The Priest . . .

No matter where he is located, the diocesan priest has to be the sharer of secrets, the carrier of burdens, the foundation of consolation, and the pillar of strength. Solitary, he is called father by thousands; poor, he enriches the lives of thousands; weak, he gives strength to thousands; unimportant, he does things each day whose importance cannot be told in any tongue on earth. He is never too busy to hear another's sorrows; often too busy to realize his own burdens. He is a 24-hour-a-day man. He is called from his dinner; wakened from his sleep; disturbed at his prayers. He is at the beck and call of any of his people. He is the target of God's enemies, the magnet of God's needy. Occasionally, he attracts attention; but usually he works unnoticed and unclaimed while he does the nobles work on earth—keeps Christ in the lives of the people. ~from Vocation Ministry

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

5th Sunday of Easter

"The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone." 1 PETER 2:7

Every person has been given gifts from the Holy Spirit. These are called "charisms" and they are used to build God's kingdom of earth. While many people are able to recognize their natural talents and abilities, they may be unsure of their charisms. If you know someone who is struggling for a direction in life, give them a little encouragement. Help them discern their charisms and how God is calling them to use them. Remember - no gift is too small or insignificant in God's salvation plan.

Parenting Pointer

"There are only two lasting bequests we can hope to give our children. One of these is roots, the other is wings." (Hodding Carter) If YOUR life is rooted in faith, let your child see it. If your child takes a different path, believe that the Spirit will take care of him or her. As a parent of adult children your job is to let go but not give up. ~"by Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net"

St John's Altar Society

Spiritual Excerpt

"Look to yourself, and beware of judging what others do. In judging others a person works to no purpose, often makes mistakes, and easily does the wrong thing, but in judging and analyzing ourselves, we always work to our own advantage." ~Thomas A Kempis, THE IMITATION OF CHRIST Book 1, Chapter 14.

Godparent (Sponsor) Requirements

Canon (Church) law states a godparent (sponsor) must:

- * be a Baptized and Confirmed Roman Catholic who attends weekly Mass and receives Eucharist
- * be at least 16 years of age
- * NOT be one of the parents
- * lead a moral life in keeping with Church teaching, and be a good Catholic role model
- * if married, be married according to Church law
- * be a registered member of their own current parish from which they must obtain an eligibility certificate; we can only give eligibility certificates to those registered in our parish!

Since only one Roman Catholic godparent is required, a baptized member of another Christian church (but not a Roman Catholic or former Catholic) may serve as a Christian Witness. Since godparents renew their baptismal promises during the Rite of Baptism, a non-baptized person cannot serve in this role.

SCIENCE LESSON

A teacher was giving a lesson on the circulation of the blood. Trying to make the matter clearer, she said, "Now, class, if I stood on my head, the blood, as you know, would run into it, and I would turn red in the face." "Yes," the class said. "Then why is it that while I am standing upright in the ordinary position, the blood doesn't run into my feet?" A little fellow shouted, "Cause your feet ain't empty."

What is the "better part" that Mary chose?

What is the meaning behind Jesus' words to Martha? At first glance, we can all relate to Martha. When we have guests, we want to make sure they are comfortable. We get them drinks and prepare nice food and run around the house making sure everything is tidy and clean.

It's harder to relate to Mary—isn't it rude to let your sister rush about, doing everything alone, while you relax and listen to the guests? Wouldn't it be much better to help her and take some of the load off her hands?

It feels like a surprise each time we read that Jesus—instead of telling Mary to help—gently chides Martha. He does not blame either sister—He knows how necessary Martha's work is—but He points out that Mary is putting her time to good use in choosing the "better part."

Mary is sitting at Jesus' feet and listening to Him. She has turned all her thoughts to Jesus, hearing His voice and contemplating Him. But this is not what He means when He speaks of the "better part." He is pointing out that Mary acts with great love, while Martha performs her duties with worry and concern.

Jesus reminds us through Martha that whatever we do, whether working or resting or praying or recreating, we should do all with love. Love is the "better part," the "one thing needful" in all that we do. It is the love with which we perform our duties that makes those duties fruitful and worthwhile. ~from <https://www.catholiccompany.com/getfed/what-is-the-better-part-that-mary-chose/>

ORIGIN OF THE ROSARY

Since May is the month of Mary, it might be good to review the origin of the Rosary. The origin of the Rosary is most interesting. From its early days the Church urged its faithful to recite the 150 Psalms of David from the Bible. This custom still prevails today. Priests and consecrated religious are obliged to pray the Liturgy of the Hours (Divine Office) each day which consists in a large measure of the Psalms of David.

In former days, before the printing press, it was not easy for anyone to memorize the 150 Psalms, and hand inscribed scrolls of Scripture were a rarity. The people who could not learn the 150 Psalms by heart, wanted to do something to make up for it. So they substituted 150 "Hail Mary's." They broke up these 150 Hail Mary's into 15 decades, or series. Each 10 Hail Mary's were said while meditating on different aspects of the life of Our divine Lord. We call them the mysteries.

To keep each decade separate, each series of 10 began with the "Our Father" and ended with the doxology or the "Glory Be" in praise to the Blessed Trinity. They would meditate on some mystery of Jesus Christ for the length of time it took to say 10 Hail Mary's, transporting little stones or beads from one pocket or hand to the other.

St. Dominic, who died in 1221, received from Our Blessed Mother the command to preach and to popularize the Rosary for the good of souls, conquest over evil, and the prosperity of Holy Mother Church. Thus as early as the 13th century, the Rosary was given its present classical form, bound together by string or wire. At Fatima the Mother of God insisted that the Rosary be prayed properly.

That means - meditating on the Mysteries of the Rosary, the principle events of the life of Jesus Christ, the chief events of our redemption while praying the Hail Mary's. The Rosary properly prayed is centered on Jesus Christ. Pope Benedict XV said that when we have meditated on the Joyful, Sorrowful and Glorious mysteries of the Rosary we have meditated on all the chief events of our salvation.

WASTING TIME???

A Church goer wrote a letter to the editor of a newspaper and complained that it made no sense to go to church every Sunday. "I've gone for 30 years now," he wrote, "and in that time I have heard something like 3,000 Sermons. But for the life of me, I can't remember a single one of them."

So, I think I'm wasting my time and the pastors are wasting theirs by giving sermons at all."

This started a real controversy in the "Letters to the Editor" column, much to the delight of the editor. It went on for weeks until someone wrote this clincher:

"I've been married for 30 years now. In that time my wife has cooked some 32,000 meals. But, for the life of me, I cannot recall the entire menu for a single one of those meals. But I do know this ... They all nourished me and gave me the strength I needed to do my work. If my wife had not given me these meals, I would be physically dead today. Likewise, if I had not gone to church for nourishment, I would be spiritually dead today!" When you are DOWN to nothing.... God is UP to something! Faith sees the invisible, believes the incredible and receives the impossible! Thank God for our physical AND our spiritual nourishment!
