Dear Mary Star of the Sea Parishioners:

I hope things are beginning to look up this new year. I am praying earnestly for all of you and your families for your health and wellbeing during this ongoing Pandemic. I came across this article on Resolutions for families and thought it might be helpful.

Have a Blessed Week,
Fr. Harrigan
Pastor

8 Good Resolutions to Make as a Family in 2021

By Olivia de Fournas

A new year is the ideal time to re-orient our personal, marital, family, and spiritual life.

Many of us make individual New Year's resolutions, but it is also a great idea to make resolutions as a family. Here are some suggestions for your consideration.

1. ORGANIZE AND DONATE TO CLEAR THINGS OUT

The closet packed to the brim with clothes, the kitchen cupboard overloaded with unused food, not to mention the baby's things piled up on a shelf. Our houses are often overloaded with papers, clothes and objects. Although there's no real mess, the atmosphere in the house is stifling.

"Tidying up simplifies daily life, reduces stress, saves space, and can even make room for pleasure," explains Élise Delprat-Alvarès, author of ["Put your life in order"]. By getting rid of things, we breathe better, see better, and feel less oppressed.

To optimize space, specialized sites offer hanging shelves for shoes, vacuum storage bags that allow you to gain up to 70% of space, drawer dividers for underwear. The surplus can be given to St. Vincent de Paul, the parish or another charity.

2. RESERVE SOME TIME EVERY WEEK FOR YOUR MARRIAGE

At times, married life seems like that of a logistics company. Newlyweds are swamped by family obligations, 40-year-olds concentrate on their professional life, and the elderly take care of everything. It is not easy for a couple to find time alone. Christine and Christian meet every Sunday night for 30 minutes to talk to each other honestly. After they make the sign of the cross, they review five important points they have designated: children, family, professional life, money and sexuality. Sometimes they even have time to meditate on a text from the Gospel.

3. STRENGTHEN YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH SOMEONE IN NEED

You probably have a lonely cousin, a brother-in-law in trouble, a friend who needs an attentive ear.

Choose a specific person you could strengthen your ties with and give yourself until next Christmas. Try a message at a celebration, a letter, a phone call, then a meeting on neutral ground, perhaps a dinner.

The relationship between Elizabeth and her sister grew cold ever since she got married without telling her family, so she decided that after three years of silence, it was time to approach her. "I wanted to share what happened at one of my retreats where I prayed to be reconciled with her. Then I mailed her a picture of our two little ones with a nondescript commentary, something on the lines of 'They had a great time!' She took my outstretched hand. Today, she asked me to be her daughter's Godmother!"

4. SPEND INDIVIDUAL TIME WITH EACH CHILD

Except for a few prodigious parents, spending time alone with a child can be mission impossible, especially when you have several. Anne has made a list asking each of her four children, ages 3 to 16, what they would like to do with her. If she has not managed to find time during the week she makes time on Friday for activities such as reading a story, baking a cake, illustrating her poetry, lighting a candle for someone in church.

5. BE MORE CONCERNED ABOUT THE PLANET

How about each family member making an environmental resolution this year? Turn off the lights in the hallway, spend less time in the shower, buy products that are as non-polluting as possible, sort the waste, establish a composting area (if you have a garden) for organic waste, etc. There are many very practical and easy-to-apply solutions.

6. EVALUATE YOUR COMMITMENTS

Single or married, religious or even a teenager—we should get involved in an activity for others, as charity demands. Some will have to lower their standards to give priority to their responsibilities (for students, to study; for parents, to raise their children; for the business owner, to manage their business; for the religious, to pray). Others will have to take care not to constantly postpone the occasion of giving their time to others. The commitment can be individual and can be an hour per week or a day per year with the family. Through this example children will learn to give their time to others.

