Dear Mary Star of the Sea Parishioners,
As we come together as a parish family and individual families this coming Thanksgiving, let us remember that all good things come from the Loving Hand of Our Almighty Father. All the priests and staff here at Mary Star Parish and Schools wish you and your loved ones a Blessed Thanksgiving Season.

Fr. Harrigan - The Pastor

Five Inspiring Thanksgiving Quotes from Catholic Saints:

1. "In all created things discern the providence and wisdom of God, and in all things give Him thanks." - St. Teresa of Avila
We know that God reveals Himself through all of creation, but when we are immersed in a natural setting, we may forget that He created everything as a gift for us. I like to take walks with our dog and breathe in the country air, allowing my senses to be filled with the wonders of creation all around me. When I see an unusual variety of insects or birds in the spring and summer or marvel at the vibrant colors of the flowers, my heart is filled with wonder and gratitude to God. It is as if He made each detail of all these wonderful, living things for my enjoyment and care.

2. "No duty is more urgent than that of returning thanks." - St. Ambrose
How tragic that most companies receive more complaints than compliments. It seems most of us are quick to grouse about problems with a product or service, but when we receive exceptional care, it may go unstated. St. Ambrose reminds us that it's not only necessary but urgent to thank others, because thankfulness breeds appreciation and kindness.

3. "A man wanted to do evil, but first prayed as usual; and finding himself prevented by God, he was then extremely thankful." - St. Mark the Ascetic
Sometimes we perceive life circumstances to be misfortunate, contributing to our demise or preventing us from proceeding with our plans, our hopes and dreams. In fact, some of these pursuits may masquerade as hidden vices. When God permits something to happen that frustrates or thwarts our grandiose plans, we believe He is punishing us when, in fact, we should thank Him for drawing us closer to Him through means contrary to our desires.

4. "Prayer is an aspiration of the heart. It is a simple glance directed to Heaven. It is a cry of gratitude and love in the midst of trial as well as joy." - St. Therese Lisieux
Mental prayer, which the early Carmelites promoted and perfected, certainly may include a simple thought of thanksgiving lifted to God in the heart. When we love God, we think of Him always with the consideration of His love for us. This cannot be separated from the truth about who we really are – nothing – in light of the truth about who God is – everything. St. Therese knew that a grateful heart was one full of prayer that needn't be uttered in superfluous words.

5. "Out of gratitude and love for Him, we should desire to be reckoned fools."
- St. Ignatius of Loyola
St. Ignatius of Loyola is known for his self-punitive measures as a form of perpetual penance, so perhaps this is why he believed gratitude included not merely an acceptance, but rather a longing to be made a fool. Though quite radical, we can reflect on the meaning of this quote. In order to grow in humility, we must first be humiliated, and humility bears the fruit of charity and gratitude. A heart that loves God is so full that it cannot be contained within itself, and so its thankfulness is expressed through love.

Get your family on the same page about social media

Social media is one of the leading forms of communication and connection in our world today, but it has dangerous side effects if used carelessly or improperly. Social media platforms can be used to solicit minors, distribute drugs, share pornography and more. If your family does not have a social media safety policy in place, work to establish one immediately. Rules such as no direct messages from anyone you don't know in person and no private or hidden contact with anyone are important. Establish regular check-ins to make sure that the rules are being followed to see what your children are viewing. Informe a su familia sobre las redes socials

Las redes sociales son una de las formas principales de comunicación y conexión en nuestro mundo actual, pero tienen efectos secundarios peligrosos si se usan de forma descuidada o inadecuada. Las plataformas de medios sociales pueden usarse para interceptar menores, distribuir drogas, compartir pornografía y más. Si su familia no tiene una política de seguridad en las redes sociales, trabaje para establecer una de inmediato. Establezca reglas que prohíban la recepción de mensajes directos de cualquier persona desconocida y la de contactos privados u ocultos con alguna persona. Establezca controles regulares para supervisar lo que ven sus hijos.
