FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend's gospel reading is often used at the vigil of a funeral or at a funeral Mass. It can seem quite intimidating, knowing that Jesus might show up at any time. But if we are living our lives in the right way, being honest, doing justice, and treating other people with love, respect, and dignity, then Jesus' appearance should be welcome, not threatening. If we are not on the right track, then the unexpected or prompt arrival of Jesus could cause anxiety. We need time to get our act together!

In the first reading, from the Book of Wisdom, we are told that the children of Israel knew that the Passover was coming, and they prepared themselves to offer sacrifice while God was dealing with their oppressors. In the same way, we need to have the confidence that the Letter to the Hebrews speaks about today when talking about faith. "Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not yet seen." In other words, we don't need faith in something that we can see, it is plainly obvious. In the same way, we can't physically see Jesus right now, but we know that He will return. Our job is to be in good shape.

DEL PASTOR

Queridos feligreses,

La lectura del evangelio de este fin de semana se usa a menudo en la vigilia de un funeral o en una misa fúnebre. Puede parecer bastante intimidante, sabiendo que Jesús podría aparecer en cualquier momento. Pero si vivimos nuestras vidas de la manera correcta, somos honestos, hacemos justicia y tratamos a otras personas con amor, respeto y dignidad, entonces la aparición de Jesús debe ser bienvenida, no amenazante. Si no estamos en el camino correcto, entonces la venida inesperada o pronta de Jesús podría causar ansiedad. ¡Necesitamos tiempo para ponernos las pilas!

En la primera lectura, del Libro de la Sabiduría, se nos dice que los hijos de Israel sabían que se acercaba la Pascua y se prepararon para ofrecer sacrificios mientras Dios se ocupaba de sus opresores. De la misma manera, necesitamos tener esa la confianza de la que habla hoy la Carta a los Hebreos cuando habla de la fe. "La fe es la realización de lo que se espera y la evidencia de cosas que no se ven". En otras palabras, no necesitamos fe en algo que podamos ver, es claramente obvio. De la misma manera, no podemos ver físicamente a Jesús en este momento, pero sabemos que Él regresará. Nuestro trabajo es estar en buena forma.
