PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners of Mary Star of the Sea:

I hope you all are enjoying this beautiful Fall weather, as we approach the end of the liturgical year I thought it might be helpful to reflect on the blessings we have received and especially knowing we are children of God Our Almighty Father.

Have a Blessed Week.

Fr. Harrigan

Pastor

From a letter to Proba by Saint Augustine, bishop

On the Lord's Prayer

We need to use words so that we may remind ourselves to consider carefully what we are asking, not so that we may think we can instruct the Lord or prevail on him.

Thus, when we say: Hallowed be your name, we are reminding ourselves to desire that his name, which in fact is always holy, should also be considered holy among men. I mean that it should not be held in contempt. But this is a help for men, not for God.

And as for our saying: Your kingdom come, it will surely come whether we will it or not. But we are stirring up our desires for the kingdom so that it can come to us and we can deserve to reign there.

When we say: Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven, we are asking him to make us obedient so that his will may be done in us as it is done in heaven by his angels.

When we say: Give us this day our daily bread, in saying this day we mean "in this world." Here we ask for a sufficiency by specifying the most important part of it; that is, we use the word "bread" to stand for everything. Or else we are asking for the sacrament of the faithful, which is necessary in this world, not to gain temporal happiness but to gain the happiness that is everlasting.

When we say: Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, we are reminding ourselves of what we must ask and what we must do in order to be worthy in turn to receive.

When we say: Lead us not into temptation, we are reminding ourselves to ask that his help may not depart from us; otherwise we could be seduced and consent to some temptation, or despair and yield to it.

When we say: Deliver us from evil, we are reminding ourselves to reflect on the fact that we do not yet enjoy the state of blessedness in which we shall suffer no evil. This is the final petition contained in the Lord's Prayer, and it has a wide application. In this petition the Christian can utter his cries of sorrow, in it he can shed his tears, and through it he can begin, continue and conclude his prayer, whatever the distress in which he finds himself. Yes, it was very appropriate that all these truths should be entrusted to us to remember in these very words.

Whatever be the other words we may prefer to say (words which the one praying chooses so that his disposition may become clearer to himself or which he simply adopts so that his disposition may be intensified), we say nothing that is not contained in the Lord's Prayer, provided of course we are praying in a correct and proper way. But if anyone says something which is incompatible with this prayer of the Gospel, he is praying in the flesh, even if he is not praying sinfully. And yet I do not know how this could be termed anything but sinful, since those who are born again through the Spirit ought to pray only in the Spirit.

We read, for example: May you receive glory among all the nations as you have among us, and May your prophets prove themselves faithful. What does this mean but Hallowed be your name?

We read: Lord of power and might, touch our hearts and show us your face, and we shall be saved. What does this mean but Your kingdom come?

We read: Direct my ways by your word, and let no sin rule over me. What does this mean but Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven?

We read: Do not give me poverty or riches. What does this mean but Give us this day our daily bread?

We read: Lord, remember David and all his patient suffering, and Lord, if I have done this, if there is guilt on my hands, if I have repaid evil for evil. . .What does that mean but Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us?

We read: Rescue me, God, from my enemies, deliver me from those who rise up against me. What does this mean but Deliver us from evil?

If you study every word of the petitions of Scripture, you will find, I think, nothing that is not contained and included in the Lord's Prayer. When we pray, then, we may use different words to say the same things, but we may not say different things.

We should not hesitate to make these prayers for ourselves, for our friends, for strangers, and even for enemies, though the emotions in our heart may vary with the strength or weakness of our relationships with individuals.

You now know, I think, the attitudes you should bring to prayer, as well as the petitions you should make, and this not because of what I have taught you but thanks to the teaching of the one who has been pleased to teach us all.

We must search out the life of happiness, we must ask for it from the Lord our God. Many have discussed at great length the meaning of happiness, but surely we do not need to go to them and their long drawn out discussions. Holy Scripture says concisely and with truth: Happy is the people whose God is the Lord. We are meant to belong to that people, and to be able to see God and live with him forever, and so the object of this command is love from a pure heart, from a good conscience and a sincere faith.

