FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT
MARCH 21, 2021

THROUGH SUFFERING

The prophet Jeremiah, in today's first reading, is looking beyond the often-messy history of Israel and Judah to a time when the people will no longer be disobedient to God, because God's law will be "written on their hearts"—that is, their natural inclinations and desires will be oriented toward God's will. The psalmist gives voice to the sorrow that Israel and Judah experienced in their separation from God "Have mercy on me, O God . . . A clean heart create for me." According to Saint Paul, the earthly Jesus, "son though he was," like his ethnic ancestors, he "learned obedience from what he suffered." The Gospel reading is part of Jesus' discourses not long before the Last Supper. Instead of a social encounter with Philip's friends who had come to see him, Jesus is grappling with his approaching death and its ultimate meaning for the world.

JEREMIAH: LOOKING BEYOND EXILE AND SUFFERING

The readings today remind us how close we are to Easter—only two weeks from now. They also remind us that the path to resurrection and Easter always includes suffering and death. The prophet Jeremiah spent his whole life proclaiming the word of God to kings who would not listen. As an old man, he saw Jerusalem defeated and the inhabitants taken into exile. Jeremiah himself suffered in being left behind, but in today's reading, he is looking beyond those sufferings to a time when the previously disobedient people would be transformed and live in harmony with God's law.

LOOKING FOR JESUS, FINDING THE CROSS

In the Gospel reading, friends of Philip come to him and ask about meeting Jesus. When Philip and Andrew take the request to Jesus, he begins a cryptic discourse on discipleship, transformation, and divine judgment. We never hear whether Philip's friends got to personally meet Jesus. Perhaps they simply blended in with the crowd.

Jesus says, "[W]hen I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself." The narrator says that Jesus' words indicate how he will die; the readers already know Jesus will be crucified. Jesus also speaks of divine judgment driving out the world's rulers and of the need to be transformed, like a seed growing into a productive plant. He warns about loving our life and losing it. Unlike Jeremiah's detailed vision, Jesus only hints at what kind of transformed life his death will bring.

What if we, like Philip's friends, want to get close to Jesus? Does that mean that the discourse on death and judgment is addressed to us? If Jesus will draw everyone to himself as he is "lifted up," does being closer to him mean joining him on his cross? (Do we want to be that close to Jesus?) Do we want to be transformed? If we say "yes," the liturgy these next two weeks can show us the only way the Church knows to get closer to Jesus: to be willing to be "lifted up" with him in his suffering—and in our own.

QUINTO CUARESMA

DOMINGO DE

21 DE MARZO DE 2021

A TRAVÉS DEL SUFRIMIENTO

En la primera lectura de hoy, el profeta Jeremías está viendo más allá de la historia, frecuentemente caótica, de Israel y Judá hacia un tiempo en el que el pueblo ya no será desobediente a Dios, porque la ley de Dios estará "escrita en sus corazones", es decir, sus inclinaciones y deseos naturales estarán orientados hacia la voluntad de dios. El salmista da voz al dolor que Israel y Judá experimentaron al separarse de Dios "Ten misericordia de mí, oh, Dios. . . Crea en mí un corazón limpio". Según san Pablo, el Jesús terrenal, "aunque era hijo", como sus antepasados étnicos, "aprendió la obediencia de lo que sufrió". La lectura del Evangelio es parte de los discursos de Jesús no mucho antes de la Última Cena. En lugar de un encuentro social con los amigos de Felipe que habían venido a verlo, Jesús se enfrenta a su inminente muerte y a su significado final para el mundo.

JEREMÍAS: MIRANDO MÁS ALLÁ DEL ÉXILIO Y SUFRIMIENTO

Las lecturas de hoy nos recuerdan lo cerca que estamos de la Pascua, ya dentro de dos semanas. También nos recuerdan que el camino hacia la resurrección y la Pascua siempre incluye el sufrimiento y la muerte. El profeta Jeremías pasó toda su vida proclamando la palabra de Dios a reyes que no lo escuchaban. Siendo ya un anciano, él vio a la ciudad de Jerusalén derrotada y a sus habitantes llevados al exilio. El propio Jeremías sufrió al ser dejado atrás, pero en la lectura de hoy, está mirando más allá de esos sufrimientos en un tiempo en el que el pueblo anteriormente desobediente se transformaría y viviría en armonía con la ley de Dios.

BUSCANDO A JESÚS, ENCONTRANDO LA CRUZ

En la lectura del Evangelio, amigos de Felipe se acercaron a él para pedirle una cita con Jesús. Cuando Felipe y Andrés le presentan a Jesús esta petición, Jesús empieza un discurso enigmático acerca del discipulado, la transformación y el juicio divino. Nunca escuchamos si los amigos de Felipe llegaron a conocer personalmente a Jesús. Quizá simplemente se mezclaron con la multitud.

