FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I often wonder if it was as bad in Jesus' day. Did He encounter so many mentally ill people, so many who were suffering with terminal illnesses, so many who were lost in despair and darkness? It seems that our world is overcome with such bleak news these days. Jesus raised the dead, healed the sick and reconciled sinners, but the truth is He left many things undone when He ascended back to the Father. His own followers asked Him, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?" It seems they, too, were eager for Jesus to solve it all, including restoring their nation to its true dignity and independence. They did not want to remain under foreign rule and subjugation. But Jesus does not solve it all before He leaves. When He ascends, there are still poor people, there are still hungry and sick, and people are still dying. He came proclaiming the Kingdom of God and showing us what the Kingdom was like. But He did not do it all. That was left for us. We see the reaction. The disciples stand around in disbelief as He leaves and have to be chastened by the angel who asks them why are they standing there gawking at the sky.

We have many gawkers in our own day. We have plenty of people who can tell us what is wrong, wring their hands about the state of the world and point out places where God is needed. But they do little or nothing to further the cure. Jesus has given us the answer. WE are the answer. We are to be His feet, His hands, His voice in the world. He trusts us to do it. Now get out there and bring a little bit of the kingdom to someone!

Fr. Jerry Francik

ON THE COVER

The Ascension is a liturgical Solemnity celebrated by all the Christian Churches. It falls on the fortieth day after Easter Sunday. Saint John Chrysostom and Saint Augustine make reference to it, but it was probably Saint Gregory of Nyssa who influenced the propagation of the feast. Since it falls on Thursday, this Solemnity is transferred to the following Sunday.

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." (Mt 28:16-20)
