PRAYER FOR OUR MILITARY

O Prince of peace, we humbly ask Your protection for all our men and women in military service. Give them unflinching courage to defend with honor, dignity and devotion, the rights of all who are imperiled by injustice and evil. Be their rock, their shield, and their stronghold and let them draw their strength from You. For You are God, for ever and ever.

PRAY FOR OUR DECEASED

Please keep in your prayers the following parishioner:

Carmel Quinn Fuller
Nancy McAvay

Almighty Father, source of forgiveness and salvation, grant that our relatives and friends who have passed from this life may, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary and of all the saints, come to share your Eternal happiness through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Stations of the Cross

Please join us for Stations of the Cross, a devotion that helps us to unite ourselves more closely with the Lord on the way to Calvary and to appreciate that the Lord Jesus walks with us as we carry burdens that are, at times, very heavy and who assures us that the crosses that we carry are never the end for us but an opening to eternal life that we will share with the Lord who opened for us the gates of paradise. The Stations of the Cross are at St. John's Tuesdays following 9:00 a.m. Mass, Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. & Fridays following 7:00 p.m. Mass. Praying the Stations of the Cross help to assure us that in our difficulties the Lord walks with us and strengthens us.

ShopRite and Acme Cards

When you purchase a $25, $50, or $100 ShopRite/Acme card at the church you receive the full value of the card you purchased. These stores donate back to St. John's 5% of what we sell. Thanks for supporting this fundraiser.

Eucharistic Awareness

Christ gave us His flesh to eat in order to deepen our love for Him. When we approach Him, then there should be burning within us a fire of love and longing... The wise men paid homage to Christ's body even when it was lying in a manger... They only saw Christ in a manger, they saw nothing of what you now see, and yet they approached Him with profound awe and reverence. You see Him, not in a manger but on an altar, not carried by a woman, but offered by a priest; and you see the Spirit bountifully poured out upon the offerings of bread and wine. Unlike the wise men, you do not merely see Christ's body; you know His power as well, and the whole divine plan for our salvation...

Let us then awaken in ourselves a feeling of awe and let us show a far greater reverence than did those foreigners so that we do not approach this Sacrament casually, without thinking of what we do.

St. John Chrysostom

DID YOU KNOW?

The capital of Bavaria is named after monks. Munich, Germany, is the country's third largest city and in German its name is actually München, literally meaning "Monks," or loosely "Home of the Monks." The name goes back to the eighth century, and refers to a Benedictine monastery on the shores of Lake Tegernsee. In 1157, Henry "the Lion," Duke of Bavaria, gave these monks the land to start a marketplace. Thus, the city of Munchen was founded. Apparently the "Benedictine marketplace" was successful for it has grown into a city of over a million inhabitants. Munich's oldest church (Catholic, of course), the Peterskirche (Saint Peter's Church), was built in 1169, twelve years after the city was founded. It can still be seen today. Also, a fish is named after Monks. The monkfish, which is harvested along the Atlantic coast, is really a kind of shark with a huge head and toothy mouth. It acquired the name "monkfish" not because of its looks; but because, while most fishermen discarded it, the frugal monks used the fish for food.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Ask senior parishioners about this fifth Sunday, and they will share memories of this Sunday years ago, when it was known as "Passion Sunday." In those days, the statues and crucifixes were draped in purple cloth, and a deeply somber atmosphere infused worship. The structure is different today for good reason. The stunning changes in the appearance of the church building drew attention away from the twofold work of Lent: reconciliation and preparing for initiation. Today, this Sunday is given to reflection on the necessity to commit, like Jesus, to the Father's will. Wherever elect are present today, the "A" reading reveals Jesus' compassion in the face of human suffering, and his desire to call us from the tombs of sin, isolation, and even death itself.

As Lent draws to a close over the next ten days, and before the beginning of the Easter Triduum on Holy Thursday, we enter an ideal time for celebrating the sacrament of reconciliation. Today's old title of "Passion Sunday" has migrated to next Sunday, also called "Palm Sunday." In many places, people prepare their own bundles of branches for next week's liturgy: pussy willow, forsythia, dogwood. If your parish schedules a procession, you may want to prepare these branches at home and bring them along. —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

FEAST OF FAITH

The First Reading

Each Sunday, we listen to three scripture readings. The first reading usually comes from the Old Testament. "The New Testament lies hidden in the Old; the Old Testament comes fully to light in the New," we read in the Introduction to the Lectionary. "Christ himself is the center and fullness of the whole of Scripture" (5). On Sundays, these readings usually have a close connection to the Gospel. In this season of Lent, for example, the Exodus account of the thirst of the Israelites in the desert is paired with the Samaritan woman's encounter with Jesus at the well. Ezekiel's vision of the Lord raising people from their graves is paired with the narrative of Christ raising Lazarus from the dead. The readings are taken from many sources—historical books like Judges, Kings, and the Acts of the Apostles, prophets like Isaiah and Ezekiel, wisdom literature like Proverbs or Ecclesiastes. But no matter its genre, the first reading always ends with the same acclamation: "The word of the Lord." The scriptures are written by human authors who wrote in widely different cultural and historical contexts, but these human authors are also divine instruments through whom God speaks to us. And so we say, "Thanks be to God." —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

PRAYER

"PRAYER PURIFIES US, READING INSTRUCTS US.