Jesús dice: "Cuando sea levantado de la tierra, atraeré a todos hacía mí". El narrador dice que las palabras de Jesús indican cómo él iba a morir; los lectores ya saben que Jesús será crucificado. Jesús también habla del juicio divino que expulsa a los gobernantes del mundo y la necesidad de ser transformado, como una semilla fructífera. Él advierte sobre el amor a nuestra vida y la pérdida de esta. A diferencia de la visión detallada de Jeremías, Jesús solo insinúa qué tipo de vida transformada traerá su muerte.

¿Y si nosotros, como los amigos de Felipe, quisiéramos acercarnos a Jesús? ¿Significa eso que el discurso sobre la muerte y el juicio está dirigido a nosotros? Si Jesús atrae a todos hacia sí mismo cuando es "levantado", ¿significa que estar más cerca de él significa unirse a él en su cruz? (¿Queremos estar muy cerca de Jesús?) ¿Queremos ser transformados? Si decimos "sí", la liturgia de estas dos semanas puede mostrarnos la única manera que la Iglesia conoce para acercarse a Jesús: estar dispuestos a ser "levantados" con él en su sufrimiento y en el nuestro.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Jeremías 31:31–34
Salmo 51 (50):3–4, 12–13, 14–15
Hebreos 5:7–9
Juan 12:20–33

ARCHDIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES
Ms. Joan Vienna

St. Anne Catholic Church & Shrine in collaboration with the Archdiocese of Los Angeles works to prevent abuse through our Safeguard the Children programs on prevention, reporting, fingerprinting, background checks, clergy, and ministry volunteer formation programs called virtus® training. Our Faith Formation gatherings and schools also use a prevention program called Empowering God's Children to give our children the tools to protect themselves and speak out. We stand resolute with the Archdiocese in their commitment to reporting allegations of sexual misconduct to law enforcement, support victim-survivors and protect children and the vulnerable. We invite you to visit their new website: protect.la-archdiocese.org

DID YOU KNOW:

Revisit screen time recommendations
Parents everywhere are struggling to be parents, teachers, and friends for their children in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic, many are likely and understandably relying on screens to help them through these seemingly endless days. Many children are also online for school, which only increases their screen exposure. The American Pediatric Association warns parents that too much screen time can lead to sleep problems, lower grades, mood and weight problems, and can keep children from learning how to relax and have fun without a screen present. Try to make time for reading, playing games, and other screen-free activities that will help break the cycle of screen addiction and talk to your children's teachers about how screen time for school can be managed. For more information, visit https://www.aacap.org/AACAP/Families_and_Youth/Facts_for_Families/FFF-Guide/Children-And-Watching-TV-054.aspx

¿SABÍA QUE?:

Revise las recomendaciones de tiempo de pantalla
Los padres de familia en todas partes están luchando por ser padres, maestros y amigos de sus hijos en medio de la pandemia de COVID-19, y es probable y comprensible que muchos confíen en las pantallas para ayudarlos en estos días aparentemente interminables. Muchos niños también están en línea por la escuela, lo que solo aumenta su exposición a la pantalla. La Asociación Estadounidense de Pediatría advierte a los padres de familia que pasar demasiado tiempo frente a una pantalla puede provocar problemas para dormir, calificaciones más bajas, problemas de estado de ánimo y de peso, y puede impedir que los niños aprendan a relajarse y divertirse sin una pantalla presente. Trate de hacer tiempo para leer, jugar y otras actividades lejos de la pantalla que ayudarán a romper el ciclo de adicción a la pantalla y hable con los maestros de sus hijos sobre cómo se puede administrar el tiempo de pantalla en la escuela. Para obtener más información, visite https://www.aacap.org/AACAP/Families_and_Youth/Facts_for_Families/FFF-Guide/Children-And-Watching-TV-054.aspx.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION
BY ST. ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

My Jesus, I believe that YOU are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive YOU into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive YOU Sacramentally, come at least Spiritually into my heart. I embrace YOU as if YOU were already there and unite myself wholly to YOU. Never permit me to be separated from YOU. Amen.

LENTEN FASTING AND ABSTINENCE

Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday, February 17, and on Good Friday, April 2nd. In addition, all Catholics 14 years old and older must abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all the Fridays of Lent. Fasting as explained by the U.S. Bishops, means partaking of only one full meal. Some food (not equaling another full meal) is permitted at breakfast and around midday or in the evening, depending on when a person chooses to eat the main or full meal. Some people are excused from fasting and/or abstinence because of sickness, pregnancy, age or other reasons. Still, all of us should keep in mind the Divine Law that each of us, in our own way, should do penance. We must all turn from sin and make reparation to God for our sins. We must forgive and show love for one another just as we ask for God's love and forgiveness.

