FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

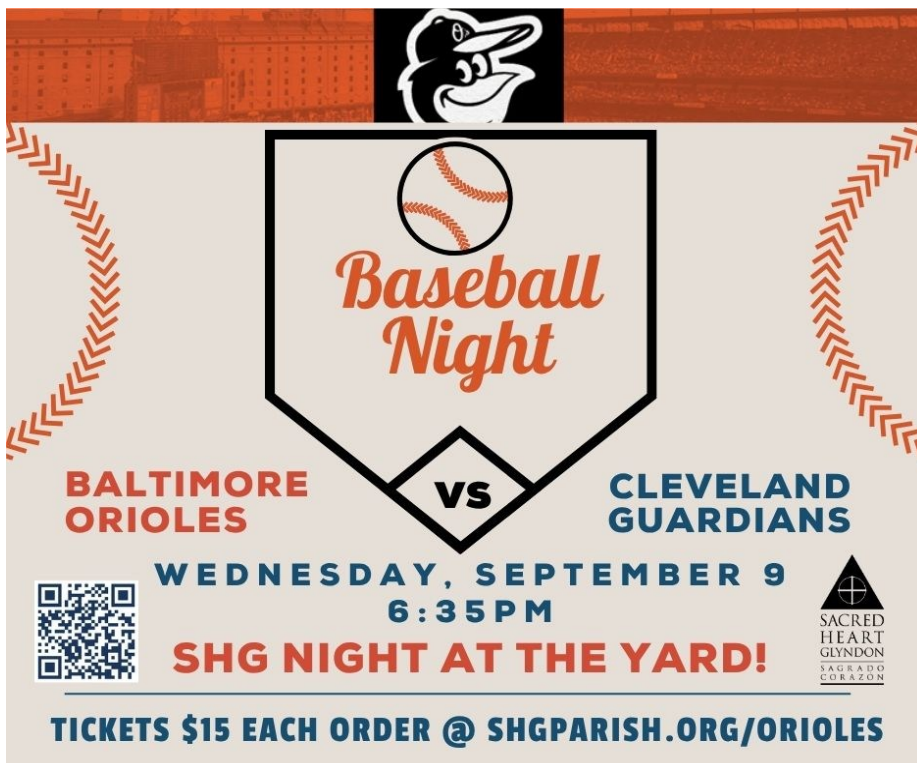

In today's gospel reading, Jesus is asking His disciples what people are saying about Him. Of course people were talking about Him as the new Elijah who was to come before the end of the world. Others thought He was a prophet, while others might have begun to see Him as the Messiah. It was obvious that Jesus was different than the others who had come along, and that He spoke with authority. It was also clear that He had the power to cure people and to raise from the dead. But then He turns the question on the disciples themselves. He asks them, "Who do you say that I am?" It's a question that's also addressed to us.

If we believe that Jesus is the savior, the Messiah, the Son of God, then that should influence everything in our lives. It means that we should not walk, but run to Mass because Jesus told us to do this in remembrance of Him! It means that we can't accept things like the taking of a baby's life or an older person's life because Jesus instructs us to love all people and to preserve life. It means that we have to talk about one another with love and respect because Jesus says, if we say that we hate our brother, that is as harmful as murdering him.

Do we really believe in Jesus as the Son of God? That's what Peter calls Him today in the gospel and because of that, he has been given the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever is bound on earth is bound in heaven. That is why we carry on the beautiful tradition of confession in our church: believing that God will release anything that his representatives release and bind anything that they bind. Do we believe this?

The questions are addressed to us.

Fr. Jerry Francis

DEL PASTOR

Queridos feligreses,

En la lectura del evangelio de hoy, Jesús pregunta a sus discípulos qué dice la gente sobre Él. Por supuesto, la gente hablaba de Él como el nuevo Elías que vendría antes del fin del mundo. Otros pensaban que era un profeta, mientras que otros podrían haber empezado a verlo como el Mesías. Era evidente que Jesús era diferente de los demás que habían llegado, y que hablaba con autoridad. También estaba claro que tenía el poder de curar a las personas y de resucitar de entre los muertos. Pero entonces dirige la pregunta hacia los propios discípulos. Les pregunta: "¿Quién decís que soy?" Es una pregunta que también se dirige a nosotros.

Si creemos que Jesús es el salvador, el Mesías, el Hijo de Dios, entonces eso debería influir en todo en nuestra vida. Significa que no debemos caminar, sino correr a la misa porque Jesús nos dijo que lo hiciéramos en recuerdo de Él. Significa que no podemos aceptar cosas como quitar la vida de un bebé o de una persona mayor porque Jesús nos instruye a amar a todas las personas y a preservar la vida. Significa que tenemos que hablar unos de otros con amor y respeto porque Jesús dice que, si decimos que odiamos a nuestro hermano, eso es tan dañino como matarlo.

¿Realmente creemos en Jesús como Hijo de Dios? Así es como Pedro le llama hoy en el evangelio y, por ello, se le han dado las llaves del reino de los cielos. Todo lo que está atado en la tierra está atado en el cielo. Por eso continuamos la hermosa tradición de la confesión en nuestra iglesia - creyendo que Dios liberará todo lo que sus representantes liberen y atará todo lo que ellos vinculen. ¿Creemos esto?

Las preguntas están dirigidas a nosotros.

Fr. Jerry Francis

Forming Catholics for Life.

Feast of Saint Monica | Catholic Saints

Throughout her life, St. Monica constantly prayed for the conversion of Augustine, her beloved son. In a moment of desperation, she even asked for the bishop's help. In response, he said, "the son of those tears surely will not perish." Truly, as this bishop remarked, Monica's tearful prayers helped build her son into the Doctor of Grace. In this video, join Dr. Gray and Dr. Sehorn as they discuss this great Saint.