7. CHOOSE A REGULAR FORM OF SPIRITUAL NOURISHMENT

Read the word of God every morning with Magnificat, at night examine your conscience, on Thursday spend 10 minutes in prayer. The possibilities for putting yourself in Christ's presence are many. A quarter of an hour a week for adoration of the Holy Sacrament should find its way into a Christian's schedule. "It is a place of silence, the only thing I really need in my week, a place where I make acts of faith, which are not magic, but which transform me," says Steven.

8. MARK SPIRITUAL COMMITMENTS ON A FAMILY CALENDAR

Proposals to enrich our spiritual life abound, but the months go by and the opportunities often remain in our head. Damien and Sophie buy a large wall calendar every year and gather their three children to fill it out. The goal is to mark the key spiritual dates of the school year for each other and for the family. This is a good way to work out the different proposals. Perhaps even to decide when to take the annual family pilgrimage.

Prayer for Families

We bless your name, O Lord, for sending your own incarnate Son, to become part of a family, so that, as he lived its life, he would experience its worries and its joys.

We ask you, Lord, to protect and watch over this family, so that in the strength of your grace its members may enjoy prosperity, possess the priceless gift of your peace, and, as the Church alive in the home, bear witness in this world to your glory. We ask this thought Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Dear Parishioners of Mary Star:

Below is an ancient prayer to St. Joseph asking his protection and help in all our need.

I encourage you to recite it each day in honor of this Year dedicated to St. Joseph.

May God Reward You.
Fr. Harrigan

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH

O St. Joseph, whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the throne of God, I place in you all my interests and desires.

O St. Joseph, do assist me by your powerful intercession and obtain for me all spiritual blessings through your Divine Son, Jesus, so that, having engaged here below your heavenly power, I may offer my thanksgiving and homage to the most loving of Fathers.

O St. Joseph, I never weary contemplating you and Jesus asleep in your arms. I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press Him in my name and kiss His fine head for me, and ask Him to return the kiss when I draw my dying breath.

St. Joseph, patron of departing souls, please pray for me. Amen.

Gospel
Mk 1:29-39

On leaving the synagogue Jesus entered the house of Simon and Andrew with James and John. Simon’s mother-in-law lay sick with a fever. They immediately told him about her. He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up. Then the fever left her and she waited on them.

When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him.

Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed. Simon and those who were with him pursued him and on finding him said, “Everyone is looking for you.” He told them, “Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come.” So he went into their synagogues, preaching and driving out demons throughout the whole of Galilee.

Evangelio
Mk 1, 29-39

En aquel tiempo, al salir Jesús de la sinagoga, fue con Santiago y Juan a casa de Simón y Andrés. La suegra de Simón estaba en cama, con fiebre, y enseguida le avisaron a Jesús. Él se le acercó, y tomándola de la mano, la levantó. En ese momento se le quitó la fiebre y se puso a servirles.

Al atardecer, cuando el sol se ponía, le llevaron a todos los enfermos y poseídos del demonio, y todo el pueblo se apiñó junto a la puerta. Curó a muchos enfermos de diversos males y expulsó a muchos demonios, pero no dejó que los demonios hablaran, porque sabían quién era él.

De madrugada, cuando todavía estaba muy oscuro, Jesús se levantó, salió y se fue a un lugar solitario, donde se puso a orar. Simón y sus compañeros lo fueron a buscar, y al encontrarlo, le dijeron: “Todos te andan buscando”. Él les dijo: “Vamos a los pueblos cercanos para predicar también allá el Evangelio, pues para eso he venido”. Y recorrió toda Galilea, predicando en las sinagogas y expulsando a los demonios.

DID YOU KNOW?

