ANNUAL ²⁰²⁵ APPEAL

Thank you to those parishioners who have already made their gift to the 2025 Annual Appeal. Our goal can only be achieved through YOUR generosity! If you have not yet made a gift, there are pledge forms available in the back of church, or you can visit www.rcan.org/sharing. Your gift will truly make a difference. Thank you for your prayers and support.

Homebound???

If you know someone who is unable to attend Mass and would like to receive Holy Communion, please call the Rectory Office at 201-947-4545 or email: parishoffice@stjohnleonia.org and we will schedule a visit.

DEVOTIONS EXPLAINED

Novena, Explained

The word novena comes from the Latin word, novem, for nine. A novena is a nine-day period of private or public prayer. There are four basic categories of novenas — novenas of preparation, of mourning, of prayer, and of indulgence.

The nine days of prayer format comes directly from scripture where we read in the book of Acts that it was nine days after the Ascension that the Holy Spirit descended onto the Apostles. During that time, the faithful men and women “devoted themselves to constant prayer,” (Acts 1:12-14) waiting for the Lord.

Today, Catholics can find hundreds of novenas to pray about a plethora of topics. Many Catholics pray novenas in times of need or in devotion to a specific saint. Although a saint’s novena may traditionally begin or end on the saint’s feast day, while others, like the “Novena for Adopted Children” or the “Novena for Vocations,” can be prayed any time of the year, there is flexibility here for those wanting to pray. The faithful may choose to pray a private novena on any topic at any time! Want to pray a novena to St. Francis but it’s not his feast day? Go ahead! ©LPi

LAETARE SUNDAY

This is the Fourth Sunday in Lent, and it is known as “Laetare” or Rejoicing” Sunday. On this Sunday, ROSE, not pink, vestments are worn and flowers are permitted in the Church to signify that Lent is half over. In the past, when Lenten penitence and fast were more severe, today was a mid-point break on which the Church suspended the Lenten Fast for one day.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Apology

I like to imagine the Prodigal Son practicing his apology in the mirror.

He wouldn’t have, of course. Mirrors weren’t exactly a dime a dozen back then. But I imagine him anyway, rehearsing the words as he contemplates his own gaunt reflection: “Father, I have sinned against God and against you. Treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers.”

In other words, I have done wrong. I deserve nothing from you. But please, don’t let me starve. Save me.

The apology wasn’t necessary to move the heart of the father. We know that because before they meet, before anything is said, the father is overcome with compassion — not because he got his satisfaction, that long-awaited “I’m sorry, I was wrong.” No, he’s simply overjoyed to see his son alive. Even without apology, we know the father will beg his son to stay.

So why does the son apologize?

The father doesn’t need the “I’m sorry.” He isn’t starving and lost. He knew all along it was a bad idea. He doesn’t need to learn any lessons.

But what a tragedy it would have been, if the son had never said he was sorry. Undoubtedly, his father would have let him stay as a hired worker, and he would have had food to eat. He would have survived. But he wouldn’t have been what he was born to be.

I often think of the son’s apology as I am kneeling in the confessional, awkwardly reciting sins God already knows and is eager to forgive. Why are you doing this? some people would ask. God doesn’t need this.

It’s the apology, you see. The apology means everything. The Prodigal Son was dead. The apology brought him back to life.

God doesn’t need our repentance. We need our repentance. ©LPi

2025 Wedding Anniversary Mass

The Archdiocese of Newark is preparing the annual tradition of honoring those couples who will be celebrating five, twenty-five and fifty years of Christian marriage in 2025—celebrated by Cardinal Joseph Tobin on Sunday, June 1st at 3 p.m. at the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart in Newark. All family members are welcome!

It is our desire that every couple in the Archdiocese celebrating their 5th, 25th, or 50th Catholic wedding anniversary be present at this special liturgy. The presence of these couples and their families will be a beautiful witness to the strength and stability of Christian marriage in today's society.

Please contact the Rectory office no later than May 10th to register.

What are “Ember Days”?

The U.S. bishops have encouraged us to observe this ancient practice.

The Ember Days are an age-old custom of the Church, originating about the 4th century.

They were observed four times per year, at the beginning of each season, and consisted of three days of prayer, fasting, and abstinence as a way of thanking God for the gifts of Creation, to ask His help in using them well, and to assist those in need. Like Rogation Days, these days were closely connected to the seasonal farming cycles and were a profound way of sanctifying our earthly doings.

The Ember Days are always Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday, and the dates are as follows:

- The Third Week of Advent
- The First Week of Lent (The week after Ash Wednesday—this week!)
- The week after Pentecost
- The third week in September

Traditionally, priestly ordinations have taken place on Ember Saturdays, a custom that dates all the way back to Pope Gelasius in the 5th century. Although this is not observed as a rule anymore, the Ember Days are still a good opportunity to offer prayer and sacrifice for our clergy.

In fact, various bishops and clergy in the U.S. have encouraged the renewed observance of the Ember Days as a way to pray for vocations, priests, and the needs of the Church.

In their Pastoral Statement on Penance and Abstinence of 1966, the U.S. bishops also encouraged the voluntary observance of vigils and Ember Days as a way of participating in the Church's traditional custom of a “fast before a feast.”

Yet penance is an essential part of the Christian life. Why not bring it back through the observance of the Ember Days, in whatever way—small or large—that you are able?
