WELCOME!

Greetings,

My name is David Hannibal, and I am honored to share that I have accepted the position of Director of Maintenance and Facilities at Sacred Heart Glyndon.

DAVE HANNIBAL, DIRECTOR OF FACILITIES

For the past 25 years, I've had the privilege of being a parishioner here. Sacred Heart has played a central role in my life—my wife and I have had all six of our children baptized here, and each of them has either attended or is currently attending school within the parish.

Sacred Heart Glyndon has truly been a home to my family and me, and I am deeply grateful for the opportunity to now serve this vibrant and faith-filled community in a new way. I look forward to dedicating my time and talents in service to the Lord and to the mission of Sacred Heart.

Warm Regards,
Dave

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Peter and Paul are the two great apostles of our church. Saint Paul was the apostle to the Gentiles, and Saint Peter was the apostle to the Jewish people. Between the two of them, the church spread throughout all of the Mediterranean region and finally throughout all the world. As we hear in the readings from the Bible this weekend, both were fearless in the face of great opposition.

In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, James has already been killed. He was the apostle who led the Christian community in Jerusalem. Peter is in prison, and awaiting trial, when God intervenes by sending an angel to save him. Nothing but the belief in the love of Jesus, his death and his resurrection, could have propelled these two men forward. Paul, formerly known as Saul, had persecuted Christians, and Peter had denied Jesus three times, but here we see a completely opposite picture of these two Saints -- they are courageous, fearless, and committed.

When we face opposition in our lives, when we doubt our faith, when we feel like we cannot make a difference because we are one person, pray to Saint Peter and Saint Paul for courage, lack of fear, and commitment.

Fr. Jerry Francis

DEL PASTOR

Queridos feligreses,

Pedro y Pablo son los dos grandes apóstoles de nuestra iglesia. San Pablo fue el apóstol de los gentiles y San Pedro fue el apóstol del pueblo judío. Entre los dos, la iglesia se extendió por toda la región mediterránea y, finalmente, por todo el mundo. Como escuchamos en las lecturas de la Biblia este fin de semana, ambos fueron intrépidos frente a una gran oposición.

En la primera lectura de los Hechos de los Apóstoles, Santiago ya ha sido asesinado. Fue el apóstol que dirigió la comunidad cristiana en Jerusalén. Pedro está en prisión, y esperando juicio, cuando Dios interviene enviando un ángel para salvarlo. Nada más que la creencia en el amor de Jesús, su muerte y su resurrección, podría haber impulsado a estos dos hombres hacia adelante. Pablo, formalmente conocido como Saulo, había perseguido a los cristianos, y Pedro había negado a Jesús tres veces, pero aquí vemos una imagen completamente opuesta de estos dos santos: son valientes, intrépidos y comprometidos.

Cuando enfrentamos oposición en nuestras vidas, cuando dudamos de nuestra fe, cuando sentimos que no podemos marcar la diferencia porque somos una sola persona, oremos a San Pedro y a San Pablo por valor, falta de miedo y compromiso.
