Holy Hour for Peace

Tuesday, February 17
5:00 - 6:00 PM in the Main Church

“Your faith matters. Your prayers matter. Your acts of love and works of justice matter,” said Archbishop Paul S. Coakley, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops. “The current climate of fear and polarization, which thrives when human dignity is disregarded, does not meet the standard set by Christ in the Gospel,” he continued, and as a step toward healing, invited bishops and priests across the United States to offer a Holy Hour for Peace.

Archbishop Coakley’s full reflection and invitation follow:

Many people today feel powerless in the face of violence, injustice, and social unrest. To those who feel this way, I wish to say clearly: your faithfulness matters. Your prayers matter. Your acts of love and works of justice matter.

I am deeply grateful for the countless ways Catholics and all people of good will continue to serve one another and work for peace and justice. Whether feeding the hungry, welcoming the stranger, caring for the sick, accompanying the lonely, visiting the imprisoned, or striving daily to love their neighbors, no work of mercy or act of justice is ever wasted in the eyes of God. While proper laws must be respected, works of mercy, peacefully assembling, and caring for those in your community are signs of hope, and they build peace more surely than anger or despair ever could. Christ reminds us that even ‘a single cup of cold water’ given in his name will not go unrewarded (cf. Mt 10:42).

The recent killing of two people by immigration enforcement officers in Minneapolis and that of a detained man in Texas, are just a few of the tragic examples of the violence that represent failures in our society to respect the dignity of every human life. We mourn this loss of life and deplore the indifference and injustice it represents. The current climate of fear and polarization, which thrives when human dignity is disregarded, does not meet the standard set by Christ in the Gospel.

As a step toward healing, I invite my brother bishops and priests across the United States to offer a Holy Hour for Peace in the days ahead. Let us pray for reconciliation where there is division, for justice where there are violations of fundamental rights, and for consolation for all who feel overwhelmed by fear or loss. I encourage Catholics everywhere to participate, whether in parishes, chapels, or before the Lord present in the quiet of their hearts for healing in our nation and communities.

May this Holy Hour be a moment of renewal for our hearts and for our nation. Entrusting our fears and hopes to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, let us ask the Lord to make us instruments of his peace and witnesses to the inherent dignity of every person.

Let us pray together, confident that God hears the cry of his people and remains close to all who seek him.

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

We hear a lot about freedom of choice in our society. It not only affects moral questions, but is even part of our normal, every day decisions. Just take a walk down the cereal aisle in the supermarket and you see how much we like to be able to choose! Thus, to say that God is unfair because he does not give us a choice, is wrong. God has given us the Commandments. Our choice is whether to obey them or not. Even Jesus, in the gospel today, says He has not come to abolish the law or the prophets, but to fulfill them.

In fact, Jesus does not do away with any part of the law. Instead, he actually invites us to live at a higher level. He expands the law. For example, we are not only to refrain from killing another person; we are also to refrain from getting angry with another person or calling them names! What a huge stretch from the simple command of, "you shall not kill." We are not only to refrain from taking an oath, but living so honestly and truthfully that our "yes" means "yes", and are "no" means "no." Instead of the minimum, Jesus is asking us to do the maximum. Like last week, this may not be normal living, but it is gospel living.

DEL PASTOR

Queridos feligreses,

En nuestra sociedad oímos mucho sobre la libertad de elección. No solo afecta a cuestiones morales, sino que incluso forma parte de nuestras decisiones cotidianas y normales. Solo tienes que dar un paseo por el pasillo de cereales del supermercado y verás cuánto nos gusta poder elegir. Por tanto, decir que Dios es injusto porque no nos da elección es incorrecto. Dios nos ha dado los Mandamientos. Nuestra elección es si obedecerlos o no. Incluso Jesús, en el evangelio de hoy, dice que no ha venido a abolir la ley ni a los profetas, sino a cumplirlos.

De hecho, Jesús no elimina ninguna parte de la ley. En cambio, nos invita a vivir a un nivel superior. Amplía la ley. Por ejemplo, no solo debemos abstenernos de matar a otra persona; ¡También debemos abstenernos de enfadarnos con otra persona o insultarla! Qué gran desahogo respecto al simple mandato de "no matarás." No solo debemos abstenernos de jurar, sino vivir tan honesta y con tanta sinceridad que nuestro sí significa sí, y no significa no. En lugar del mínimo, Jesús nos pide que hagamos lo máximo. Como la semana pasada, esto puede que no sea una vida normal, pero es vivir el evangelio.

Thank You from the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA

Thank you and the faithful of Sacred Heart Catholic Church for your recent gift of $3,781.35 to the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS). We rely on private donations to minister to the Catholic military men and women, and their families - faithful and families from your diocese - while they serve our Country, attend one of the U.S. Military Academies, or are cared for during injury or illness in a Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center. Please continue to pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and the religious life. With more than 300,000 Catholics between the ages of 18-29 on active duty, the U.S. military provides the Church with a substantial pool of priestly vocations.

FASTING REQUIREMENTS

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence. For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal.

The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.

During this penitential season, Masses at Sacred Heart will take on a more somber tone and a spirit of simplicity. After the entrance chant or hymn, we will pray the Confiteor and sing the Kyrie. We do not sing or say Alleluia, so that our Alleluias may be even more joyous come Eastertide.

At the end of Mass, there will be no hymn. Instrumental music will accompany the recession.
