FROM THE PASTOR

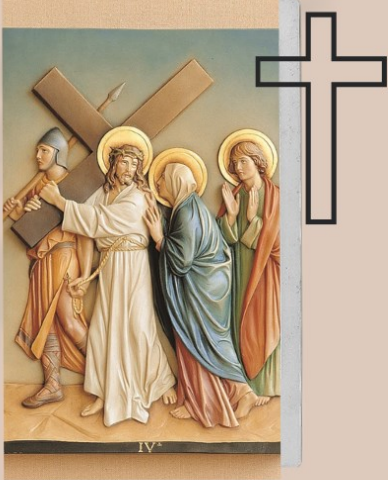

Dear Parishioners,

The story of the man born blind is the second in our trilogy leading us forward in Lent. The story from the gospel of John turns things, once again, on its head. The one who is blind in the story is the one who comes to see and believes in Jesus. The people who are sighted in the story, are actually the ones who are blind. But they are not physically blind, they are emotionally and spiritually blind. They are also stubborn. Even when given direct proof of the miracles and goodness of Jesus, they are stuck in their old ways and walk away.

The story is an obvious challenge and invitation to us. Where do we see clearly and where are we blind to the workings of God in our life and our world? Sometimes we are so stuck in our old way of doing things or in our old way of seeing things, that we are not open to the way God is working powerfully in our lives and in our world. We, like the scribes and Pharisees are stuck and stubborn. We are invited to join the blind man who has, not only his physical eyes opened, but his faith opened as well.

DEL PASTOR

Estimados feligreses,

La historia del hombre nacido ciego es la segunda de nuestra trilogía que nos guía hacia adelante en Cuaresma. La historia del evangelio de Juan le da la vuelta, una vez más, a todo. El que es ciego en la historia es quien viene a ver y cree en Jesús. Las personas que ven en la historia son en realidad las que son ciegas. Pero no son ciegos físicamente, son ciegos emocional y espiritualmente. También son tercos. Incluso cuando se les da prueba directa de los milagros y la bondad de Jesús, se quedan atrapados en sus viejas costumbres y se alejan.

La historia es un desafío y una invitación evidentes para nosotros. ¿Dónde vemos con claridad y dónde estamos ciegos ante las acciones de Dios en nuestra vida y en nuestro mundo? A veces estamos tan atrapados en nuestra antigua forma de hacer las cosas o en nuestra antigua forma de verlas, que no estamos abiertos a la forma en que Dios está obrando poderosamente en nuestras vidas y en nuestro mundo. Nosotros, como los escribas y los fariseos, estamos atrapados y tercos. Estamos invitados a unirnos al ciego que no solo ha abierto sus ojos físicos, sino también su fe.

Outreach Fund 2026

In response to the many requests we have received regarding financial assistance for those families in our community affected by immigration policies, we have created a safe and simple donation account for anyone who would like to contribute.

Funds will be used solely for affected active and committed parishioners with minor children and will be limited to their needs of food, shelter, and other emergency expenses.

All funds will be disbursed under the direction of the pastor. Sacred Heart Parish is a generous community of compassionate and caring individuals, and we thank you for all you do for those in need throughout the year.

Quo Vadis and Quo Vadis Beyond 2026

The Archdiocese of Baltimore is hosting two programs this summer to help young men grow as disciples of Jesus.

Quo Vadis July 6–9, 2026

For young men entering Grade 9–12. They will learn how to pray, growing in fraternity, and pursuing a deeper relationship with Jesus. Ultimately, our hope is that this will lay a foundation to help each young man discover their vocation, who they are called to be.

Quo Vadis Beyond June 18-19, 2026

For young men who have recently graduated high school. It is a new experience for recently graduated highschoolers to help them explore their faith and equip them for the next chapter of their Catholic discipleship.

Easter Memorial Flowers

Honor your loved ones by making an Easter flower donation to beautify our sanctuary space. Names will be posted throughout the entire Easter season in both churches and posted in our bulletin and Flocknote. Envelopes are available in the Narthex and Parish Center and may be placed in collection baskets at Mass.

Online donations can be also made at:

Flower donations are due Monday, March 30.

Safety and Security Committee

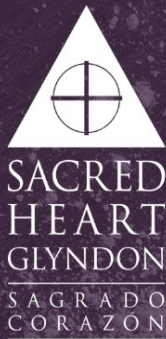

Sacred Heart Parish is grateful for the many men and women in our community who serve—or have served—in emergency medical services and law enforcement. Your dedication to protecting and caring for others reflects a deep commitment to service, courage, and the common good.

As part of our ongoing efforts to foster a safe and welcoming environment for worship, we are establishing a new Security Ministry. This ministry is designed to provide a calm, prepared, and professional presence during Mass, ensuring that our parish family can worship with confidence and peace of mind.

We are prayerfully inviting all active EMS personnel, active law enforcement officers, and retired law enforcement professionals within our parish to consider volunteering. Our goal is simple: to have trained individuals present at the Mass they typically attend, so that in the event of a medical or safety emergency, we can respond promptly and appropriately. Your expertise in assessment, communication, and crisis management would be an invaluable blessing to our parish community.

Volunteers would serve during their regular Mass attendance, offering a discreet and supportive presence. This ministry is not about creating alarm, but about being prepared—caring for one another as members of the Body of Christ.

If you feel called to serve in this way, or would like more information, please contact David Hannibal, Director of Facilities at dhannibal@shgparish.org.