AYUNO Y ABSTINENCIA CUARESMAL

Los Católicos entre los 18 y 59 años están obligados a ayunar el Miércoles de Ceniza: 17 de Febrero, y el Viernes Santo, 2 de Abril. Además, las personas mayores de 14 años deben abstenerse de comer carne el Miércoles de Ceniza, Viernes Santo, y todos los viernes de Cuaresma. El ayuno, como explican los Obispos de los Estados Unidos, significa participar de una sola comida completa. Algunos alimentos (no equivalen a una comida completa) están permitidos en el desayuno y al medio día o por la tarde, dependiendo de cuando se decida comer la comida principal. Algunas personas están dispensadas del ayuno y la abstinencia a causa de enfermedad, embarazo, edad u otras razones. Aún así, debemos tener en cuenta la Ley Divina, que cada uno de nosotros a nuestra manera podemos hacer penitencia. Debemos arrepentirnos de nuestras culpas, perdonar y mostrar amor los unos a los otros así como pedimos el amor y el perdón de Dios.

ACTO DE COMUNION ESPIRITUAL
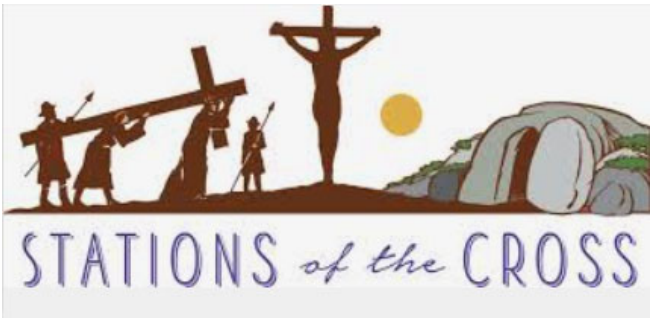
BY ST. ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

Creo, Dios mío, que estas presente en el Santísimo Sacramento del Altar, os amo sobre todas los cosas y deseo vivamente recibirte dentro de mi alma, pero no pudiendo hacerlo ahora Sacramentalmente, venid al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón. Y como si ya os hubiese recibido, os abrazo y me uno del todo a Tí Señor, no permitas que jamás me aparte de Ti. Amen.



During Lent we will be having the Stations of the Cross after our 5:30 PM mass

Tendremos el Vía Crusis durante la Cuaresma a las 6:30pm

Starting Lent we will be having confessions on March 11th & 18th 6:30pm or by appointment

Comenzando la Cuaresma tendremos confesiones el 11 y 18 de marzo a las de 6:30pm o por cita

COMMUNITY - FAITH - KNOWLEDGE

Join us at Saint Anne School

Recognized Nationally for Exceptional
Blended and Online Distance Learning

Dear Fellow Educators,

I invite you to share this enrollment opportunity and flyer with your families. We are indeed operating in challenging times. Many families find themselves frustrated or dissatisfied with the distance learning programs offered by their local schools. As a pioneer of blended or individualized learning in Los Angeles, Saint Anne School added blended learning to its program over six years ago, well before the start of the pandemic and therefore was exceptionally well-positioned to offer enriched, quality, data-driven individualized learning when Covid-19 struck our community.

I encourage you to share the flyer and contact information with your families and I invite you to call or arrange a socially distanced zoom or in person visit to learn more about Saint Anne School's program and how it differs from programs offered by other schools. Learn why it has been recognized as a model program by the University of Notre Dame School of Education, Loyola Marymount University School of Education and Seton Education Partners.

We offer exceptional programs, including string music instruction and, when in person instruction resumes, Boys and Girls Clubs After School programs until 6:00 pm daily, to help working parents weather this storm.

Please call or email me to learn more. In the interim, kindly share this flyer or Enrollment Link with your families.

Sincerely,

Michael Browning

SAINT ANNE SCHOOL NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY 2019-2020

SCHOOL STUDENT NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.

The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs.

SAINT ANNE SCHOOL OUR MISSION & VISION ACHIEVING EXCELLENCE : MODELING CHRIST

We, the school community of Saint Anne, recognize our purpose to provide a quality Catholic education to the children that we serve. In a safe and nurturing learning environment, we address the needs of our students. We create for them the opportunity to realize their unique potential: body, mind and spirit. We affirm the importance of the interrelationship of church, home and school. We strive to serve the total com-munity and we continue, both locally and globally, to honor our commitment to the less fortunate.

Prayer to Saint Anne

With love, I come to you St. Anne. By your virtues and holiness, you merited from God the favor of giving life to her who is the Treasure of all graces, the Most Holy Virgin. Receive me, good St. Anne, into the number of your true clients, for so I profess myself and wish to remain throughout my entire life. Obtain for me, from God, the power to imitate those virtues with which you are so plentifully endowed. Help me to know and regret my sins bitterly. Obtain for me the grace of active love for Jesus and Mary, and resolution to fulfill the duties of my state of life with faithfulness. Save me from every danger that confronts me in life, and help me at the hour of my death.

Amen.
