Christmas Flowers

We need your help to beautify our campus as we get ready to celebrate the birth of Jesus! During the Christmas season, the names of your loved ones will be displayed in the Narthex and published in the Epiphany bulletin so we can pray for them. Contribute online via Faith Direct or shgpar-ish.org/christmasflowers or place your donation in the Christmas Flower envelopes located in the Narthex. Envelopes can be placed in the collection baskets or returned to the Parish Center.

All donations must be received no later than Tuesday, December 17.

SAGRADO
CORAZON

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I was driving up the street the other day to see a friend, and I asked him, "Don't any of your neighbors believe in Advent?" I said this because every single house leading up to his was elaborately decorated for Christmas. This was days before even Thanksgiving! I recall a parishioner angrily asking me a couple years ago, "why don't we have any Christmas decorations up?!" I explained to him that we were in the second week of Advent and that the church would be decorated for Christmas when it was Christmas. He said, "well, we've always decorated for Christmas by this time." I told him, "not while I've been here!"

Why do we have such a hard time embracing Advent? Why do we want to rush into Christmas so soon only to throw out the tree on December 26 and stop listening to Christmas carols on that same day? Advent is a beautiful time of year. It is a time of watching, waiting and anticipating. It is similar to the nine months of waiting that Joseph and Mary went through in awaiting the birth of Jesus or that the Israelites went through in waiting for the coming of the Messiah.

We find it hard to wait. We find it difficult to anticipate. We want everything to be finished yesterday. But there is great beauty in the silence, in the anticipation and longing. I invite you to truly enter into the season of Advent this year without jumping into Christmas. Give your spiritual life a chance to long for Jesus, to anticipate His birth, to listen to the beautiful prophecies and to watch the dark night sky for the appearance of a star.

Fr. Jerry Francis
