FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Are we ever truly ready for what is to come? Many of us would like to know the future so that we can properly prepare. We have things like health insurance, life insurance, and property insurance to prepare for the unpredictable.

Jesus, today, tries to prepare the apostles for what is to come - His suffering, death, and resurrection. He does this through the transfiguration where Peter, James, and John are given an opportunity to see Jesus as He really is. Yet, despite His preparation of them, they still don't understand. In the end, He tells them to keep all that they have seen and witnessed secret until He rises from the dead. We can imagine that they have no idea what that means either.

Let us pray this weekend, that our eyes, our ears, and our hearts will be opened and attuned to the voice of God so that we not only experience Jesus for who He really is, but know how to react and prepare for his suffering, death, and resurrection this Holy Week and Easter.

Fr. Jerry Francik

DEL PASTOR

Estimados feligreses,

¿Estamos realmente preparados para lo que está por venir? Muchos de nosotros queremos conocer el futuro para poder prepararnos adecuadamente. Tenemos cosas como seguros de salud, seguros de vida y seguros de propiedad para prepararnos ante lo impredecible.

Jesús, hoy, intenta preparar a los apóstoles para lo que está por venir - su sufrimiento, muerte y resurrección. Lo hace a través de la transfiguración, donde Pedro, Santiago y Juan tienen la oportunidad de ver a Jesús tal y como es realmente. Sin embargo, a pesar de Su preparación, siguen sin entender. Al final, les dice que guarden en secreto todo lo que han visto y presenciado hasta que Él resucite. Podemos imaginar que ellos tampoco tienen ni idea de lo que eso significa.

Oremos este fin de semana para que nuestros ojos, oídos y corazones se abran y sintonizan con la voz de Dios, de modo que no solo experimentemos a Jesús tal como es realmente, sino que sepamos cómo reaccionar y prepararnos para su sufrimiento, muerte y resurrección esta Semana Santa y Pascua.

Life in the Spirit

Due to the Lenten Speaker series on Thursday, March 12, we will have no healing Mass this month.

Our regular meetings are on Wednesdays from 7:15-8:45 PM in Room 105

shgparish.org/lits

Safety and Security Committee

Sacred Heart Parish is grateful for the many men and women in our community who serve—or have served—in emergency medical services and law enforcement. Your dedication to protecting and caring for others reflects a deep commitment to service, courage, and the common good.

As part of our ongoing efforts to foster a safe and welcoming environment for worship, we are establishing a new Security Ministry. This ministry is designed to provide a calm, prepared, and professional presence during Mass, ensuring that our parish family can worship with confidence and peace of mind.

We are prayerfully inviting all active EMS personnel, active law enforcement officers, and retired law enforcement professionals within our parish to consider volunteering. Our goal is simple: to have trained individuals present at the Mass they typically attend, so that in the event of a medical or safety emergency, we can respond promptly and appropriately. Your expertise in assessment, communication, and crisis management would be an invaluable blessing to our parish community.

Volunteers would serve during their regular Mass attendance, offering a discreet and supportive presence. This ministry is not about creating alarm, but about being prepared—caring for one another as members of the Body of Christ.

If you feel called to serve in this way, or would like more information, please contact David Hannibal, Director of Facilities at dhannibal@shgparish.org.

Easter Flower Memorial Donations

Honor your loved ones by making an Easter flower donation to beautify our sanctuary space. Names will be posted throughout the entire Easter season in both churches and posted in our bulletin and Flocknote. Envelopes are available in the Narthex and Parish Center and may be placed in collection baskets at Mass. You can also donate at shgparish.org/easterflowers

Donations are due by Monday, March 30

Quo Vadis and Quo Vadis Beyond 2026

The Archdiocese of Baltimore is hosting two programs this summer to help young men grow as disciples of Jesus.

They will learn how to pray, grow in fraternity, and pursue a deeper relationship with Jesus. Ultimately, the hope is that this will lay a foundation to help each young man discover their vocation, who they are called to be.

Outreach Fund 2026

In response to the many requests we have received regarding financial assistance for those families in our community affected by immigration policies, we have created a safe and simple donation account for anyone who would like to contribute.

Funds will be used solely for affected active and committed parishioners with minor children and will be limited to their needs of food, shelter, and other emergency expenses.

All funds will be disbursed under the direction of the pastor. Sacred Heart Parish is a generous community of compassionate and caring individuals, and we thank you for all you do for those in need throughout the year.
