offers a variety of programs and resources to support older adults in their mental health journey. Call 507-387-1666 to join one of their many programs.