BOTH ARE GOOD WHEN BOTH ARE POSSIBLE.

OTHERWISE, PRAYER IS BETTER THAN READING."

— ST. ISIDORE OF SEVILLE

Stewardship Reflection—Fifth Sunday of Lent

"I will be their God and they shall be my people."

Jeremiah 31:33

What does it mean to be God's people? It means we recognize that everything we have and everything we are belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. It means we are willing to use our gifts and our lives to care for our family, our neighbors and for people we don't know, just as God cares for each of us.

Lent is a time of sacrifice in order to bring us closer to Christ

As we move closer to Christ, we become more charitable. Would you be willing to sacrifice your time and efforts to go through your closet and donate any unwanted items (we accept clothing, small appliances, shoes, linens, sheets, towels, tools, stuffed animals, novels and children's books) to the Catholic Charities Donation Bin located on the property? If you do, you have made the connection.

FAITH FORMATION NEWS

Next Saturday, March 27th is our "Jesus Day Retreat" for our children preparing to receive their First Holy Communion. We are beginning with 9:00am Mass & then proceeding to Peter Kramer Hall until 12noon. Each child must be accompanied by at least one parent.

2021 ANNUAL APPEAL

The 2021 Annual Appeal is well underway. We have $24,145 already pledged. This is approximately 62.5% of our goal of $38,596. The outpouring of support from many parishioners like you helps sustain the important ministries across the Archdiocese of Newark. These programs help to make our own parish a more vibrant place of worship. If you have yet to give, please pick up a pledge form at the back of the church or visit www.rcan.org/sharing. Thank you for your prayers and support.

St. John's Calendar Raffle 2021

Don't forget to turn in your raffle tickets —drawings begin in April!!! The raffle tickets (along with the $20 per ticket sold) can be returned by placing in the collection basket, or can be dropped off at the Rectory Office (please use the Raffle envelope in which you receive the tickets). Checks should be made payable to St. John's Church. If you wish to sell more, they are available at the Rectory Office—please call and we can arrange for delivery or pick up during the week. Thank you for your support of this important parish fundraiser.

TROUBLED MARRIAGE???

FIFTH SUNDAY OF

LENT

MARCH 21, 2021

*Unless a grain of wheat falls
to the ground and dies,
it remains just a grain of wheat;
but if it dies, it produces much fruit.*

John 12:24

The readings today remind us how close we are to Easter—only two weeks from now. They also remind us that the path to resurrection and Easter always includes suffering and death. The prophet Jeremiah spent his whole life proclaiming the word of God to kings who would not listen. As an old man, he saw Jerusalem defeated and the inhabitants taken into exile. Jeremiah himself suffered in being left behind, but in today's reading, he is looking beyond those sufferings to a time when the previously disobedient people would be transformed and live in harmony with God's law.

LOOKING FOR JESUS, FINDING THE CROSS

In the Gospel reading, friends of Philip come to him and ask about meeting Jesus. When Philip and Andrew take the request to Jesus, he begins a cryptic discourse on discipleship, transformation, and divine judgment. We never hear whether Philip's friends got to personally meet Jesus. Perhaps they simply blended in with the crowd.

Jesus says, "[W]hen I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself." The narrator says that Jesus' words indicate how he will die; the readers already know Jesus will be crucified. Jesus also speaks of divine judgment driving out the world's rulers and of the need to be transformed, like a seed growing into a productive plant. He warns about loving our life and losing it. Unlike Jeremiah's detailed vision, Jesus only hints at what kind of transformed life his death will bring.

What if we, like Philip's friends, want to get close to Jesus? Does that mean that the discourse on death and judgment is addressed to us? If Jesus will draw everyone to himself as he is "lifted up," does being closer to him mean joining him on his cross? (Do we want to be that close to Jesus?) Do we want to be transformed? If we say "yes," the liturgy these next two weeks can show us the only way the Church knows to get closer to Jesus: to be willing to be "lifted up" with him in his suffering—and in our own.

Today's Readings: Jer 31:31–34; Ps 51:3–4, 12–13, 14–15; Heb 5:7–9; Jn 12:20–33

Why We Should Attend Holy Mass The Mass is the best means we have:

- To render God the highest form of worship.
- To thank Him for all His blessings.
- To make reparation for all our sins.
- To obtain all the blessings we desire.
- To release souls from purgatory and to shorten our own time there.
- To preserve us from all dangers to soul and body.
- To be consoled at the hour of death, for at that moment their memory will be our greatest consolation.
- To intercede for us at the Judgment Seat of God.
- To bring down God's blessings; therefore, try to attend at Mass every day, or as often as possible, and of course, on Sundays.
- To better understand the sublimity of the Passion of Christ, and therefore, to increase our love for Him.

RISKS

SPIRITUAL EXCERPT

"When you go to Confession, know this, that I myself am waiting for you in the confessional; I am only hidden by the priest, but I myself act in the soul. Here the misery of the soul meets the God of Mercy. Tell souls that from this fount of mercy, souls draw graces solely with the vessel of trust. If their trust is great, there is no limit to My generosity."
