Dear Mary Star of the Sea Parishioners,

As we all know October is the month of Holy Rosary. And one of the important events in this month is the March for Life, Pro-Life rally by our Mary Star Family. We have gathered to march for the unborn. It surprises always to see the large majority of parents, teachers, youth and enthusiastic teenagers who are literally bursting with excitement at the prospect of building a culture of life. It makes all of our work worth it. Now a days, many young people are passionate about protecting human life from the moment of conception. We might call them the pro-life generation. Here is the excerpts from the Catechism of the Catholic Church to understand more about the Church teaching on respect for human life. I hope you enjoy it. Have a Blessed Week!

Fr. Harrigan, The Pastor

Respect for Human Life! {Excerpts from the Catechism of the Catholic Church (#2258, 2270-2275)}

'Human life is sacred because from its beginning it involves the creative action of God and it remains forever in a special relationship with the Creator, who is its sole end. God alone is the Lord of life from its beginning until its end: no one can under any circumstance claim for himself the right directly to destroy an innocent human being (2258). Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person - among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life (2270).

Since the first century the Church has affirmed the moral evil of every procured abortion. This teaching has not changed and remains unchangeable. Direct abortion, that is to say, abortion willed either as an end or a means, is gravely contrary to the moral law: You shall not kill the embryo by abortion and shall not cause the newborn to perish. God, the Lord of life, has entrusted to men the noble mission of safeguarding life, and men must carry it out in a manner worthy of themselves. Life must be protected with the utmost care from the moment of conception: abortion and infanticide are abominable crimes (2271).

Formal co-operation in an abortion constitutes a grave offence. The Church attaches the canonical penalty of excommunication to this crime against human life. 'A person who procures a completed abortion incurs excommunication latae sententiae' 'by the very commission of the offence', and subject to the conditions provided by Canon Law. The Church does not thereby intend to restrict the scope of mercy. Rather, she makes clear the gravity of the crime committed, the irreparable harm done to the innocent who is put to death, as well as to the parents and the whole of society (2272).

The inalienable right to life of every innocent human individual is a constitutive element of a civil society and its legislation: 'The inalienable rights of the person must be recognized and respected by civil society and the political authority. These human rights depend neither on single individuals nor on parents; nor do they represent a concession made by society and the state; they belong to human nature and are inherent in the person by virtue of the creative act from which the person took his origin. Among such fundamental rights one should mention in this regard every human being's right to life and physical integrity from the moment of conception until death.'

'The moment a positive law deprives a category of human beings of the protection which civil legislation ought to accord them, the state is denying the equality of all before the law. When the state does not place its power at the service of the rights of each citizen, and in particular of the more vulnerable, the very foundations of a state based on law are undermined. . . As a consequence of the respect and protection which must be ensured for the unborn child from the moment of conception, the law must provide appropriate penal sanctions for every deliberate violation of the child's rights' (2273).

Since it must be treated from conception as a person, the embryo must be defended in its integrity, cared for, and healed, as far as possible, like any other human being. Prenatal diagnosis is morally licit, 'if it respects the life and integrity of the embryo and the human foetus and is directed toward its safeguarding or healing as an individual... It is gravely opposed to the moral law when this is done with the thought of possibly inducing an abortion, depending upon the results: a diagnosis must not be the equivalent of a death sentence' (2274).

'One must hold as licit procedures carried out on the human embryo which respect the life and integrity of the embryo and do not involve disproportionate risks for it, but are directed toward its healing, the improvement of its condition of health, or its individual survival.' 'It is immoral to produce human embryos intended for exploitation as disposable biological material.' 'Certain attempts to influence chromosomic or genetic inheritance are not therapeutic but are aimed at producing human beings selected according to sex or other predetermined qualities. Such manipulations are contrary to the personal dignity of the human being and his integrity and identity' which are unique and unrepeatable (2275).

The Importance of Emotional Boundaries

We discuss the importance of physical boundaries quite a bit, teaching children to understand privacy and the difference between good touches and bad touches. But emotional boundaries are just as important, if not more so, because abuse victims are often manipulated into trusting and believing their abusers. Predators can violate emotional boundaries fairly easily, worming their way into a child's life and creating a false relationship. Parents should talk to their children about appropriate boundaries for their emotional relationships-with teachers, the parents of their friends, and other adults in their lives. Children do not always have the emotional maturity to set their own boundaries, so parents should be on the lookout for anything that seems inappropriate or "off" about the relationships their children form with other adults. To learn more about emotional boundaries and how to maintain them, email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

13-14 octubre

La importancia de los límites emocionales

Discutimos la importancia de los límites físicos un poco, enseñando a los niños a comprender la privacidad y la diferencia entre las buenas formas de ser tocados y las malas maneras de ser tocados. Pero los límites emocionales son igual de importantes, si no más, porque las víctimas de abuso a menudo son manipuladas para confiar y creer en sus abusadores. Los depredadores pueden violar los límites emocionales con bastante facilidad, abriéndose camino en la vida de un niño y creando una relación falsa. Los padres de familia deben hablar con sus hijos sobre los límites apropiados con sus relaciones emocionales, con los maestros, los padres de sus amigos y otros adultos en sus vidas. Los niños no siempre tienen la madurez emocional para establecer sus propios límites, por lo que los padres de familia deben estar atentos a cualquier cosa que parezca inapropiada o "desagradable" sobre las relaciones que sus hijos forman con otros adultos. Para aprender más sobre los límites emocionales y cómo mantenerlos, envíe un correo electrónico a jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

MARY STAR OF THE SEA ELEMENTARY & PRE- SCHOOL

Dear Mary Star of the Sea Community,

MSSE students have been accomplishing great things in their practice of their faith. We have already begun the year with all school Confessions and Mass on Friday. We also provide students the opportunity to go to Confession weekly, during the school Masses. Parents are warmly invited to join us for Mass and Confession on Friday at 9:00am whenever school is in session. Our students take turns in serving Mass, doing the First Reading, Responsorial Psalm, Universal Prayer, and bring up the gifts for each Mass. On October 4 we had the Blessing of the Pets in honor of St. Francis. The families of Mary Star Elementary were invited to bring their Pets for me to bless. During my weekly visits to the classrooms, the students have been learning prayers in Latin and about Church art and architecture among other things.

Looking ahead to November, the first of the month is All Saints Day and a holy day of obligation. The students will be attending Mass that day at 9:00am. November 2 is All Souls Day, where we remember to pray for all of the deceased members of our families and community. Please join us for Mass on both of those days!

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Benedict Solomon, O.Praem - Rector

This Sunday (10/14) MSSE will be selling tickets to our 1st annual "Comedy Night" fun-raiser on Saturday Oct. 20th. Our doors open at 6 pm and the show starts at 7:15. Your $25 ticket (must be 21 yrs or older) gets a great Mexican dinner and drink as well as laughing along to professional comedians from the L.A. club circuit. In addition to the show, we have great raffle baskets and a 50-50. Tickets are also available in the school Office, call 310-831-0875 for details. Join us for a great evening of clean comedy and fun-raising.

Mary Star of the Sea Elementary's annual School Appeal envelopes are still available in the pews. We are hoping with this October effort to reach $75,000 for the much-needed air conditioning in our classrooms. Already, we have reached the Phase One goal of affording the engineering plan! Thank you very much. I believe with the aid of the parish and you, we can continue to move closer to our eventual goal of a comfortable educational environment.

God bless!

Mr. James Cordero - Principal
