Dear Mary Star of the Sea Parishioners:

As we are beginning the Easter Season it is always helpful to remember that Our Blessed Lord first had to Suffer before He could bring about the Resurrection. So too in our lives we experience much suffering and many trials. We must however remember that those of us who share in the sufferings of Christ, will certainly share in His Resurrection. Below is an article I came across on Christian Suffering. I hope you find it helpful. Have a Blessed Week.

Fr. Harrigan - The Pastor

We are to love one another...

Often Christians act surprised when they try to do good and things don't go according to plan. Sometimes it's small but irritating annoyances that get in the way, other times serious calamities.

The Bible says that "He shall wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, crying out or pain, for the former world has passed away (Rev 21:1-5)." But this is a vision of the end of the story, of a new heavens and earth where God reigns unopposed. The problem is that we're still in the middle of the story, living in the old heaven and earth where there is yet plenty of opposition to the Lordship of Christ. Regarding our sojourn in this world, Paul says "we must undergo many trials if we are to enter into the reign of God." (Acts 14: 22)

Paul is speaking from experience here! The book of Acts recounts how he was run out of town, stoned nearly to death, beaten with rods, jailed, shipwrecked, and bitten by a poisonous snake. When he and his companions came into Macedonia, he says "our bodies had no rest but we were afflicted at every turn – fighting without and fear within" (2 Corinthians 7:6). Following Christ is evidently not a cake walk. God provides, but he does not necessarily provide comfort and convenience.

Why not? Because if we never experienced resistance, we'd never grow. After all, what do body-builders do? They expose their muscles to ever greater resistance, pushing against more and more weight. No pain, no gain. This is why James says "count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet various trials, for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness" (James 1:2) How kind of our heavenly Father to double as our personal trainer and add more weight to the bar from time to time.

Now it is easy to see how we should expect trials to ensue when we are dealing with those outside the Church. But often the greatest trials come from dealing with those within. Paul and Barnabas saw things differently and so went their separate ways (Acts 15:39). And the Judaizing Christians were a constant thorn in Paul's side.

Yet the Lord gives us the new commandment, to love one another as he has loved us (John 13: 34). The context of this command? Jesus had just washed the disciples' feet, and Judas had responded to this act of love by slipping out into the darkness to betray his master.

We are to love one another so that our joy might be full. But there is another reason. The world needs to know that Jesus is different from the many false prophets that constantly come and go. How will they know that he is truly the one sent from heaven? By the loving unity of his disciples (John 17:23).

Did You Know?/¿Sabia Usted?

May 4-5

“If you see something, say something”

We see this warning in airports and schools, but experts say it's also a great way for parents to think about Internet safety for their children. One of the best ways to protect children using the Internet is to actually engage with them in what they're doing: Play the games they plan, check out their profile pages with them. Discuss online respect and rules for what can and cannot be shared. Regular conversation and monitoring helps keep children safe online. For more information, read the article by Catholic News Service, "Vigilance by parents and their children called key to safe internet use."

Mayo 4-5

“Si ves algo, di algo”

Vemos esta advertencia en aeropuertos y escuelas, pero los expertos dicen que también es una excelente manera para que los padres de familia piensen en la seguridad de Internet para sus hijos. Una de las mejores formas de proteger a los niños que usan Internet es participar realmente en lo que están haciendo: jugar los juegos que planean, revisar junto con ellos sus páginas de perfil. Discuta sobre el respeto en línea y las reglas para lo que puede y no puede ser compartido. La conversación y el monitoreo regulares ayudan a mantener a los niños seguros en línea. Para obtener más información, consulte el artículo de Catholic News Service, "Vigilance by parents and their children called key to safe internet use" (Vigilancia de los padres y sus hijos son clave para el uso seguro de Internet).

SOME FUNERAL GUIDELINES

In 2016 the Catholic Church issued guidelines that are helpful in planning funerals. Below are some excerpts from the Instruction entitled "Ad resurgendum cum Christo: regarding the burial of the deceased and the conservation of the ashes in the case of cremation."

(The numbers indicate the paragraph from which the excerpt is taken.)

3. Following the most ancient Christian tradition, the Church insistently recommends that the bodies of the deceased be buried in cemeteries or other sacred places.

4. In circumstances when cremation is chosen because of sanitary, economic or social considerations, this choice must never violate the explicitly-stated or the reasonably inferable wishes of the deceased faithful.

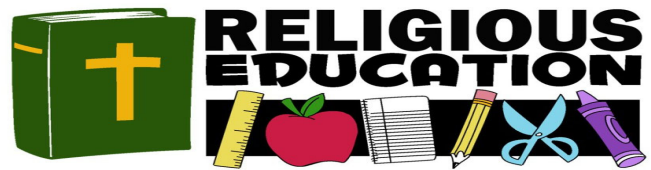

The Church continues to prefer the practice of burying the bodies of the deceased, because this shows a greater esteem towards the deceased. Nevertheless, cremation is not prohibited, "unless it was chosen for reasons contrary to Christian doctrine".

5. When, for legitimate motives, cremation of the body has been chosen, the ashes of the faithful must be laid to rest in a sacred place, that is, in a cemetery or, in certain cases, in a church or an area, which has been set aside for this purpose, and so dedicated by the competent ecclesial authority.

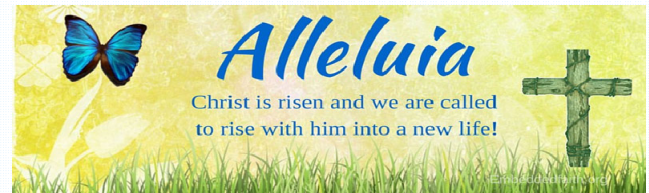

6. The conservation of the ashes of the departed in a domestic residence is not permitted. The ashes may not be divided among various family members and due respect must be maintained regarding the circumstances of such a conservation.

7. It is not permitted to scatter the ashes of the faithful departed in the air, on land, at sea or in some other way, nor may they be preserved in mementos, pieces of jewelry or other objects. These courses of action cannot be legitimized by an appeal to the sanitary, social, or economic motives that may have occasioned the choice of cremation.

8. When the deceased notoriously has requested cremation and the scattering of their ashes for reasons contrary to the Christian faith, a Christian funeral must be denied to that person according to the norms of the law.16.

Easter Third Sunday

Alleluia! Alleluia! Jesus is risen! We rejoice with the Risen Lord! In today's gospel the disciples seem to have given up hope of ever seeing Jesus again. They have returned to their previous vocation and head back to shore with empty nets after some time fishing.

Jesus stands on the shore and calls to them to go back out and try again. He tells them to put the nets out on the right side of the boat. The amazing thing to me is that the disciples did not know who he was at first but they went back out. Was it their desperation for a catch or a desire for success? They ventured back out and found huge success. Their nets were overflowing. Suddenly they recognize Jesus who invites them to breakfast. It is at this meal that they receive a recommissioning from the Lord. They are reminded who they are and what they were originally called to be.

We, too, are reminded that our simple tasks done with love can bring about the Kingdom of God.

RICE BOWL: Please encourage your children to use the Rice Bowl they have received for their donations resulting from sacrifices they are making for Lent. We will direct the money to help children in poor countries.

RECYCLING: Thank you to all who help us to recycle so that we can purchase resources for the children.

If you need further information on any of the above programs please call Sister Mary or Jamie at 310-833-3541, ext. 221, 222.
