FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

In the first reading this weekend, we hear Amos testify, "I was no prophet, nor have I belonged to a company of prophets; I was a shepherd and dresser of sycamores. The Lord took me from the flock." He is responding to the king who is tired of Amos making claims against him. Amos wants the king to know that he did not ask for this job. He was minding his own business when God called him forward to be a prophet.

In the gospel, we hear the apostles amazed because they, common ordinary men, are able to perform the work of Christ. They drive out demons and cure people. Yet they were not from any special class or profession.

It is clear, in the readings this weekend, that God calls forward the people He wants, not necessarily the people who are qualified or trained. We often think that we cannot do the work of the Lord because we do not have the theology, the background or the experience. Jesus called simple fisherman to be the foundation of his ministry and church. There is an old saying, "God does not call the qualified; he qualifies the called." If you are feeling the desire in your heart to serve the Lord, forget about qualifications. They will come. Instead, ask God how He wants you to serve Him.

Fr. Jerry Francik

Prayer for the Synod on Synodality

We pray for the success of the Synod on Synodality that through the inspiration and action of the Holy Spirit we become a synodal church

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

The Synod is about us, the people of God at Sacred Heart Parish and who we want to become as a Church. Be informed. Learn more: <https://www.synod.va/en.html>
