St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray, and thou O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts by the Power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls

Religious Education will be starting soon. Please pick up a registration packet and calendar in the back of church. Return the registration form to Carrie or in the collection. We want to make sure we have enough materials for class.

Teachers are also needed! Please contact Carrie Horton

Dear Friends,

What a big few weeks it's been at our churches! We want to continue to congratulate Deacons, Kevin, Pat, and Ron as we are blessed to hear them preach for the first time this Sunday. May the Lord continue to bless their ministry of service to the Church! Remember that St. Philip Neri will start RCIA on Sunday, Sept 11. Please keep them in your prayers as they prepare to receive their sacraments at the Easter Vigil. We can build in our parish. Thank you for being part of it and for giving so selflessly of your time and talents.

A reminder that as a diocese we are celebrating a year of the Eucharist. This is part of a larger Eucharistic Revival taking place across the country that will eventually culminate in a National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis from July 17-21, 2024. We hope you had a good chance to check out the Eucharistic displays a few weeks ago and watch for more in the future. Did you know that there was a Eucharistic miracle in Texas a few weeks ago? Officially it is not confirmed by the church...but I'd encourage you to check it out!

Keeping this Eucharistic theme, St. Francis Xavier is continuing to work toward a 24/7 Eucharistic Adoration Chapel at the Old Cathedral Campus. It is coming slowly but steadily. In the meantime,...we need your prayers to assist us! For weeks now we've been hearing Gospels about separating ourselves from worldly attachments, from riches and wealth that we cannot bring with us. Instead, let us find our identity as Catholic Christians in the greatest treasure God has given us– in Jesus Christ himself...his body, blood, soul and divinity in the Eucharist.

Yours in Christ,
Father Garrett

FROM OUR SEMINARIAN BRADLEY

Hello St Philip Neri,

I am writing to you from Kentucky Lake, where Father Tony and I are on our annual Fall Seminarian Gathering. This little retreat does a couple of things. First, it welcomes the new seminarians and gives us a chance and them a chance to get to know their new Diocesan Brothers. (We have six new seminarians this year!) it also signifies the end of the returning seminarians' summers as well as the beginning of a new year of formation. Since it signifies the end of our summers, it has given me a moment to reflect on mine.

Initially, I would like to apologize for being away from our Knox County churches more than I would have liked. The main 'culprit' for this is weddings, ha-ha. I'm at the age now where many of my peers are getting married. In total, I have 9 weddings this year that are all in different places. I have served for four and been a groomsman for two. I was at my cousin's wedding in Shelbyville this weekend when three of our Vincennes men were ordained deacons. To Deacon Ron Cardinal, Deacon Pat Herman, and Deacon Kevin Kilmer, congratulations. I wish I could have been there. I heard it was beautiful.

Despite the weekends I missed, the weeks during which I was in Knox County were wonderful. I was so humbled by all of your generosity. I dare say you all are more generous than Jasper people, ha-ha. What's more is I was inspired by how many people wanted to know me and be known by me this summer on a level much deeper than I expected. There were so many of you who I had met this summer who I could tell still have much deeper stories beneath their surfaces I merely scratched.

I loved being with you all this summer. I'm sure I will see you, my brothers and sisters, more in this life and the next.

Christ's peace,
Bradley Gehlhausen

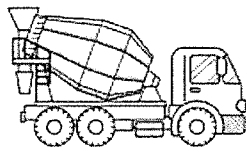

Have you ever thought about coming into full communion with the Catholic Church? Do you know someone who may be interested in joining the Catholic Church? Do you have questions on things relating to the Catholic Church? RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) will be starting in September. This is a way to learn about the Catholic faith. There is no pressure, but if you would like to join (come into full communion) with the faith then this will help you prepare yourself. Please prayerfully consider this opportunity, we would love to have you join. Class starts September 11 after Mass. Signup sheet in the vestibule

- Youth group pizza parlor -Labor Day weekend Saturday & Sunday 4-8pm Monday after the parade until 2pm or sold out whichever comes first
- Religious Education starts Sunday Sept 11
- Wisdom Day – Monday Sept 12 at 9am at Green Activities Center
- Fall Fish Fry – Oct 7
- Outdoor Mass at Villwock's Barn – Oct 9
- Parish Meeting – Tuesday Oct 11

Monthly brunch will be starting in September and running through April on the 3rd Sunday of the month. The signup sheet is in the vestibule. Please considering sponsoring a month. Turn your receipts in and the church will reimburse you for your costs. This is always a great time of food and fellowship

Concrete Fund update: You continue to be so generous that our plans are expanding. To date we have $26,466 designated for concrete. Therefore, we have big ideas that we would like to: repair steps & concrete into the sacristy, remove the planter behind church, concrete the parking lot between church & parish hall and new concrete for the driveway between church & rectory. Phew we know that is a lot but we have big dreams. We are waiting on an estimate on this bigger project and will let you know as soon as possible, if this is even feasible. In the meantime, please continue to pray & give generously so the dream can be a reality.

Our grounds keep improving! Check out the new paint on the church windows. Many thanks to Greg and crew. Our church family is amazing!
