FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

The Feast of Corpus Christi, the Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus, is a hugely significant feast for us, even as it falls at the beginning of the summer season. Jesus cared so much that He desired to leave us with His very self so that we would be nourished, fed, and participate in His very life, death, and Resurrection. Every time we gather for the Eucharist, which means Thanksgiving, we do what Jesus did on the night before He died for us, and we relive what He did on Calvary now in an unbloody sacrifice. We make present what Jesus actually did for us on Good Friday.

Many people today doubt the certainty of the Body and Blood of Jesus. We see it in public opinion polls and we also witness it every time we have a funeral or a wedding. We see people who do not understand the Eucharist, do not come to church regularly, or do not know what to do in coming to Communion. Surprisingly, this is nothing new. In the Gospel this weekend, some of the Jewish people quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" They, too, did not understand what Jesus was teaching them. However, please notice that Jesus did not retract His teaching. He does not apologize or say, "Oh, you misunderstood me. I just meant it as a symbol." No, Jesus goes on to say, "Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you." This has been the teaching of the Church since the time of the apostles. It was not until the Reformation, 1500 years later, that people began to doctrinally doubt the true presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

Renew your faith in the Eucharist today. Make sure you make a sign of reverence (typically a bow) before you receive. If you take the Eucharist in your hand, do so properly, not grabbing or one-handing it. Receive it as it is—a gift! Show your children and your grandchildren and your neighbors the great esteem you have for Communion and how grateful you are to Jesus to allow Himself to be present in such a beautiful way. Pay attention to the many opportunities we will have this year during the Eucharistic revival to deepen our relationship with Jesus in the Eucharist.

Father's Day Spiritual Bouquet Cards

Cards are available in the Narthex and Parish Center to honor and celebrate those special men in our lives, either living or deceased, this Father's Day. Suggested offering—$10 per card

With Praise and Thanksgiving to God

Rev. Mr. Javier A. Fuentes Cabrera and his classmates will be ordained to the Priesthood through the laying on of hands and the invocation of the Holy Spirit

by

The Most Reverend William E. Lori Archbishop of Baltimore

All are invited to celebrate and pray with them on

Saturday, June 24, 2023

The Solemnity of the Nativity of John the Baptist at 10:00 AM at the Cathedral of Mary Our Queen
5200 North Charles Street
Baltimore, MD 21210

The soon-to-be Rev. Javier A. Fuentes Cabrera will be offering a First Mass of Thanksgiving on Sunday, June 25, 2023, at 2:00 PM at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church
118 E. 2nd Street
Frederick, MD 21701

A light reception will follow in the parish hall after the Mass.

To the parishioners of Sacred Heart Parish,

Words alone cannot express the tremendous sense of gratitude I have for the many blessings received in my diaconate ministry while here at Sacred Heart. This is a special place, a vibrant parish, and a dedicated school. I will carry the many memories and experiences I have gained this year for the rest of my life.

Over the past year, I have shared in the joys of baptizing so many little ones in this parish community. I've rejoiced with the young children of our parish as they prepared for and eventually received our Lord in the Eucharist. I grew in my own faith as I journeyed with our Confirmation candidates. I walked with and witnessed the marriages of newlyweds. I've accompanied the many people received into the Church at the Easter Vigil and rekindled my own zeal for the Lord through their witness of faith. I prayed for the sick and the dying together with their families. I've buried our beloved dead. These experiences have all helped in shaping me to be a good and holy priest of Jesus Christ, unworthy as I am.

As with all things in life, there is a beginning and an end. I have had my own beginning at Sacred Heart and all the times in between. Now, the time has come for the end of this chapter in my life and the beginning of the next. While endings are challenging, God reveals His plan for us, and His Providential Hand always guides us gently to where we are supposed to be.

The Archbishop has assigned me as the new Associate Pastor of the Pastorate of St. John the Evangelist and St. Joseph-on-Carrollton Manor in Frederick. I know that a newly ordained priest is not usually assigned to his home parish for his first assignment. But after much deliberation and prayer, the Archbishop believes that I have the gifts and talents needed to undertake this assignment, and he's placed his trust and confidence in me.

Like Sacred Heart, this pastorate community is vibrant and growing in population, culture, and faith. There is a growing Spanish-speaking community, St. John's Regional School, which serves 650 students across the Frederick area, and a large active-duty and retired military population thanks to Ft. Detrick's presence in Frederick. With the help of God's grace and the support of your prayers, I will do my part as best I can.

While I will miss my time at Sacred Heart, I leave knowing that you have made an impact on my life and my vocation. Please be assured of my prayers and blessings for the entire Sacred Heart Parish community. I leave you with the beautiful and inspirational words of St. Teresa of Ávila, who said:

Let nothing disturb you, let nothing frighten you,
All things are passing away: God never changes.
Patience obtains all things, whoever has God lacks nothing;
God alone suffices.

Until we meet again, may God bless you, and may our Blessed Mother and St. Joseph guard and guide you always!
