

REFLECTION:

God sent the prophet Jonah to the people of the city of Nineveh. The people of Nineveh were doing many sinful things, and Jonah warned them of God's anger. The people listened to Jonah. They turned from their evil ways, believed in God, fasted, and did penance. Because of their change of heart, God spared them.

No matter who we are, we all need God's mercy and forgiveness. Like the people of Nineveh, we are to turn away from evil and return to God without delay.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULTS:

Who are the people in today's world that help us to turn away from sin and evil behavior? Do we always listen to the Jonah in our lives? Why or why not? How do you sometimes help others to turn back to God and do the right thing?

Safeguard The Children 1/24/21

DID YOU KNOW?

Talk to your children about social media challenges. Children have spent many months at home now, separated from friends and classmates. Social media is a great tool to stay in touch, but there are definitely dangerous aspects to much "screen time" that parents need to be aware of. Social media challenges range from funny and harmless to risky and dangerous — and sometimes even illegal. If your child has social media accounts, talk to them about making smart choices and about knowing the difference between harmless pranks and seriously dangerous stunts. Make a pact to discuss anything they see their friends or acquaintances doing before they try it out at home. For more tips on social media safety, visit <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>

Did you know that more than 60 million American lives have been ended by abortion since the passing of Roe vs. Wade? Each year at the March for Life, pro-life advocates join together to be a voice for the unborn and help build a culture in which every child is welcomed with love and protected by law.

This year the March for Life will be virtual – but you can still participate in bringing about a culture of life from home! On Friday, January 29th, join your fellow Relevant Radio® listeners in showing solidarity with the unborn and the March for Life. Here's how you can participate: Join us in praying for the protection of the unborn. .... Tune-in to Relevant Radio throughout the day for live coverage of the March for Life. We'll be interviewing pro-life leaders, sharing testimonies, and offering ideas to build a culture of life.

FIRST READING:

Jonah 3:1-5, 10

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jonah:

THE word of the LORD came to Jonah, saying: "Set out for the great city of Nineveh, and announce to it the message that I will tell you." So Jonah made ready and went to Nineveh, according to the LORD'S bidding. Now Nineveh was an enormously large city; it took three days to go through it. Jonah began his journey through the city, and had gone but a single day's walk announcing, "Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed," when the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small, put on sackcloth. When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out.

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians:

I TELL you, brothers and sisters, the time is running out. From now on, let those having wives act as not having them, those weeping as not weeping, those rejoicing as not rejoicing, those buying as not owning, those using the world as not using it fully. For the world in its present form is passing away.

Alleluia, Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Mark 1:14-20
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark:

AFTER John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the Gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The Kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the Gospel." As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." Then they left their nets and followed him. He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.

Prayer and Worship

Descriptions of prayer are abundant throughout Christian history. "True prayer," wrote St. Augustine, "is nothing but love." Prayer should arise from the heart. "Prayer," said St. John Vianney, "is the inner bath of love into which the soul plunges itself." "Everyone of us needs half an hour of prayer each day," remarked St. Francis de Sales, "except when we are busy—then we need an hour."

Friends, there are many injustices in our society, but the most fundamental is the one our society rarely acknowledges — the routine taking of innocent human life every day through abortion. So let us pray and work for an end to this injustice. #9DaysforLife
