PARISH NEWS

1st Sunday of Advent Focus

If we live our lives in such a way that we are always ready to receive the Lord Jesus when he comes, then we will help to make the Kingdom a reality in our lives now. The peace and justice of which Isaiah and Paul speak can only happen on a general scale when they are realities in the lives of all people.

Jesus exhorts his followers to "be prepared," though not out of an unhealthy fear. Rather he wishes them to use their preparedness as an instrument to bring their wills and lives into proximity with the life of the Father.

FLAME OF LOVE OF THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

Please join us on December 3rd for the next First Saturday Devotion.

Our Lady (of Fatima) asks each one of us to repent and confess our sins, receive Holy Communion, pray the Rosary, and pray for our Pope while keeping her company with a spirit of reparation for five first Saturdays. Come pray with us and bring your prayer petitions.

Holy Mass at 8:00am
followed by the Flame of Love Rosary
Confession is available

Oh Blessed Lady, spread the effect of grace over all of humanity, now and at the hour of our death, Amen!

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Thursday , December 8th is the feast of the Immaculate Conception and a Holy Day of Obligation,

Mass will be celebrated at the following times:

Vigil Mass
Wednesday, December 7th 5:30PM

Feast Day
Thursday, December 8th
9:00AM and 7:00PM

St. Max's Advent Penance Service will be held!

Tuesday, December 13 at 7:00PM

The Sacrament of Reconciliation will be celebrated with prayer, music, reflection and praise for God's mercy.

Several priests will be available.

EUCHARIST ADORATION
TUESDAYS 8:30AM-4:30PM

The time you spend with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the best time you will spend on earth. Each moment that you spend with Jesus will deepen your union with Him and make your soul everlastingly more glorious and beautiful in Heaven, and will help bring about everlasting peace on earth.(Mother Teresa)

We have a wonderful group of people who have each committed to being there for a particular hour between 8:30 am and 4:30 pm so Jesus is never left alone. Many others are able to come in for briefer visits at any time. Any one of any age is always welcome. Just drop in.

We'd like to have at least two or more people committed to each hour; If you would like to participate in this important ministry, let us know. Additional people are welcome at any time. To volunteer for a regular hour, please provide your name and contact information to Anne Chavez at chavezamd@gmail.com or call the rectory at 610-399-6936 to volunteer.
We currently need second regular adorers for the following hours: 10:am-11am, 11am-12 noon ,1pm-2pm, 4pm-4:30pm.
Benediction follows at 4:30pm with Evening Prayer

PLEASE NOTE:

Parishioners will not be receiving a regular Friday, Flocknote for several weeks starting Friday, November 25th. We hope to resume as soon as possible in the meantime please consult the Parish Bulletin for all parish information.

Thank you the Rectory Staff.

Pick up is the weekend of Saturday, December 3rd and Sunday, December 4th after each Mass unless prior arrangements have been made.

St. Max's 5th grade presented the Parade of Saints for the school and parish. The students dressed as saints, researched, and wrote about the saints along with an oral presentation.

St. Max's 7th grade class presented the Live Saint Wax Museum to parents and the student body. The class researched and wrote about a Saint, dressed the part and recited information to visitors.

Keep our beloved parishioners who passed away this year in your prayers. May their souls rest in peace.

Monday Night Bible Study

The Monday night bible study group will be studying the program the "Mystery of God" narrated by Bishop Robert Barron beginning January 9th, 2023, at 7:00 PM in the Kolbe room (in the church) and lasting for roughly 1 ½ hours each Monday evening. All are welcomed.

How do Christians define God? How do we think of God? The God of the Bible, the God that we worship is not the god that Atheists think He is. Bishop Robert Barron reaches into the rich intellectual traditions of Catholicism using the insights of St. Augustine, St. Thomas Aquinas, Pope Benedict XVI and others to uncover the clear yet sophisticated understanding of what we mean by God.

There will be seven sessions, and each will include discussion of a brief homework assignment and a video on the session topics by Bishop Baron which are richly descriptive and highly insightful. The cost of the program is $32 which includes a study guide. If you are interested in joining our program, please sign up at the rectory by December 22nd and make your $32 check payable to St. Maximilian Kolbe Church. If you have any questions, please call Joe Pizzino at 484 883 8985.

Welcome to our Church

Consider Altar Flowers as a way to remember your loved ones. Please place a donation of $40, the date, the name of your loved one, your name and phone number in an envelope in the collection basket or drop by the rectory. The names will be published in the parish bulletin. Any questions please call the rectory at 610-399-6936.

St. Max Parish is once again sponsoring the Giving Tree project. The tree of gift request tags are now in the Church Narthex. All gifts must be returned under the tree by Sunday December 4.

We are supporting the following:

Aid for Friends
Birthright of West Chester
St. Agnes Day Room
St. Max Tuition Assistance Program
Coatesville VA Hospital
Home of the Sparrow* Due back by Sunday December 4th
Chester County Parole Services*

Gifts for these organizations should be gift wrapped when returned.*

Please remember to securely attach tree gift request tags to returned gifts – this makes identifying and sorting gifts much easier for our volunteers. THANK YOU!
