To prevent spillage, please double-bag and freeze or refrigerate your casserole before you drop it off.

*ODB Tip: Take an extra pan this month to have available when it's convenient for you to cook or there is a great sale on beef!
Just put it in your freezer for the October collection.*

Casserole pans with recipes are available in the Main Church.
We are looking for additional volunteers to help with this ministry... join us! Contact Vicki Mahr at 410-292-5738 or provide you with training and supplies. To sign up, contact Peggy Dryden at pdryden@shgparish.org or 410-833-1696 ext. 315.

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Will you get to heaven? I remember someone asking me this when I was on the boardwalk in Wildwood, N.J. many years ago. I was on vacation, not thinking about heaven, hell or salvation, and this man from the boardwalk chapel walked up to me and asked me this question. It's a great question for us with this weekend's readings. In the First Reading, God surprised the Israelites by telling them people from all over will come to Jerusalem — nations of every language, even people who do not know God's name. And God goes further. "Some of these I will take as priests and Levites, says the LORD." That was unheard of! Strangers and aliens would not only come to recognize Jerusalem as the capital, the Lord's city, but would then be named some of its priests?!

Jesus, in the Gospel, surprises His audience as well, instructing them that some of those who believe they will be saved will be left out! Who would these people be? He suggests they are the overly confident, the righteous acting, the ones who believe they have nothing to worry about, who take God and faith for granted. We know many of these people today who have no fear of hell or punishment or consequences for their actions. Some of them are our leaders. Do we fall into complacency with them, assuming that God will be merciful, not notice, or give us a pass? Jesus is direct in stating, "I do not know you!"

Make yourself a friend of God. Use these readings as an invitation for us to deepen our faith, our practice of the faith, and our encouragement for others to do so.

Fr. Jerry Francis
