Confirmation 2022-2023

St. Anne Confirmation is a two-year program. If pandemic is still enforced, these meetings will be conducted via Zoom. Depending on the CDC Guidelines Classes may be in person. In addition, we will have retreats, service projects and most importantly, parental involvement in the faith formation process. We ask that the parents help us nurture each of these teens to become disciples of Christ. Our plan is to do this through prayer, worship, study and service in relationship with the family and community.

Confirmación 2022-2023

La Confirmación de Santa Ana es un programa de dos años. Si la pandemia aún se aplica, estas reuniones se llevarán a cabo a través de Zoom. Dependiendo de las reglas del CDC, las clases pueden ser en persona. Además, tendremos retiros, proyectos de servicio y, lo más importante, la participación de los padres en el proceso de formación en la fe. Les pedimos a los padres que nos ayuden a nutrir a cada uno de estos adolescentes para que se conviertan en discípulos de Cristo. Nuestro plan es hacer esto a través de la oración, la adoración, el estudio y el servicio en relación con la familia y la comunidad.

The Gift Of Faith

Faith is a gift. When the disciples asked Jesus to increase their faith, they were going to the source of that faith with their request. God is the giver of all good gifts, including faith. When we put our faith in Christ, we believe that God is with us, even though we cannot physically see God. Or can we? If we are attentive, we see the evidence of God's presence in the love of family and friends, care poured out in service of our neighbors, the living beauty of creation. This is not blind faith, but rather is the result of seeing with the eyes of faith. Followers of Jesus look beyond what is apparent to see what is possible with the power and presence of the Holy Spirit within and among us.

Prayer Of The Week

Almighty ever-living God, who in the abundance of your kindness surpass the merits and the desires of those who entreat you, pour out your mercy upon us to pardon what conscience dreads and to give what prayer does not dare to ask.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever

Reflection question:

How has God's kindness surpassed what I think I deserve?

El don de la Fe

La fe es un don. Cuando los discípulos le preguntaron a Jesús que aumentara su fe, se estaban dirigiendo al origen de la fe con su petición. Dios es quien da todos los dones buenos, incluida la fe. Cuando ponemos nuestra fe en Cristo, creemos que Dios está con nosotros, aunque no podamos ver físicamente a Dios. ¿O a caso podemos? Si estamos atentos, vemos la evidencia de la presencia de Dios en el amor de la familia y los amigos, en el cuidado vertido al servicio de nuestros prójimos, en la belleza de la creación. Esta no es una fe ciega, sino más bien es el resultado de ver con los ojos de la fe. Los seguidores de Jesús miran más allá de lo que es aparente para ver lo que es posible con la presencia del Espíritu Santo dentro y entre nosotros.

Oración De La Semana

Dios todopoderoso y eterno, que en la superabundancia de tu amor sobrepasas los méritos y aun los deseos
de los que te suplican, derrama sobre nosotros tu misericordia
para que libres nuestra conciencia de toda inquietud
y nos concedas aun aquello que no nos atrevemos a pedir.
Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo

Pregunta de reflexión:

¿Cómo me ha concedido Dios más de lo que merezco y deseo?

DID YOU KNOW:

Talk to your children about safety in bathrooms and cafeterias

At school, bathrooms and cafeterias tend to have informal social rules that differ from those in the classroom. That is why parents should talk to their children about what to do in these settings, especially if bullying or some kind of abusive behavior is happening. Talk about what to do when a classmate says another student is not welcome to join a group at the lunch table, or what to do if another student engages in coercive behavior that puts someone else at risk. For more tips, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Three Things That Simply Must Be Done" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

¿SABIA QUE?

Hable con sus hijos sobre la seguridad en baños y cafeterías

En la escuela, los baños y las cafeterías tienden a tener normas sociales informales que difieren de las del aula de clase. Es por eso que los padres deben hablar con sus hijos sobre qué hacer en estos entornos, especialmente si está ocurriendo intimidación o algún tipo de comportamiento abusivo. Hable sobre qué hacer cuando un compañero de clase dice que otro estudiante no es bienvenido a unirse a un grupo en la mesa del almuerzo, o qué hacer si otro estudiante se involucra en un comportamiento inapropiado que pone a otra persona en riesgo. Para obtener más consejos, solicite una copia del artículo en inglés de VIRTUS® "Three Things That Simply Must Be Done" (Tres cosas que simplemente deben hacerse) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

PROCEEDS GO TO HELP ST ANNES PARISH

LOS PROCEDIMIENTOS VAN A AYUDAR A LA PARROQUIA DE SANTA ANA

There are times, as a young Catholic, when we can feel a little alone. We might even be the only young Catholic we know, which is difficult, not to mention lonely. But don't despair! Despite how you may feel, there are millions of young adult Catholics throughout the world. You are not alone. Many are trying to live out the faith. Do not be discouraged. "Nowadays, everyone, including our young people, feels attracted by the many idols which take the place of God and appear to offer hope: money, success, power, pleasure. Often a growing sense of loneliness and emptiness in the hearts of many people leads them to seek satisfaction in these ephemeral idols. Dear brothers and sisters, let us be lights of hope!"

