FROM THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Each year, on November 2, the Church invites us to pause and remember – not with fear or sadness, but with hope – all our beloved faithful departed. All Souls Day is a sacred moment to lift our hearts in prayer for those who have gone before us, trusting in the mercy and promise of God.

In the Gospel of John (6:37-40), Jesus gives us words of deep consolation, “Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me...and I shall raise him on the last day.” These words remind us that death does not have the final say. Those who die in friendship with God are not lost – they are safe in His embrace. Our prayers for them are acts of love that reach beyond the veil of death, helping to purify and strengthen their souls in God’s light.

Many of our Mexican brothers and sisters celebrate this day with special devotion, known as “El Día de los Muertos” (The Day of the Dead). Far from being a gloomy day, it’s a joyful remembrance. Families decorate altars with flowers, candles, photos, and favorite foods of their loved ones. This beautiful custom has ancient roots: the Aztecs once honored their ancestors with feasts, and after the arrival of Christianity, this tradition was transformed to express faith in the Resurrection. It’s a vibrant way to say, “Love is stronger than death.”

Let us, too, keep that spirit. Visit the cemetery, light a candle, or simply whisper a prayer for your loved ones who have passed away. Let’s also remember those who have no one to pray for them. In doing so, we strengthen our communion as the Body of Christ – on earth, in purgatory, and in heaven.

May the Lord comfort every heart that grieves, and may the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

With prayer and affection,

Fr. Ángel Acuña

DEL PASTOR ASOCIADO

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Cada año, el 2 de noviembre, la Iglesia nos invita a hacer una pausa y recordar, no con miedo ni tristeza, sino con esperanza, a todos nuestros queridos fieles difuntos. El Día de los Fieles Difuntos es un momento sagrado para elevar nuestros corazones en oración por quienes nos han precedido, confiando en la misericordia y la promesa de Dios.

En el Evangelio de Juan (6:37-40), Jesús nos da palabras de profundo consuelo: «Todo lo que el Padre me da, vendrá a mí, y a todo el que a mí viene, no lo rechazaré... y lo resucitaré en el último día». Estas palabras nos recuerdan que la muerte no tiene la última palabra. Quienes mueren en amistad con Dios no están perdidos; están a salvo en su abrazo. Nuestras oraciones por ellos son actos de amor que trascienden el velo de la muerte, ayudando a purificar y fortalecer sus almas en la luz de Dios.

Muchos de nuestros hermanos y hermanas mexicanos celebran este día con especial devoción, conocido como "El Día de los Muertos". Lejos de ser un día sombrío, es un recuerdo alegre. Las familias decoran altares con flores, velas, fotos y comidas favoritas de sus seres queridos. Esta hermosa costumbre tiene raíces antiguas: los aztecas alguna vez honraron a sus antepasados con fiestas, y después de la llegada del cristianismo, esta tradición se transformó para expresar la fe en la Resurrección. Es una forma vibrante de decir: "El amor es más fuerte que la muerte".

Mantengamos también ese espíritu. Visiten el cementerio, enciendan una vela o simplemente susurren una oración por sus seres queridos fallecidos. Recordemos también a quienes no tienen a nadie que rece por ellos. Al hacerlo, fortalecemos nuestra comunión como Cuerpo de Cristo: en la tierra, en el purgatorio y en el cielo.

Que el Señor consuele todo corazón afligido y que las almas de todos los fieles difuntos, por la misericordia de Dios, descansen en paz.

Con oración y afecto,

P. Ángel Acuña

Kingdom Builders

7:00 PM-8:30 PM

Ladies! Join us in November for Kingdom Builders! We will meet in the Main Church.

Our Heavenly Father is known by different names and titles, and as His beloved daughters, we have the privilege to call upon them. However, many of us may not be familiar with these names or how to effectively incorporate them into our prayer. Join us in November to discover how to embrace the power of God's name and live out His legacy of love.
