St. Monica's Prayer Chain
Cadena de oración de Santa Mónica

Please Pray for / Por favor, reza por

Jim Tidwell, Gene & Grace Mitchan, Joleen Cahill, David Minatra Deacon Earl Colley, Georgina Ann Glaser, and Paulette Foster.

I congratulate Frank and Janice Klecka on their reception of the Lumen Gentium award! The term Lumen Gentium means "Light of the Nations" and is the title of a document that was issued during the Second Vatican Council in 1964. (The names of the major documents from the Vatican always come from their first sentence in Latin.)

A key theme of this document is the role of the laity. The church realized even back then that the number of priests was declining, so if churches were going to survive and thrive, people could not depend on their priests to do everything (and, I guarantee you, we can't!). Parish priests and deacons come and go, said the pope; it is the laity who carry the torch of the faith to the next generation and the clergy's role is to help the laity become who they are meant to be.

While I have not gotten to know Frank and Janice very well during my short time here, their reputation precedes them as wonderful, kind members of the parish who are always willing to help. I have never heard their names mentioned without someone adding at the end, "Yeah, they're really good people, Father." That's the best compliment that someone can receive, I think: to know that others speak well of them when they're not looking.

So, on behalf of the parish who supported their nomination, the pastoral council who backed it up, and me who confirmed their selection, I once again congratulate Frank and Janice and thank them for the beautiful way they represent their faith--and St. Monica's--to the people of Cameron.

¡Felicitaciones Frank y Janice Klecka! Ellos han recibido el Lumen Gentium Award de la Diócesis de Austin. Su trabajo es un ejemplificación del espíritu del documento Vaticano, Lumen Gentium, el cual declara que a los laicos se les da una vocación especial para hacer presente y fructífera a la Iglesia "en aquellos lugares y circunstancias en que sólo puede llegar a ser sal de la tierra a través de ellos".
