On behalf of the clergy and staff at St. Monica in Cameron and St. Matthew in Rogers, I want to wish everyone a Happy Easter!

Easter is "what it's all about" for us Catholics, our greatest feast of the year. Jesus' triumph over death and his promise to us—that where he goes, we will follow if we remain close to him—allows us to live life without fear, like his earliest group of friends.

St. Paul famously said, "Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?" (1 Corinthians 15.55). This attitude of "taunting" death, this ability to go out and proclaim Jesus and his way to anyone and everyone even in the face of persecution, is something the early disciples would only have had the strength and confidence for if they had seen their risen Lord.

Today, we have seen our risen Lord in the Mass we have celebrated. And any time in our life when we have fears or struggles, we are invited back to Mass to relive Jesus' (and our) victory. We can always return to this place to regain our strength and confidence.

Know that we at St. Monica's and St. Matthew's desire to provide sanctuaries where each and every person is invited to encounter the Divine and be filled with grace. Welcome home.

También a nosotros, como a las mujeres que acudieron al sepulcro, van dirigidas estas palabras: «¿Por qué buscan ustedes entre los muertos al que está vivo? No está aquí, sino que ha resucitado.» (Lc 24,5-6). La muerte, la soledad y el miedo ya no son la última palabra. Hay una palabra que va más allá y que solo Dios puede pronunciar: es la palabra de la Resurrección.

Rev. Barry Wm. Cuba
