FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

God's mercy has no bounds! We live in a world of "us" versus "them," those who belong and those who don't belong. If we disagree with someone, we label them, call them names and ostracize them. We use Instagram and Facebook to make fun of them. In radical and complete opposition to this, two of those who "do not fit," are healed this weekend in the scriptures. In the first reading, it is Namaan the Syrian, who goes down into the waters of the Jordan and is completely cleansed of his leprosy. In the gospel, it is the Samaritan who is suffering from leprosy, who is one of the 10 cured by Jesus. Yet he is the only one to return to say thank you. Both were considered outsiders.

God's mercy has no bounds. We may put up limits. We may build walls. We may divide ourselves into whatever groups we want to call ourselves, but God sees us as His children, and He reaches out to heal, to love, and to forgive—to all people.

DEL PASTOR

Queridos feligreses,

¡La misericordia de Dios no tiene límites! Vivimos en un mundo de "nosotros" contra "ellos", los que pertenecen y los que no pertenecen. Si no estamos de acuerdo con alguien, lo etiquetamos, lo insultamos y lo condenamos al ostracismo. Usamos Instagram y Facebook para burlarnos de ellos. En oposición radical y completa a esto, dos de los que "no encajan" son sanados este fin de semana en las Escrituras. En la primera lectura, es Namaan el sirio, que desciende a las aguas del Jordán y queda completamente limpio de su lepra. En el evangelio, es el samaritano que sufre de lepra, uno de los 10 curados por Jesús. Sin embargo, es el único que regresa para dar las gracias. Ambos fueron considerados forasteros.

La misericordia de Dios no tiene límites. Podemos poner límites. Podemos construir muros. Podemos dividirnos en los grupos que queramos llamarnos, pero Dios nos ve como Sus hijos, y Él se acerca para sanar, amar y perdonar, a todas las personas.

LIFE

of Hope*

There is perhaps no more beautiful celebration than when parents bring their newborn child to the waters of baptism. Parents, godparents, family, and friends share in this sacrament with incomparable joy. For in baptism, we share in Christ's death and resurrection, and through the outward signs of water and oil, are made children of God and given the hope of eternal life with Him.

"The death and resurrection of Jesus is the heart of our faith and the basis of our hope."¹ Through our Lord Jesus Christ, our sins are forgiven, death is overcome, and life is victorious. "Hope dwells as the desire and expectation of good things to come, despite not knowing what the future may bring."² Because of this Christian hope, we can face the unknown trials of life with faith rather than fear.

We are called to be signs of hope to all people, especially those whose goodness, value, and dignity are undermined. As members of the Body of Christ, we carry this hope with us as we continue Jesus' mission on earth. Pope Leo XIV encourages us, "How important it is that each and every baptized person feel himself or herself called by God to be a sign of hope in the world today."³

Sadly, there is a devastating absence of hope today. We see this most profoundly in a sweeping disregard for human life in its most vulnerable forms and stages. Abortion and assisted suicide are products of hopelessness and despair. Yet even amid the increasing attacks on human life, we know that the "storms that buffet us will never prevail, for we are firmly anchored in the hope born of grace, which enables us to live in Christ and to overcome sin, fear and death."⁴

"Hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the holy Spirit that has been given to us." Romans 5:5

We have been entrusted with a message of hope for the woman who finds herself unexpectedly pregnant or for the man diagnosed with a terminal illness. At these challenging moments, we must bring God's presence, witnessing to His love, and inspiring a renewal of hope in those whose hearts are burdened. For "hope is born of love and based on the love springing from the pierced heart of Jesus upon the cross."⁵

Having been "buried with Christ in Baptism, we receive in his resurrection the gift of a new life that breaks down the walls of death."⁶ Confident of God's presence within us, may we share the Gospel of Life with those most in need of hope, knowing that "the grace of God precedes and accompanies his people as they press forward firm in faith, active in charity and steadfast in hope."⁷

de esperanza*

Tal vez no haya una celebración más hermosa que la de los padres cuando llevan a su hijo recién nacido a las aguas del bautismo. Padres, padrinos, familiares y amigos participan de este sacramento con una alegría incomparable. En el bautismo participamos de la muerte y resurrección de Cristo y, por los signos externos del agua y el óleo, somos hechos hijos de Dios y recibimos la esperanza de la vida eterna con Él.

“Jesucristo, muerto y resucitado, es el centro de nuestra fe y la garantía de nuestra esperanza”.¹ Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, nuestros pecados son perdonados, la muerte es vencida y la vida es victoriosa. “Anida la esperanza como deseo y expectativa del bien, aun ignorando lo que traerá consigo el mañana”.² Gracias a esta esperanza cristiana, podemos enfrentar las pruebas desconocidas de la vida con fe en lugar de temor.

Estamos llamados a ser signos de esperanza para todas las personas, especialmente para aquellas cuya bondad, valor y dignidad se ven socavados. Como miembros del Cuerpo de Cristo, llevamos esta esperanza con nosotros mientras continuamos la misión de Jesús en la tierra. El papa León XIV nos anima: “Qué importante es que cada bautizado se sienta llamado por Dios a ser signo de esperanza en el mundo de hoy”.³

Lamentablemente, hoy en día existe una devastadora ausencia de esperanza. Vemos esto más profundamente en un desprecio generalizado por la vida humana en sus formas y etapas más vulnerables. El aborto y el suicidio asistido son producto de la desesperanza y la desesperación. Sin embargo, incluso en medio de los crecientes ataques contra la vida humana, sabemos que

“Y la esperanza no quedará defraudada, porque el amor de Dios ha sido derramado en nuestros corazones por el Espíritu Santo, que nos ha sido dado”.
Romanos 5,5

las “las tempestades nunca podrán prevalecer, porque estamos anclados en la esperanza de la gracia, que nos hace capaces de vivir en Cristo superando el pecado, el miedo y la muerte”.⁴

Se nos ha confiado un mensaje de esperanza para la mujer que tiene un embarazo inesperado o para el hombre a quien se le diagnostica una enfermedad terminal. En estos momentos difíciles, debemos llevar la presencia de Dios, dando testimonio de Su amor e inspirando una renovación de la esperanza en aquellas personas que tienen el corazón agobiado. Porque “la esperanza efectivamente nace del amor y se funda en el amor que brota del Corazón de Jesús traspasado en la cruz”.⁵

Al haber sido “en el Bautismo, en efecto, sepultados con Cristo, recibimos en el resucitado el don de una vida nueva, que derriba el muro de la muerte”.⁶ Confiados en la presencia de Dios dentro de nosotros, compartamos el Evangelio de la Vida con los más necesitados de esperanza, sabiendo que “la gracia de Dios precede y acompaña al pueblo que camina entusiasta en la fe, diligente en la caridad y perseverante en la esperanza”.⁷
