St. Monica Project Prayer Group - First Tuesday of each month

Please join us after Mass on Tuesday, April 7 for special prayers for our loved ones who have left the practice of the Catholic Faith as well as all fallen-away Catholics. May our prayers stir their hearts and rekindle their love for Jesus Christ

...I come before you now, humbly seeking the same abundant grace for my son/daughter... St. Monica

Celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, April 12 with the chaplet of Divine Mercy in Song at 8:30am here at St. Philip Neri - Jesus, I trust in You!

The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us—all of us. And, He wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. In this way, all will come to share His joy.

The Divine Mercy message is one we can call to mind simply by remembering ABC:

A – Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach Him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world.

B – Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us.

C – Completely trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that the graces of His mercy are dependent upon our trust. The more we trust in Jesus, the more we will receive.

This message and devotion to Jesus as The Divine Mercy is based on the writings of Saint Faustina Kowalska, an uneducated Polish nun who, in obedience to her spiritual director, wrote a diary, Divine Mercy in My Soul, of about 600 pages recording the revelations she received about God's mercy. Even before her death in 1938, the devotion to The Divine Mercy had begun to spread.

There will also be a Divine Mercy Celebration April 12 at 2:30pm at the Old Cathedral in Vincennes

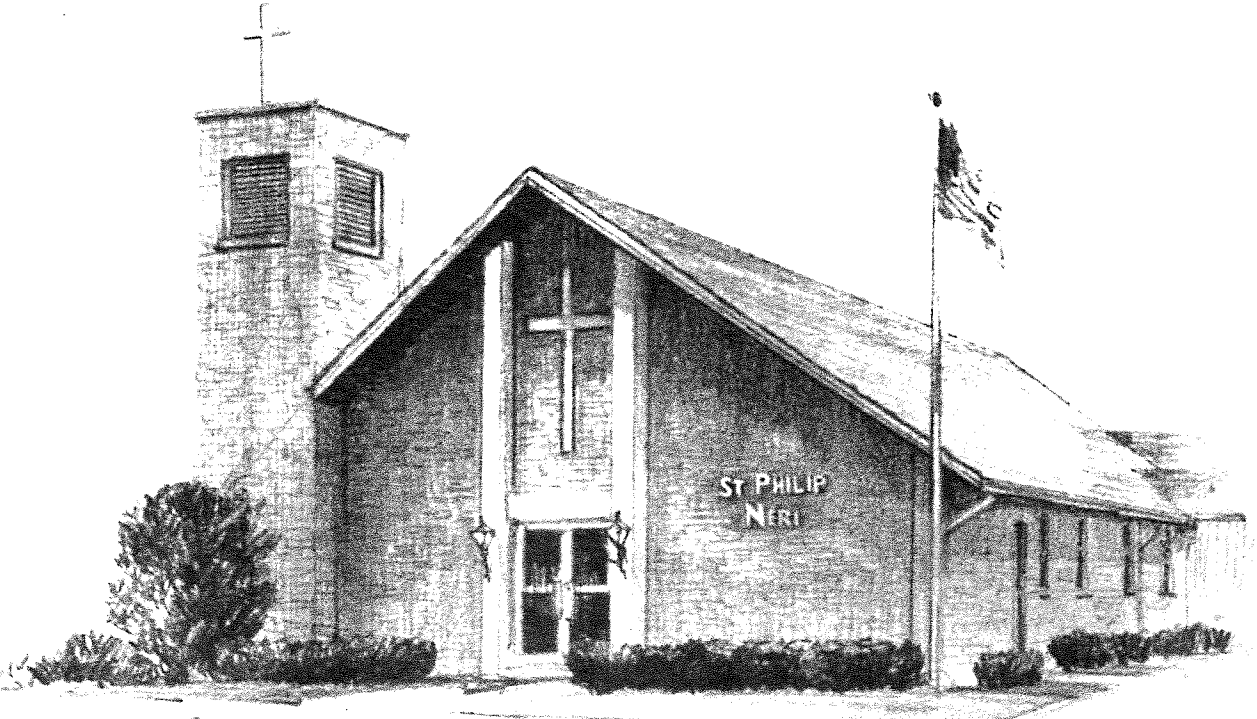

Bonus Video for "No Greater Love: A Biblical Walk thru Christ's Passion" : The Importance of the Resurrection of Christ to our Catholic Faith - Wednesday April 1 at 6:30pm in the parish hall

