THAT MAN IS YOU!

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

When I was growing up, we knew everyone on the block. Actually, we knew most people around the block on the other streets as well. American life was just that way. Neighbors knew one another, people helped one another out, and no one really moved too far away.

Life has certainly changed for us. Most people say they do not know the people on their street and, sometimes, not even their next-door neighbor. Yet relationships and community are so important.

The book of the prophet Ezekiel tells us that we are responsible for one another. If someone is doing something wrong, according to Ezekiel, we should not simply turn our back or walk away. That is the modern approach. No, Ezekiel says, we should tell the person what they are doing wrong or else we will also be held responsible because we did not address the issue. That takes courage! It is difficult to do.

Jesus also underscores this approach in the gospel this weekend. He gives a very structured and reasonable approach as well. He says first, go to your neighbor who has wronged you and address the issue. But do not give up there. If your neighbor does not respond to you, then call in help. And if that doesn't work, bring it to the larger community, the church. If we addressed our issues this way, calmly, directly, in a structured way, we would certainly be better off. We all know what it's like to be the brunt of gossip or passive aggressive behavior. Jesus invites us to live honestly and truthfully, and to challenge one another to the same.

Fr. Jerry Francis

DEL PASTOR

Queridos feligreses,

Cuando yo crecía, conocíamos a todo el mundo de la calle. De hecho, también conocíamos a la mayoría de la gente de la manzana en las otras calles. La vida americana era así. Los vecinos se conocían, la gente se ayudaba y nadie se mudaba demasiado lejos.

La vida ha cambiado para nosotros. La mayoría de la gente dice que no conoce a la gente de su calle y a veces ni siquiera a su vecino de al lado. Sin embargo, las relaciones y la comunidad son muy importantes.

El libro del profeta Ezequiel nos dice que somos responsables unos de otros. Si alguien está haciendo algo mal, según Ezequiel, no deberíamos simplemente darnos la espalda o marcharnos. Ese es el enfoque moderno. No, dice Ezequiel, debemos decirle a la persona qué está haciendo mal o de lo contrario también seremos responsables por no haber abordado el problema. ¡Eso requiere valor! Es difícil de hacer.

Jesús también subraya este enfoque en el evangelio de este fin de semana. Ofrece un enfoque muy estructurado y razonable también. Dice que primero vayas con tu prójimo que te ha hecho daño y aborda el problema. Pero no te rindas ahí. Si tu prójimo no responde, entonces pide ayuda. Y si eso no funciona, llévalo a la comunidad en general, a la iglesia. Si abordáramos nuestros problemas de esta manera, con calma, de forma directa y estructurada, sin duda estaríamos mejor. Todos sabemos lo que es ser el blanco de los cotilleos o comportamientos pasivo-agresivos. Jesús nos invita a vivir honestamente y con verdad, y a desafiarnos mutuamente a hacer lo mismo.

Outreach Fund

In response to the many requests we have received regarding financial assistance for those families in our community affected by immigration policies, we have created a safe and simple donation account for anyone who would like to contribute. Funds will be used solely for affected active and committed parishioners with minor children and will be limited to their needs of food, shelter, and other emergency expenses. All funds will be disbursed under the direction of the pastor. Sacred Heart Parish is a generous community of compassionate and caring individuals, and we thank you for all you do for those in need throughout the year.
