THE YEAR OF HOPE-2025 HAS CONCLUDED

The year of hope which was promulgated by the late Pope Francis has just ended. As a Parish we were privileged to be the host Parish for Pilgrims. Throughout the year 2025, we received a number of pilgrims, some were in groups who came to pray in our Church and received the Indulgencies. I would like to thank our Parishioners who put everything together especially the reading materials for all of us and for the pilgrims, and for entertaining the pilgrims. I hope the Parish activities spread out in the year of hope Calendar helped us to grow closer to God and to one another as one family of faith. Thinking about making a pilgrimage goes beyond what is physical; it has much to do with our interior spiritual and moral dispositions. In the course of the Liturgical year, individual faithful can plan to have a pilgrimage at a private and personal level, either by visiting places of spiritual importance or by remaining in your Parish while doing something that builds and strengthens your relationship with God and with other people. This is a journey of faith that calls us to focus on how we are growing in holiness. As faithful believers, we are all pilgrims on this earth. God gives us many opportunities to meet the requirements of being on a pilgrimage-daily prayers, attending Mass regularly, going to confession, being charitable according to your means and resources, being involved in outreach activities such as praying for the sick and visiting them; and being more kind and loving towards others. All these and many more spiritual and corporal works of mercy are what make a pilgrimage beneficial and meaningful. A pilgrimage has a destination. Our destination is God alone. Having ended the designated year of hope does not mean our pilgrimage has ended, rather, it has been strengthened and renewed. Therefore, let us journey together in faith until we are all together in God's eternal home.

EL AÑO DE LA ESPERANZA - 2025 HA CONCLUIDO

El año de la esperanza, proclamado por el difunto Papa Francisco, acaba de finalizar. Como parroquia, tuvimos el privilegio de ser la parroquia anfitriona para los peregrinos. A lo largo del año 2025, recibimos a numerosos peregrinos, algunos en grupos, que vinieron a orar en nuestra iglesia y recibieron las indulgencias. Quisiera agradecer a nuestros feligreses que organizaron todo, especialmente el material de lectura para todos nosotros y para los peregrinos, y por su hospitalidad. Espero que las actividades parroquiales programadas en el calendario del Año de la Esperanza nos hayan ayudado a acercarnos más a Dios y a los demás como una sola familia de fe. Pensar en hacer una peregrinación va más allá de lo físico; tiene mucho que ver con nuestras disposiciones espirituales y morales internas. En el transcurso del año litúrgico, los fieles pueden planificar una peregrinación a nivel privado y personal, ya sea visitando lugares de importancia espiritual o permaneciendo en su parroquia y realizando actividades que fortalezcan su relación con Dios y con los demás. Este es un camino de fe que nos llama a reflexionar sobre cómo crecemos en santidad. Como creyentes, todos somos peregrinos en esta tierra. Dios nos brinda muchas oportunidades para cumplir con los requisitos de una peregrinación: la oración diaria, la asistencia regular a Misa, la confesión, la caridad según nuestras posibilidades, la participación en actividades de servicio, como orar por los enfermos y visitarlos, y ser más amables y cariñosos con los demás. Todas estas y muchas otras obras de misericordia espirituales y corporales son las que hacen que una peregrinación sea beneficiosa y significativa. Una peregrinación tiene un destino. Nuestro destino es Dios. Haber finalizado el Año de la Esperanza no significa que nuestra peregrinación haya terminado, sino que se ha fortalecido y renovado. Por lo tanto, caminemos juntos en la fe hasta que estemos todos reunidos en la casa eterna de Dios.