Attention all potential graduates from High School and College. Congratulations! We will be honoring you on May 3 at Mass and with a reception after in the parish hall. Please send us your bio & future plans, so we can celebrate your accomplishments. Drop a note in the collection basket or email: philipneri4069@gmail.com

Sacristan training Please consider volunteering for this ministry. Fr. Tony would like to get more people involved in the church, so we are expanding this ministry. Sacristans are the people behind the scenes that make sure our church is set up for Mass. This includes unlocking church doors, turning on lights, preparing sacred vessels, setting out hosts for consecration, setting the readings in the Lectionary, making sure holy water fonts are filled, locking up after Mass. This happens at every Mass, Holy Day, Funerals & Weddings. Please sign up in the vestibule so we can get your training scheduled soon. Thanks for volunteering.

North Knox Social Ministries Collection TODAY! Thanks for helping others

Dear Friends,
Happy Easter! This is the greatest day of the year for us Christians as we celebrate our Lord's resurrection and the hope of our own resurrection to eternal life. As Christians, we are called to be a resurrection people. We who believe in the Lord's resurrection are called to live out that mystery in our lives. We all know that there is so much despair and destruction in our world today. That is why the celebration of Easter is so critical in our lives. We are to bring hope to a world that can often seem hopeless. We have this hope because we know that Jesus conquered sin and death and He promised that, if we remain united with Him, we will also be victorious over sin and death.

We were so blessed to welcome our new catechumen, Kyle Strange, into our Catholic Church on Holy Saturday evening. Welcome, Kyle! May you always find a home here in our parish family. You would be happy to know that many parishes throughout our country are having a record number of converts this year. Why is this? People are looking for meaning and hope in their lives. I also think this is happening because of all of you who are living your faith devoutly and making it attractive to others.

I also want to tell you about a special celebration we are having next Sunday. The second Sunday of Easter is observed as Divine Mercy Sunday. What is this feast? Divine Mercy was revealed through Christ to St. Faustina. St. Faustina was a member of the convent of the Congregation of Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy in Krakow, Poland. Our Lord Jesus appeared to her bringing a wonderful message of mercy for all mankind. Jesus told St. Faustina that this Feast of Mercy would be a very special day when "all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened." We will be celebrating Divine Mercy Sunday here at St. Philip Neri with the Divine Mercy Chaplet in song next Sunday (April 12) at 8:30am. Then the celebration continues at Old Cathedral Church in the afternoon at 3:00 pm. We will offer time for the Sacrament of Reconciliation at 2:30 p.m. Plan to come and celebrate the Lord's amazing mercy.

We all know that Jesus rose from the dead. The question is: How has that affected us? What does Easter mean to us? This Easter Season let's pray for the grace to be living signs of Christ's new life in our community. I pray that this Easter your faith will be strengthened so that you can be a person of the resurrection and share that hope with the world. Along with Father Caleb and Father Clint, I wish all of you and your families a blessed Easter Season. This is the day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad!

Love in the Risen Christ, Father Tony

Thanks to everyone who contributed to our beautiful Easter Decorations in memory of their loved ones. Also thanks to everyone who has made our Easter Triduum celebrations so special! Priests, Deacons, Liturgical ministers, soloist, pianist, decorating committee, sacristans, OCIA teachers and everyone who joined in these Holy Days. Let us rejoice, He is Risen, Alleluia!

Thank you

Congratulations to Kyle Strange who was welcomed into the church last night at the Easter Vigil. We are so happy to have Kyle become a full member of our St. Philip Neri Family!

Brunch next Sunday, April 12 in the parish hall. We will be celebrating our Maria Goretti Distinction Honorees: Kadie Lafferty and Bailey McClure and welcoming Kyle Strange to our parish family

Fish for sale in the parish hall freezer: 13 bags available, each containing 4 pieces of cooked fish. Cost is $8 per bag.

A big thank you to everyone who donated eggs, ice, desserts, and especially your time to help make the fish fry a success! It was definitely busy, but we had a lot of laughs and a great time too. We couldn't have pulled it off without your help! Profit will be shared shortly.
