PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Mary Star of the Sea Parishioners:

We hear of the great virtue of Humility in the Gospel today. Humility is the “Silver Bullet” that goes through the evil heart of Satan. Let us try to cultivate this virtue as Our Holy Mother Mary did throughout Her Life. Have a Blessed Week.

Fr. Harrigan

Pastor

6 WAYS TO CULTIVATE THE VIRTUE OF HUMILITY.

Humility is the foundation of all the other virtues hence, in the soul in which this virtue does not exist, there cannot be any other virtue except in mere appearance.

—St. Augustine

But while it's simple enough to know that we should be humble, it's not always so easy in practice. Accordingly, I want to discuss six methods to cultivate the virtue of humility.

1. PRAY FOR IT

It is safe to say that no virtue is ever formed in our souls except by frequent prayer. If you truly desire to be humble, pray every day for this grace, asking God to help you overcome your self-love.

“We should daily ask God with our whole hearts for humility,” teaches St. John Vianney, “for the grace to know that we are nothing of ourselves, and that our corporal as well as our spiritual welfare proceeds from him alone.”

2. ACCEPT HUMILIATIONS

Perhaps the most painful, but also the most effective, way to learn humility is by accepting humiliating and embarrassing circumstances. Fr. Gabriel of St. Mary Magdalene explains:

Many souls would like to be humble, but few desire humiliation; many ask God to make them humble and fervently pray for this, but very few want to be humiliated. Yet it is impossible to gain humility without humiliations; for just as studying is the way to acquire knowledge, so it is by the way of humiliation that we attain to humility.

As long as we only desire this virtue of humility, but are not willing to accept the means thereto, not even are we on the true road to acquiring it. Even if in certain situations we succeed in acting humbly, this may well be the result of a superficial and apparent humility rather than of a humility that is real and profound.

3. OBEY LEGITIMATE SUPERIORS

One of the clearest manifestations of pride is disobedience (ironically, disobedience and rebellion are hailed as virtues in modern Western society). Satan fell through his proud, Non serviam, “I will not serve.”

On the other hand, humility is always manifested by obedience to legitimate authority, whether it be your boss or the government.

4. DISTRUST YOURSELF

The saints tell us that every sin we commit is due to our pride and self-reliance. If we completely distrusted ourselves and relied only upon God, they say, we would never sin.

Dom Lorenzo Scupoli went so far as to say that, “Distrust of self is so absolutely requisite in the spiritual combat that without this virtue we cannot expect to defeat our weakest passions, much less gain a complete victory.”

5. ACKNOWLEDGE YOUR NOTHINGNESS

Another highly effective way of cultivating humility is to meditate on the grandeur and greatness of God, while simultaneously acknowledging your own nothingness in relation to him. St. John Vianney puts it this way:

Who can contemplate the immensity of a God without humbling himself into the dust at the thought that God created heaven out of nothing, and that with one word he could turn heaven and earth into nothing again? A God who is so great, and whose power is boundless; a God filled with every perfection; a God with his never-ending eternity, his great justice, his providence, who rules everything so wisely, and looks after everything with such care, and we a mere nothing!

6. THINK BETTER OF OTHERS THAN OF YOURSELF

When we are proud, we inevitably think we are better than others. We pray like the Pharisee, “Lord, I thank you that I am not like other men.” This self-righteousness is incredibly harmful to our souls, and it is detestable to God. Scripture and the saints both affirm that the only safe path is considering everyone as better than ourselves. “Do nothing from selfishness or conceit, but in humility count others better than yourselves,” says St. Paul (Phil. 2:3).

The humble live in continuous peace, while in the hearts of the proud are envy and frequent anger.

CONCLUSION

There is no doubt about it: humility is the foundation of the entire spiritual life. Without this virtue, we will never advance in holiness. Yet, humility is not simply an abstraction to be admired—it is a virtue to be learned and practiced through the often painful circumstances of daily life. Let us always strive to be humble, then, in imitation of Jesus Christ, who “emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men.”

Healthy suspicion can protect those who are vulnerable to abuse:

When it comes to fighting against abuse, prevention is the first step. For adults who work with kids, it's important to recognize the signs of those who could be vulnerable to predators or abuse. Dear Mary Star Parishioners,

- During the month of October, the students of Mary Star Elementary are being encouraged to see the value of work. "Work" can apply to anything from getting up in the morning to doing homework and practicing sports or an instrument.
- On Friday we had our Parent/Teacher conferences, where parents and teachers had the chance to discuss students' improvement and growth.
- Respect Life Week
This past week our school joined many other schools to increase our awareness of the various life issues affecting our world. Each class spent some time this week discussing how they could respect life, especially by the spiritual and corporal works of mercy.
- All School Mass Every Friday
We are very proud to announce that all of our students will now be attending Mass each Friday at 9:00am when school is in session. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and Communion are such important parts of our Catholic identity and we are honored to be able to give this gift to our students.
- Weekly Confessions for Students and Parents!
Another new opportunity we are providing for both students and parents is making the Sacrament of Confession available during our school Mass on Friday. Most schools are only able to provide Confession a few times a year, we now offer it every week!
- Annual Appeal
We continue to receive your generous donations for the students of Mary Star Elementary and are very grateful for your support of our school. If you still haven't had the chance to show your generosity it is not too late!