Teaching children about home security
Teaching children about home security and safety tips is critical, but can be daunting for parents. Who wants to scare their child with thoughts of fire, break-ins, or other dangers? Remember to keep instructions simple and age-appropriate, with empowering roles for children in managing their own safety at home. A great place to start is by teaching your children how to dial 9-1-1. Be sure to show younger children how to access the security screen on a cell phone that allows them to call 911 without unlocking the phone. For more home security tips, request a copy of the article “Teaching Your Children Some Valuable Home Security Lessons” at <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

Enseñar a los niños sobre seguridad en el hogar
Enseñar a los niños consejos sobre la seguridad en el hogar es fundamental, pero puede ser abrumador para los padres de familia. ¿Quién quiere asustar a su hijo con ideas de incendios, robos u otros peligros? Recuerde mantener las instrucciones sencillas y apropiadas para la edad, con labores de empoderamiento para los niños en el manejo de su propia seguridad en el hogar. Un buen comienzo es enseñarles a sus hijos cómo marcar el 9-1-1. Asegúrese de mostrarles a los niños más pequeños cómo acceder a la pantalla de seguridad en un teléfono celular que les permite llamar al 9-1-1 sin desbloquear el teléfono. Para obtener más consejos sobre seguridad en el hogar, solicite una copia del artículo “Teaching Your Children Some Valuable Home Security Lessons” (Enseñando a sus hijos algunas lecciones valiosas sobre seguridad en el hogar) en <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

In today's gospel the people wait until evening, when the sabbath is officially over, to bring those who are sick and possessed to Jesus for healing. They bring ALL their sick to him, and ALL the city gathers at the door.

Perhaps we can we imagine the desperation of these people as we experience living through the coronavirus. We have children or spouses who are sick unto death; loved ones who cannot engage in normal activity; husbands who have been laid off; wives who must stay home to supervise children being schooled through online teaching and children who cannot play with friends; and all of us anxiously waiting to get vaccinated.

In the gospel Jesus heals them all. And then “rising very before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place where he prayed.” It was in the wilderness that Jesus triumphed over Satan's deadly temptations, God often does his best work in the wilderness. This should give us hope as we experience our wilderness moments with COVID 19, when things seem bleak and hopeless. It could be that God is using our wilderness experience to reshape our lives, to save us and to make us whole. Through PRAYER we find that God is with us, embracing us lovingly with the strength and courage we need.

RECYCLING: Thank you to all who help us to recycle so that we can purchase resources for the children.

Mary Star of the Sea Elementary and Pre-school

Mary Star of the Sea Elementary joined Catholic schools all across our Nation this past week in celebrating Catholic Schools Week! It is a wonderful opportunity to celebrate the many aspects of Catholic education, especially one at MSSE, that encourages and supports our students to live lives of Faith, Service and Excellence. We realize what a vital role the Church has in our students' lives and each day last week was focused on celebrating those groups of people that make it all possible.

Students created shields that displayed how at MSSE they are strengthened in Faith, Service and Excellence; the theme for this year's Catholic Schools Week. Many students see how small class sizes, a growing science program, daily prayer, a weekly school rosary and mass, and teacher interaction have shaped them during their years with us. While this activity was done in the classroom by some, other students participated online. Learning online is another aspect of their education that the students acknowledge. MSSE had two days to prepare for the COVID-19 shut down. Since then, teachers and students have been online for full day classes. Students feel the love and support they received during such a trying time. Now that many classes have moved to a hybrid model, students have the opportunity to have time in the classroom with their teachers and with their friends on campus. It is truly a blessing to continue to provide normalcy, support, and continue to keep high expectations for our students.

This past week students also took the quarterly STAR assessment. This data point shows us how much our students have grown and helps teachers to determine which skills in reading and math need to be targeted for more instruction. Using this data, combined with weekly assessments from teachers is what drives our instruction. Each child at MSSE is at a different level and learns in a different way. It is our privilege to be able to design learning opportunities for them to excel and gain the skills they need to continue to lead lives of Faith, Service and Excellence.

We happily continue to welcome more families to our school. If you are interested in what MSSE has to offer, please visit our website www.marystarelementary.com and call the front office 310-831-0875 to schedule an appointment to meet with us.

We are grateful for our Church and all that she provides for us. While on-campus school life has changed this year, the support and prayers from Parishioners, Priests, Sisters and Families, have helped us all to continue to have Faith, be of Service, and strive for Excellence. Thank you for your continued prayers and support.

God bless,
Mr. Cordero
Principal
