FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

The command Jesus gives today, on this feast of the Ascension of the Lord, is to go and make disciples. Most of us were not raised this way. Our parents gave us the faith and taught us the basics. They brought us to church and helped us through our Sacraments of Initiation - baptism, confirmation and Eucharist. But, for most of us, it was a very personal and individual faith. Other people were Lutheran or Methodist or Jewish, and we did what we did, and they did what they did.

We have become more conscious of our mission and our call over the last six decades since the second Vatican council. There, lay people as well as priests and religious were challenged to live out their baptismal call. For too long, the mission of the church had appeared to be delegated only to the "professionals."

But we know that, by our baptism, we are all called to be priests, prophets, and kings, and we are given a mission to make disciples of all nations. This Ascension, ask the Lord how you might better demonstrate your faith.

DEL PASTOR

Estimados feligreses,

El mandato que Jesús da hoy, en esta fiesta de la Ascensión del Señor, es que vayas y hagas discípulos. La mayoría de nosotros no fuimos criados así. Nuestros padres nos dieron la fe y nos enseñaron lo básico. Nos llevaron a la iglesia y nos ayudaron a través de nuestros Sacramentos de Iniciación: bautismo, confirmación y Eucaristía. Pero, para la mayoría de nosotros, fue una fe muy personal e individual. Otras personas eran luteranas, metodistas o judías y nosotros hacíamos lo que hacíamos y ellos hacían lo que hacían.

Nos hemos vuelto más conscientes de nuestra misión y de nuestro llamado durante las últimas seis décadas desde el Concilio Vaticano II. Allí, tanto laicos como sacerdotes y religiosos fueron desafiados a cumplir su llamado bautismal. Durante demasiado tiempo, la misión de la iglesia parecía delegada solo a los "profesionales".

Pero sabemos que, por nuestro bautismo, todos estamos llamados a ser sacerdotes, profetas y reyes y se nos da la misión de hacer discípulos de todas las naciones. En esta Ascensión, pregunta al Señor cómo podrías demostrar mejor tu fe.

Sisters of St. Joseph of Philadelphia Corporate Stand

On May 1, the Feast of St. Joseph the Worker, the Sisters of St. Joseph of Philadelphia announced our Corporate Stand in Solidarity with Immigrants, Refugees, and Asylum Seekers.

From our founding in 17th-century France, the Sisters of St. Joseph have sought to respond to the needs of the times with courage, creativity, and compassion to serve God and the dear neighbor without distinction... In our day, ... we hear again the Gospel invitation and our founders' call to become instruments of uniting love with God and one another.

Compelled by our love for God and the dear neighbor, we commit ourselves to stand in solidarity with immigrants, refugees, and asylum seekers here in the United States and throughout the world... We decry the systemic racism and abuse of power which underlies and supports the inequality, exclusion, and mistreatment of people of color and causes untold suffering to the human community... We desire to live out this vision, encouraged and strengthened by our faith and our vowed commitment. We echo the sentiment of the US Catholic Bishops who wrote in their special pastoral message to immigrants: "We stand with you in your suffering, since when one member suffers, all suffer (Cor 12:26). You are not alone!" ssjphila.org

Spring 2026 Exhibits

The Megiddo Mosaic: Foundations of Faith

July 25, 2025 – December 31, 2026

In 2005, archaeologists working at Megiddo uncovered a beautifully preserved mosaic floor bearing three inscriptions that would change our understanding of the early church forever.

Dead Sea Scrolls: The Exhibition

November 22, 2025 – September 7, 2026

The oldest copies of the Bible are now on display in a special traveling exhibition. Discovered in 1947, the Dead Sea Scrolls—some over 2,200 years old—offer a rare glimpse into the time when the Hebrew Bible was being finalized and Christianity was emerging. The exhibition features rotating scroll fragments, including Genesis 1, alongside artifacts like the Magdala Stone and the first-century “Jesus Boat,” bringing visitors into the world of ancient Israel.

Museum of the Bible invites you to a once-in-a-lifetime faith experience to view two ancient Biblical exhibits at once: The Dead Sea Scrolls Exhibition and The Megiddo Mosaic. Parishioners in groups of 10 and greater may use the code “CATH26” to receive an exclusive 50% admissions discount, which reduces admission to $16.99 for adults and $13.99 for youths.

Please contact Customer Service at 866.430.MOTB (6682) or email jacqueline.schleppenbach@mbible.org for booking assistance. Plan your visit to Museum of the Bible located at 400 4th St. SW Washington, DC 20024 today!
