From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Mary Star of the Sea Parishioners:
May our risen Lord bless you on this Special Day when we celebrate our unity within our diversity as a Church. We come from many different places, yet we are one family in Christ. Below is a brief teaching on the meaning of Pentecost. I hope you enjoy it. Have a Blessed Week.

Fr. Harrigan
Pastor

What is the Christian Celebration of Pentecost All About?
This coming Sunday, Christians across the world will celebrate Pentecost. Pentecost is not as well-known or as popular as the Christmas and Easter, though it commemorates a watershed event in Christian history. It many ways, Pentecost is the birthday of the church.
In today's post I am going to answer several frequently asked questions about Pentecost. Tomorrow I'll have more to say about its spiritual significance.

What is Pentecost?
For Christians, Pentecost is a holiday on which we commemorate the coming of the Holy Spirit on the early followers of Jesus. Before the events of the first Pentecost, which came a few weeks after Jesus' death and resurrection, there were followers of Jesus, but no movement that could be meaningfully called "the church." Thus, from an historical point of view, Pentecost is the day on which the church was started. This is also true from a spiritual perspective, since the Spirit brings the church into existence and enlivens it. Thus Pentecost is the church's birthday.

What does the word "Pentecost" mean?
The English word "Pentecost" is a transliteration of the Greek word pentekostos, which means "fifty." It comes from the ancient Christian expression pentekoste hemera, which means "fiftieth day." But Christians did not invent the phrase "fiftieth day." Rather, they borrowed it from Greek-speaking Jews who used the phrase to refer to a Jewish holiday. This holiday was known as the Festival of Weeks, or, more simply, Weeks (Shavuot in Hebrew). This name comes from an expression in Leviticus 23:16, which instructs people to count seven weeks or "fifty days" from the end of Passover to the beginning of the next holiday (pentekonta hemeras in the ancient Greek translation of the Hebrew Scripture).
Shavuot was the second great feast in Israel's yearly cycle of holy days. It was originally a harvest festival (Exod 23:16), but, in time, turned into a day to commemorate the giving of the law on Mt. Sinai. This day became especially significant for Christians because, seven weeks after the resurrection of Jesus, during the Jewish celebration of Shavuot/Pentecost, the Holy Spirit was poured out upon his first followers, thus empowering them for their mission and gathering them together as a church.

What actually happened on that day of Pentecost?
This event is recorded in the New Testament book known as The Acts of the Apostles. Chapter 2 begins, "And when the day of Pentecost [ten hemeran tes pentekostes] had come, [the first followers of Jesus] were all together in one place" (2:1). All of a sudden, a sound came from heaven, like a strong wind, filling the house where the people had gathered. Something like tongues of fire rested on their heads. "And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages as the Spirit gave them the ability to speak" (2:4). (Notice the tongues of fire on the heads of the people in the painting by Restout.) The languages spoken by the early Christians were intelligible (not other worldly) and were heard by thousands of Jewish pilgrims who had come to Jerusalem to celebrate Shavuot. The content of the miraculous messages had to do with God's mighty works (2:11). Many who heard these messages in their own languages were amazed, though others thought the Christians were just drunk (2:12).
At some point, Peter, one of the leading followers of Jesus, stood up and preached his first sermon. He interpreted the events of that morning in light of a prophecy of the Hebrew prophet Joel. In that text, God promised to pour out his Spirit on all flesh, empowering diverse people to exercise divine power. This would be a sign of the coming "day of the Lord" (Acts 2:16-21; Joel 2:28-32).
Peter went on to explain that Jesus had been raised and had poured out the Spirit in fulfillment of God's promise through Joel (2:32-33). When the crowd asked what they should do, Peter urged them to turn their lives around and be baptized in the name of Jesus. Then they would be forgiven and would receive the gift of the Holy Spirit (2:37-39). Acts reports that about 3,000 people were added to the church that day (2:41). Not a bad response to Peter's first sermon!

Religious Education

Christ is risen, Alleluia. Rejoice and be glad, alleluia. Locked doors and locked hearts do not deter the Holy Spirit. Fearful of the authorities the disciples were locked, not only in the upper room, but also locked inside their own fear, anger, guilt, and grief. The Holy Spirit broke through it all. While most of us have never had to fear for our lives in an upper room, we can identify with the apostles' anxiety. Imagine their amazement when they experienced "driving wind" and "tongues of fire parted and came to rest on each one of them". They were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues as the Spirit enabled them to communicate peace and joy to strangers from many countries, people of many languages – a message that each listener heard in their own language. Being a Christian can never be a "me and Jesus" experience. The gifts of the Spirit are for everyone. Pentecost reminds us that we, too, as believers, are commissioned through the power of the Holy Spirit to share the gifts of peace and joy. Pentecost reminds us to continue the ministry and mission of Jesus in our world inviting us to take the Easter message of Christ's resurrection and spread the good news to our world. With the Holy Spirit as our helper, are we ready to continue the mission given to us? We can do it if we try to see the face of Christ in everyone we encounter.

RECYCLING: Thank you to all who help us to recycle so that we can purchase resources for the children. If you need further information on a program please call Sister Mary or Jamie at 310-833-3541 ext. 221, 222

Responsorial Psalm	Psalm 104:1-2, 24,35,27-28,29,30 R/. "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth."

Gospel	John 7:37-39

GOSPEL

On the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood up and exclaimed, "Let anyone who thirsts come to me and drink. As Scripture says: Rivers of living water will flow from within him who believes in me." He said this in reference to the Spirit that those who came to believe in him were to receive. There was, of course, no Spirit yet, because Jesus had not yet been glorified.
