YOUTH GROUP PIZZA PARLOR THIS WEEKEND-GET YOUR PIZZAS!!!

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray, and thou O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts by the POWER OF GOD, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

FROM FATHER TONY:

Dear Friends,

I want to thank everyone for the wonderful celebration we had last Sunday. We are so blessed to have our new building and the opportunities it will present for our parish family. This was only possible because of your perseverance and generosity. I especially want to thank our building committee for their diligence and hard work in this process.

When we think about Labor Day today, we envision camping, grilling and celebrating the end of summer. It is a time for family and friends to come together and celebrate life. There is actually more to Labor Day. How did it come about and why?

The first Labor Day holiday was celebrated on September 5, 1882. It was created to celebrate the dignity of workers and the achievements Americans have made through the gift of their labor. When you read the social teachings of the Catholic Church, you find a rich history of documents focused on the dignity of workers. The Catholic Church has always tried to defend the rights of workers, especially in times when workers were not treated fairly by employers. If you would be interested, there are some excellent articles regarding labor and the dignity of workers on the United States Catholic Church of Bishops' website—uscbb.org.

Many of us grew up in strong Catholic families and one of the things we learned is that hard work is an important part of life. Many employers comment on how hard it can be to find people who want to work. We should always take pride in our work and seek to give our very best.

There is also a danger to work. We can become workaholics. I know this because I struggle with this problem. Work can become our god if we are not careful. In fact, it can prevent us from living a healthy life and it can have ill effects on our families. We must always strive to balance work and family life. This has never been easy.

On this Labor Day, let us reflect on the dignity of work as well as the danger of work. Let us thank the Lord for the talents and work He has given us to do. And let us pray that we may find joy and satisfaction in our work, realizing that we are co-creators with God and Stewards of His creation. And let us pray for those less fortunate, that they may find work that will sustain their families, nurture their children and secure their future. Have a great weekend.

St. Joseph, patron of workers, pray for us.

God Bless,

Father Tony
