FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

"We were just there!" How many times we have said this when we come back from visiting a city like New York or Washington and then see some event on the news?

Well, in this case, it's true again. Our pilgrimage group was just at the Basilica of St. John Lateran in Rome. It is considered the mother church of all Christendom since it was the first "official" church built by the emperor Constantine, when Christianity was finally made legal in Rome. It is the pope's cathedral, his seat in the Archdiocese as Bishop. The name Lateran comes from the family who donated the land for the church.

But why is this all so significant that it becomes a feast on a Sunday? The Basilica of St. John's is the first time Christians were allowed to worship in public, and the building became a symbol of who we are: the body of Christ. As we hear in the readings this weekend, temples are places of worship which house the faithful. They are sacred because of their history, the events that happened there, but mostly because they are the places where the people of God gather. Scripture reminds us that we are God's temple and wherever we go, we make the place holy. Think about the thousands of people who have come here to Sacred Heart in the Little Church and the Main Church for baptisms, weddings, funerals, daily Mass, Sunday Masses, Christmas, and Easter. These people have made this place holy over 152 years. As we celebrate the mother church in Rome, let us, also during this month of November, pray for all those who have gone before us in this place, making it a holy temple of God.

Fr. Jerry Francis

DEL PASTOR

Queridos feligreses,

"¡Estábamos allí!" ¿Cuántas veces hemos dicho esto cuando regresamos de visitar una ciudad como Nueva York o Washington y luego vemos algún evento en las noticias?

Bueno, en este caso, es cierto de nuevo. Nuestro grupo de peregrinación estaba justo en la Basílica de San Juan de Letrán en Roma. Se considera la iglesia madre de toda la cristiandad ya que fue la primera iglesia "oficial" construida por el emperador Constantino, cuando finalmente se legalizó el cristianismo en Roma. Es la catedral del Papa, su sede en la Arquidiócesis como obispo. El nombre de Letrán proviene de la familia que donó el terreno para la iglesia.

Pero, ¿por qué todo esto es tan significativo que se convierte en una fiesta en domingo? La Basílica de San Juan es la primera vez que a los cristianos se les permitió adorar en público y el edificio se convirtió en un símbolo de quiénes somos, el cuerpo de Cristo. Como escuchamos en las lecturas de este fin de semana, los templos son lugares de culto que albergan a los fieles. Son sagrados por su historia, los eventos que sucedieron allí, pero sobre todo porque son los lugares donde se reúne el pueblo de Dios. Las Escrituras nos recuerdan que somos el templo de Dios y dondequiera que vayamos, hacemos que el lugar sea santo. Piense en las miles de personas que han venido aquí al Sagrado Corazón en la pequeña iglesia y la iglesia principal para bautizos, bodas, funerales, misa diaria, misas dominicales, Navidad y Pascua. Estas personas han hecho de este lugar un lugar sagrado durante 153 años. Al celebrar la iglesia madre en Roma, oremos, también durante este mes de noviembre, por todos los que nos han precedido en este lugar, convirtiéndolo en un templo santo de Dios.