Here are some survival tips for when you're feeling on your own in your faith.

1. Embrace your rock star status.
Winner on the mountain top. Sport and active life concept Sometimes as a young Catholic you can go to Sunday or Daily Mass and get stared at. You stand out because you're the youngest by about 30 years. I know this doesn't happen at every parish, but sometimes you are new and the parish doesn't have many families. It can feel like everyone wants to know your business and where you're from and WHY you're here and 'have you thought about becoming a priest/nun yet?!' You feel like you're carrying the weight of an entire generation on your shoulders. Or someone is trying to match make you because and they have a niece/nephew / grandchild who "it would be great if you two could just meet". The pressure can be enormous. However, consider these two things. Firstly, you don't have to answer to everyone or tell them your private business. Just keep friendly and polite. Secondly know that you are You are a symbol of HOPE. Which is pretty cool. You are so counter-cultural that you are a sign of hope that the Church is not dying out. That is why older people get so excited when they see you coming to Mass and you're the only under 40 year old there. Don't be afraid. Embrace it!

2. Accept new friendships, no matter the age difference.
Maybe you'd love to make some Catholic friends your own age, but that's not possible right now. However, don't underestimate how kind, caring and compassionate older generations of Catholics will be to you. Maybe you've just started at a new parish, are living alone for the first time, beginning a new job in a new location. There will be someone who will take you under their wing. Maybe their son or daughter just went off to college and they end up looking out for you each week and inviting you out for coffee and before you know it you have an awesome and unusual friendship developing that is a gift to both of you.

3. Frequent the Sacraments.
If being a young Catholic sometimes feels like wandering through the wilderness, then the Sacraments are your survival kit. They are where you really get to meet Christ face to face. So receive the Eucharist as often as you can, celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation at least once a month and know that this is where your strength lies!

4. Don't Dump your Friends!
Maybe you've recently converted or maybe you've just come back to your faith after a long time away. Or possibly you've gotten more serious in your faith. You might be in the situation where your friends now don't understand you and you are the only one of your group who believes in God. Don't alienate your friends. Definitely, there might be some friendships that you now need to reassess and move on from if they are not a good influence on you. But you still need your non Catholic friends. All good friendships help you become who you truly are and if they are good friends they will respect you and support you even if they don't understand you. You don't have to convert them or only speak about God to them. Just be yourself, strive to grow in holiness and I promise you, you will inspire them in ways you don't even know.

5. Volunteer your time to help in the Church.
I first actually got into youth ministry because I wanted to work with other young Catholics and because I wanted to be less lonely in my faith and be in a more supportive environment. Thankfully, God also taught me how to be a good youth minister and I really saw the value of the work we did. If you really want to meet other young Catholics your age who will inspire you in your faith, and do some amazing work at the same time, then consider working for the Church. This could take the form of many things, from weekly volunteering at a soup kitchen or helping out with Confirmation classes, to an international gap year program or working at a Catholic Summer Camp. You'll grow in your own faith, experience new horizons and help other people to know Christ better. It's a win-win situation!

6. Know that this loneliness won't last forever. .
Know that other young Catholics are out there – you just have to find them and that can take a bit of effort. However, even at your loneliest, when you have to make choices that leave you on your own or opt for something difficult in order to stay true to who you really are, know that you are never truly alone. You have Christ, who said "know that I am with you always, yes to the end of time." (Matt 28:20)

BE VERY CAREFUL OF THESE "CHURCHES"

TENGAN MUCHO CUIDADO DE ESTAS "IGLESIAS"

These churches, denominations and communities are not affiliated with or in communion with the Roman Catholic Church, the Holy Father Francis, who is the head of the Catholic Church, says they are not related to the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Despite the differences many people are confused by these independent communities that appear similar in appearance to the Roman Catholic parishes. Our Catholic parishioners should not attend these communities, as they do not have permission from the Roman Catholic Church to operate as a Roman Catholic Church. Please contact our parish if you have questions or concerns about a specific church, or call the Archdiocese of Los Angeles (213) 637-7000.

A pesar de las diferencias, muchas personas se confunden con estas comunidades independientes que aparentan aspectos similares a las parroquias Catolicas Romanas. Nuestros feligreses Católicos no deben asistir a estas comunidades, ya que no tienen permiso de la Iglesia Catolica Romana para operar como iglesia Catolicas Romanas. This would also benefit you if you would like to have your child enrolled in next year's Religious Education Program. If you are not registered in the church, we cannot issue or sign any type of letter stating that you are a member of the parish, even if you attend Mass here. If you would like to register and receive offering envelopes, you must complete the form and send it our Parish office. If you have any questions please contact the Parish Office at (310)829-4411.

