PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Mary Star of the Sea Parishioners:

A Blessed Easter Octave and Divine Mercy Sunday. One of God's Greatest Attributes is His Mercy. Today we as the Universal Church celebrate that very Ocean of His Mercy. Below is some history and facts about the Message of Divine Mercy. I hope you enjoy it. Have a Blessed Week and hope to see you at the special 3:00pm Divine Mercy Holy Hour Today.

Fr. Harrigan

Pastor

St. Pope John Paul II

The Great Mercy Pope

Pope John Paul II, both in his teaching and personal life, strove to live and teach the message of Divine Mercy. As the great Mercy Pope, he wrote an encyclical on Divine Mercy:

"The Message of Divine Mercy has always been near and dear to me... which I took with me to the See of Peter and which it in a sense forms the image of this Pontificate."

In his writings and homilies, he has described Divine Mercy as the answer to the world's problems and the message of the third millennium. He beatified and canonized Sr. Maria Faustina Kowalska, the nun associated with the message, and he did it in Rome and not in Poland to underscore that Divine Mercy is for the whole world.

Establishing Divine Mercy Sunday for the Entire Church

When Pope John Paul canonized Sr. Faustina (making her St. Faustina), he also, on the same day, surprised the entire world by establishing Divine Mercy Sunday (the feast day associated with the message) as a feast day for the entire Church. The feast day falls on the Second Sunday of the Easter season. On that day, Pope John Paul II declared, "This is the happiest day of my life."

Entrusting the World to Divine Mercy

In 2002, the Pope entrusted the whole world to Divine Mercy when he consecrated the International Shrine of The Divine Mercy in Ląbień, a suburb of Krakow in Poland. This is where St. Faustina's mortal remains are entombed. The saint lived in a convent nearby. The Pope himself remembers as a young man working in the Solvay Quarry, just a few meters from the present-day Shrine. He also says that he had been thinking about Sr. Faustina for a long time when he wrote his encyclical on Divine Mercy. Further, the Holy Father has frequently quoted from the Diary of St. Faustina and has prayed The Chaplet of The Divine Mercy at the saint's tomb.

Beyond the Life of John Paul II

Given all these connections to Divine Mercy and St. Faustina, is it any wonder that Pope John Paul II died on the Vigil of Divine Mercy Sunday (the evening before the feast day), which fell that year on April 3. It is also no surprise that the Great Mercy Pope left us a message for Divine Mercy Sunday, which was read on the feast day by a Vatican official to the faithful in St. Peter's after a Mass that had been celebrated for the repose of the soul of the Pope.

Repeatedly Pope John Paul II has written and spoken about the need for us to turn to the mercy of God as the answer to the specific problems of our times. He has placed a strong and significant focus on the Divine Mercy message and devotion throughout his pontificate that will carry the Church long after his death.

TODAY
DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY
APRIL 23rd

3:00 pm: In the church, there will be exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, and the Divine Mercy Chaplet in song. This will be followed by Benediction, and individual veneration of a first class relic of St. Faustina. Our pastor, Fr. Harrigan will lead the devotions. The celebration will conclude with a reception in the parish center.

Our Lord asked St. Faustina to pray and work towards establishing a feast of the Divine Mercy on the Sunday after Easter. He told her: "On this day, the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon souls who approach the fount of My Mercy. The soul that will go to confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." (Diary of St. Faustina 699) John Paul II proclaimed Mercy Sunday an official feast of the church in April of 2000 when he canonized St. Maria Faustina.

There will be free Divine Mercy Literature in English and Spanish available on the patio after all the morning masses.

FAITH FORMATION

Second Sunday of Easter

Alleluia! Jesus is truly risen! Alleluia!

Jesus entered the locked room to offer the gift of Peace to the disciples.

Jesus is always entering the locked places of our lives. He comes eastering in us. Unexpected, uninvited, and sometimes even unwanted he steps into our closed lives, closed hearts, closed minds. Standing among us he offers PEACE and breathes new life into us. He doesn't open the door for us but he gives us all we need so that we might open our doors to a new life, a new creation, a new way of being. This is happening all the time.

Rice Bowls A reminder to everyone to return your Rice Bowls so that we can send the money to Catholic Relief Services who are helping in many communities in the world.

Recycling: We continue to do our little bit to save the earth by recycling and teaching the children the importance of doing so.

If you need further information on any of the above programs please call Sister Mary or Lorena at (310) 833-3541 Ext. 222, 221.
