THY KINGDOM COME

FROM THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR

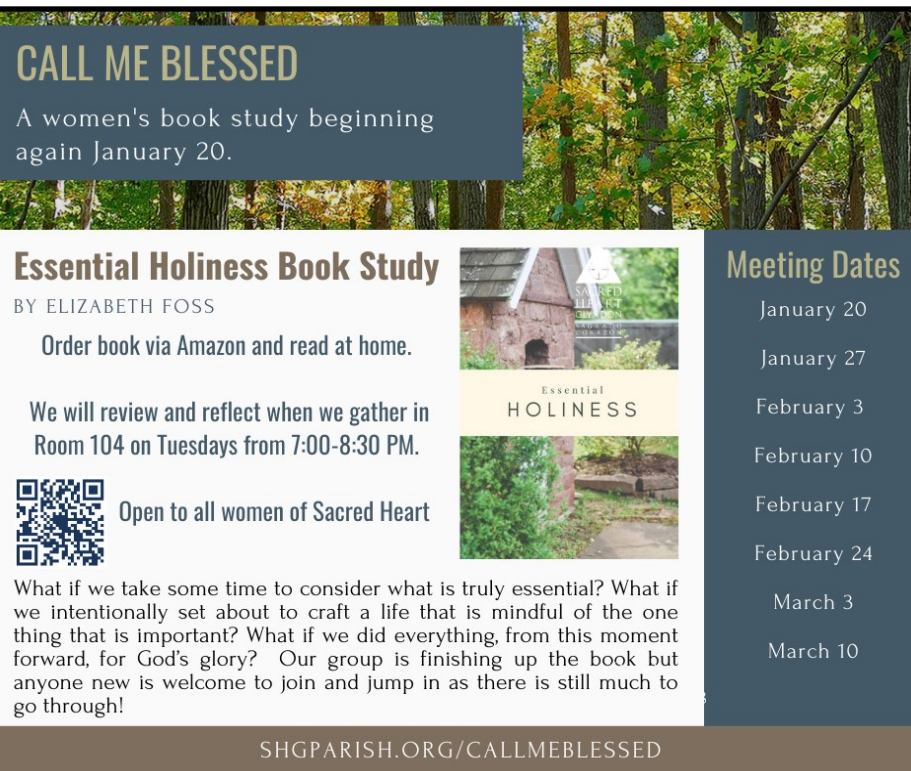

Dear Parishioners,

In John the Baptist, we see the mission of the church to point to Jesus as the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. It is precisely this mission that captures the sacramentality of the church as a sign and instrument both of a very closely knit union with God and of the unity of the whole human race (Lumen Gentium, No. 1). As a sign and instrument of salvation, it belongs to the church to lead her faithful to a deeper encounter with Christ in the Word and Sacrament.

The image of Jesus as Lamb not only reveals him as the prototype of Isaac who was to be sacrificed by Abraham (Gen 22, 1-19) but reminds us of the Passover lamb and its significance in the liberation of Israel from Egypt (Exodus 12, 1-16). So, in our profession of Jesus as the Lamb of God, we commemorate our Passover from sin to grace, light to darkness, death to life.

It is by this Passover, inaugurated by our baptism, that the hope of salvation is guaranteed. With the words of the responsorial psalm "here am I Lord I come to do will", may we therefore be available to be instruments of God's liberation (Passover) in our world.

A women's book study beginning again January 20.

Essential Holiness Book Study
BY ELIZABETH FOSS
Order book via Amazon and read at home.

We will review and reflect when we gather in Room 104 on Tuesdays from 7:00-8:30 PM.

Open to all women of Sacred Heart

What if we take some time to consider what is truly essential? What if we intentionally set about to craft a life that is mindful of the one thing that is important? What if we did everything, from this moment forward, for God's glory? Our group is finishing up the book but anyone new is welcome to join and jump in as there is still much to go through!

DEL ASOCIADO PASTOR

Queridos feligreses,

En Juan el Bautista vemos la misión de la iglesia de señalar a Jesús como el Cordero de Dios que quita el pecado del mundo. Es precisamente esta misión la que capta la sacramentalidad de la iglesia como signo e instrumento, tanto de una unión muy estrecha con Dios como de la unidad de toda la raza humana (Lumen Gentium, n° 1). Como signo e instrumento de salvación, pertenece a la iglesia guiar a sus fieles hacia un encuentro más profundo con Cristo en la Palabra y el Sacramento.

La imagen de Jesús como Cordero no solo lo revela como el prototipo de Isaac, quien iba a ser sacrificado por Abraham (Génesis 22, 1-19), sino que nos recuerda al Cordero de Pascua y su importancia en la liberación de Israel de Egipto (Éxodo 12, 1-16). Así que, en nuestra profesión de Jesús como el Cordero de Dios, conmemoramos nuestra Pascua desde el pecado hasta la gracia, la luz hacia la oscuridad, la muerte hacia la vida.

Es con esta Pascua, inaugurada por nuestro bautismo, que se garantiza la esperanza de salvación. Con las palabras del salmo responsorial "aquí estoy yo, Señor vengo a hacer voluntad", que estemos así disponibles para ser instrumentos de la liberación de Dios (Pascua) en nuestro mundo.

Fr. Ambrose Onwuegbuchulem

2025 Contribution Statements

As we prepare year end contribution statements, we ask for your help so we may be as efficient as possible. If you are taking the standard deduction and not itemizing, we ask that you please refrain from requesting a manual contribution statement from our staff. According to tax law you do not need it, and it saves us time and labor. If you would like to see your statement, you may access your contributions through our website. Just click on Giving on the top menu bar, then click on My Contribution Statement. Your email is the default username. This method for retrieving your contributions will be available beginning January 30, 2026. For those of you who give via EFT, a contribution statement will be sent to you automatically.

Should you still require a statement (other than one of the methods listed above) please contact the Parish office at 410-833-1696 or via email at mrosado@shgparish.org and we will be happy to provide you one. Please allow a week to fulfill your request. Thank you for understanding and for helping us use parish resources wisely.

Choral Evensong

5:30 PM

St. John's Western Run

3738 Butler Road,

Reisterstown

In observance of the conclusion of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, Sacred Heart Parish is invited to a service of Choral Evensong at St. John's Western Run Parish.

We will gather to offer prayer and praise to God, giving thanks for our shared baptism in Christ and seeking the Spirit's guidance toward greater unity in faith, witness, and love. In keeping with the spirit of this week, the service will be offered as a common act of prayer for the whole Church and the reconciliation of all Christians within the context of Evensong in the Anglican/Episcopal tradition.

We would be honored by your presence and participation, as we pray together and bear witness to the unity that is already ours in Christ, even amid our differences.

There will be a light reception to follow.
