Readings in Worship hymnal # 1139

Entrance Antiphon: Ps 27 :7-9

O Lord, hear my voice, for I have called to you; be my help. Do not abandon or forsake me, O God, my Savior!

Reading I: Ex 19:2-6a

The background to the covenant relationship is God's action in bringing Israel out from the situation of slavery in Egypt. Israel thus became God's special people, "carried on eagle's wings"—an image taken from a popular belief that eagles carried their young for a time on their wings.

Psalm Response: Ps 100

God is characterized as creator and shepherd. It is only right that we praise a God who is characterized as creator and shepherd and described as forever good, kind, and faithful.

Reading II: Rom 5:6-11

What Paul is trying to communicate is a sense of hope – hope in the midst of all the trials and suffering that attend Christian life. In a kind of a fortiori logic that he often deploys, Paul reasons: if, when we were sinners ("enemies"), God showed so much love and generosity as actually to send the Son to suffer and die for us, how much more certain is it, now that we are "friends" (justified) that God's love will see us safely through to the end.

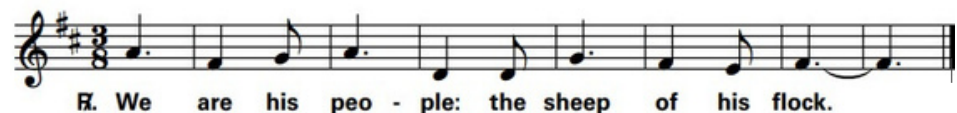

Gospel: Mt 9:36-10:8

Christ died for us when we were sinners, so Paul concludes that now that we have been saved from sin, we will also be saved from death. Jesus shows that there is still more that God can do. When he saw the crowds in today's gospel, he pitied them because they were "like sheep without a shepherd." They seemed to need leaders, someone who could show them the way to God.

Communion Antiphon: Jn 17:11

Holy Father, keep in your name those you have given me, that they may be one as we are one, says the Lord.
