FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Doing the right thing has never been easy. Following God or following Jesus will mean opposition, tough times, and even outright hostility. Some today preach a gospel of prosperity that says if you believe in Jesus, life will be rosy and smooth and filled with peace. Turn to the book of Jeremiah. Today Jeremiah is thrown into a cistern, a well, because the people of his day don't like his preaching. They want to get rid of him. The king concurs. The one in power, who should've been listening to Jeremiah, takes the road of least resistance and tells the leaders to do what they will with Jeremiah. No one likes his message even though it is the true message from God.

In the gospel, Jesus describes His mission as a fire and wishes it were blazing already. Fire is dramatic and sudden and causes immediate reaction. The reaction to Jesus' message will be opposition and ultimately fierce hostility. From its beginning, Christianity has been opposed by those in power. Why? One would think that a religion that promotes the dignity of every person who is made in the image of God, the calls for peace among peoples and love for neighbor, would be widely embraced. But, as the Letter to the Hebrews says, we know there are a cloud of witnesses who were murdered for living the faith.

Live the faith boldly! Live in concert with the church. If you do so, you will inevitably be opposed but we will join the cloud of witnesses who are with Jesus, who suffered hostility, even to the point of death.

DEL PASTOR

Queridos feligreses,

Hacer lo correcto nunca ha sido fácil. Seguir a Dios o seguir a Jesús significará oposición, tiempos difíciles e incluso hostilidad absoluta. Algunos hoy predicán un evangelio de prosperidad que dice que si crees en Jesús, la vida será color de rosa, suave y llena de paz. Vaya al libro de Jeremías. Hoy Jeremías es arrojado a una cisterna, a un pozo, porque a la gente de su época no le gusta su predicación. Quieren deshacerse de él. El rey está de acuerdo. El que está en el poder, que debería haber estado escuchando a Jeremías, toma el camino de menor resistencia y les dice a los líderes que hagan lo que quieran con Jeremías. A nadie le gusta su mensaje a pesar de que es el verdadero mensaje de Dios.

En el evangelio, Jesús describe su misión como un fuego y desea que ya estuviera ardiendo. El fuego es dramático y repentino y causa una reacción inmediata. La reacción al mensaje de Jesús será oposición y, en última instancia, una feroz hostilidad. Desde sus inicios, el cristianismo ha sido rechazado por los que están en el poder. ¿Por qué? Uno pensaría que una religión que promueve la dignidad de cada persona que está hecha a imagen de Dios, los llamados a la paz entre los pueblos y el amor al prójimo, serían ampliamente aceptados. Pero, como dice la Carta a los Hebreos, sabemos que hay una nube de testigos que fueron asesinados por vivir la fe.

¡Vive la fe con valentía! Vive en concierto con la iglesia. Si lo haces, inevitablemente te opondrás, pero nos uniremos a la nube de testigos que están con Jesús, que sufrió hostilidad, hasta la muerte.

Essential Holiness Book Study

BY ELIZABETH FOSS

Order book via Amazon and read at home.

We will review and reflect when we gather in Room 104 on Tuesdays from 7:00-8:30 PM beginning in September.

Open to all women of Sacred Heart

What if, here and now, as summer comes to a close and we look ahead to a new academic year and the briskness of autumn's quickened pace, we take some time to consider what is truly essential? What if we intentionally set about to craft a life that is mindful of the one thing that is important? What if we did everything, from this moment forward, for God's glory?