Muchas personas asisten a Misa aquí en nuestra iglesia, pero no son feligreses registrados. Es tan importante ser registrado y use sus sobres de ofrenda para que si solicita una carta, ya sea para ser padrino, matrimonio, confirmación, declaración de impuestos o cualquier otro propósito, podamos verificar nuestros registros y ver que asista a Misa aquí. Esto también lo beneficiaría si desea inscribir a su hijo en el Programa de Educación Religiosa del próximo año. Si no está registrado en la iglesia, no podemos emitir ni firmar ningún tipo de carta que indique que es miembro de la parroquia, incluso si asiste a Misa aquí. Si desea registrarse y recibir sobres de ofrenda, debe completar el formulario y enviarlo a nuestra Oficina Parroquial. Si tiene alguna pregunta, comuníquese con la Oficina Parroquial al (310) 829-4411.

Saint Thérèse of Lisieux/Santa Teresa de Lisieux

October 1st

"I prefer the monotony of obscure sacrifice to all ecstasies. To pick up a pin for love can convert a soul."

These are the words of Thérèse of Lisieux, a Carmelite nun called the "Little Flower," who lived a cloistered life of obscurity in the convent of Lisieux, France. And her preference for hidden sacrifice did indeed convert souls. Few saints of God are more popular than this young nun. Her autobiography, The Story of a Soul, is read and loved throughout the world.

Thérèse Martin entered the convent at the age of 15 and died in 1897 at the age of 24.

Life in a Carmelite convent is indeed uneventful and consists mainly of prayer and hard domestic work. But Thérèse possessed that holy insight that redeems the time, however dull that time may be. She saw in quiet suffering a redemptive suffering, suffering that was indeed her apostolate. Thérèse said she came to the Carmel convent "to save souls and pray for priests." And shortly before she died, she wrote: "I want to spend my heaven doing good on earth."

Thérèse was canonized in 1925. On October 19, 1997, Pope John Paul II proclaimed her a Doctor of the Church, the third woman to be so recognized in light of her holiness and the influence of her teaching on spirituality in the Church.

Her parents, Louis and Zélie, were beatified in 2008, and canonized in 2015.

1 de Octubre

"Prefiero la monotonía del sacrificio oscuro a todos los éxtasis. Recoger un alfiler para el amor puede convertir un alma".

Estas son las palabras de Teresa de Lisieux, una monja carmelita llamada la "Pequeña Flor", que vivió una vida de clausura de oscuridad en el convento de Lisieux, Francia. Y su preferencia por el sacrificio oculto de hecho convirtió a las almas. Pocos santos de Dios son más populares que esta joven monja. Su autobiografía, The Story of a Soul, es leída y amada en todo el mundo.

Thérèse Martin entró en el convento a la edad de 15 años y murió en 1897 a la edad de 24 años.

La vida en un convento carmelita es realmente sin incidentes y consiste principalmente en la oración y el trabajo doméstico duro. Pero Teresa poseía esa santa visión que redime el tiempo, por aburrido que sea ese tiempo. Vio en el sufrimiento silencioso un sufrimiento redentor, un sufrimiento que era de hecho su apostolado. Teresa dijo que vino al convento del Carmelo "para salvar almas y orar por los sacerdotes". Y poco antes de morir, escribió: "Quiero pasar mi cielo haciendo el bien en la tierra".

Teresa fue canonizada en 1925. El 19 de octubre de 1997, el Papa Juan Pablo II la proclamó Doctora de la Iglesia, la tercera mujer reconocida a la luz de su santidad y la influencia de su enseñanza sobre la espiritualidad en la Iglesia.

Sus padres, Louis y Zélie, fueron beatificados en 2008 y canonizados en 2015.

PRAYER TO ST. ANNE

Please secure for us also forgiveness of our past sins, the strength to perform faithfully our daily duties and the help we need to persevere in the love of Jesus and Mary.

Amen.

SAINT ANNE SCHOOL OUR MISSION & VISION ACHIEVING EXCELLENCE : MODELING CHRIST

We, the school community of Saint Anne, recognize our purpose to provide a quality Catholic education to the children that we serve. In a safe and nurturing learning environment, we address the needs of our students. We create for them the opportunity to realize their unique potential: body, mind and spirit. We affirm the importance of the interrelationship of church, home and school. We strive to serve the total community and we continue, both locally and globally, to honor our commitment to the less fortunate.

Prayer to Saint Anne

With love, I come to you St. Anne. By your virtues and holiness, you merited from God the favor of giving life to her who is the Treasure of all graces, the Most Holy Virgin. Receive me, good St. Anne, into the number of your true clients, for so I profess myself and wish to remain throughout my entire life. Obtain for me, from God, the power to imitate those virtues with which you are so plentifully endowed. Help me to know and regret my sins bitterly. Obtain for me the grace of active love for Jesus and Mary, and resolution to fulfill the duties of my state of life with faithfulness. Save me from every danger that confronts me in life, and help me at the hour of my death.

Amen.