In these three qualities, "a good conscience" stands for "hope." Faith, hope and love bring safely to God the person who prays, that is, the person who believes, who hopes, who desires, and who ponders what he is asking of the Lord in the Lord's Prayer.

A Message from our Perpetual Adoration Coordinator

BLESSINGS ABOUND! THE REWARDS ARE MANY!
ANSWER THE CALL!

I realize this is not a good time to be asking for parishioners to come forward to fill hours of Adoration in the middle of the night and early morning hours. We never know when God will call on us or when illness will take over our lives. Such is the case with our dear, long time adorer, Patrick Huey. He has served our Lord well for many years in the wee hours of the night. NOW, it is our turn to return the favor!

Listed below are the hours that need to be filled:

Saturday Night 11 p.m. - Midnight
Sunday Mornings 3 a.m.-4 a.m., 4 a.m.-5 a.m., 5 a.m.-6 a.m.
Sunday Afternoon 2p.m.-3 p.m.

Awe-inspiring God, teach us to know how to seek You in Silence. From time to time, let us withdraw from the trouble of life and rest quietly in Your presence.

Thank you. Barbara West/Coordinator 310-548-1693

JUBILEE—YEAR OF MERCY-PILGRIMAGE IN ROME

Pope Francis announced the Holy Year of Mercy, which begins on December 8th, 2015. The Pope typically announces a jubilee every 25 years. The main focus of this Holy Year, is to evoke the concept of forgiveness.

In this spirit St. Anthony Croatian Catholic Parish will organize a pilgrimage to Rome. Between March 31st and April 11th, 2016, under guidance of Fr. Goran Jovicic.

During our pilgrimage in Rome we will participate on Saturday April 1st, at the conference about Divine Mercy, pilgrimage to the Holy Doors and at the Vespers with Pope Francis. The culmination of this event will be the Divine Mercy Sunday's celebrations with the Pope.

During our trip we will be visiting the holy sights, and the tombs of the Apostles. Our next destination during our pilgrimage will be Assisi and/or Padre Pio's tomb in San Giovanni Rotondo. This a great opportunity for our spiritual growth and to know each other better. Our pilgrimage last year was an unforgettable life's experience! I would like to encourage our parishioners and all other brothers and sisters in faith who are interested to participate. Croatians and Italians could stay in their countries after our pilgrimage to visit their relatives.

Registrations are at our Office (only Tuesdays and Thursdays) at 213 628 2938 and at: dongoran@gmail.com

Thanksgiving Day Prayer

Loving God,

Who created and sustains the universe, who loved us all into being, and who gives us every good thing, we thank you for the blessings that you bring into our lives.

We thank you for the gift of life itself, which you gave us in our mothers' wombs.

We thank you for the fresh start of each new day, which is a sign of your renewing and creative love.

And we thank you for our friends, our families, our neighbors and our coworkers, whose human love is an image of your divine care.

Increase our gratitude this Thanksgiving Day, and help us to recognize all the good things that we have, both large and small.

And magnify our desire to share what we have with others, so that they too may be grateful to you, loving God.

Amen.

9th Annual Nativity Exhibit: "The Animals at the Stable"

Sunday, December 6 to Monday, December 21

"Jesus our brother, kind & good, was humbly born in a stable rude. And the friendly beasts around Him stood, Jesus our brother, kind & good"

From "The Friendly Beasts", traditional carol

Every year during our Nativity Exhibit we experience new and different ways to look at the celebration of the Birth. This year we are featuring the animals whose presence at the stable reminds all of their place in our World. From St. Francis' first celebration of the Christmas Mass with live animals and a manger for his altar to the English carol, The Friendly Beasts, both traditional and usual animals have populated nativity sets. Please join us this year for our annual exhibit and see what creatures come to the stable.

Call in advance for hours, docent tours and field trip reservations. Donations requested for docent led tours.
