The Mass: Structure and Meaning

The Mass begins with the entrance song. The celebrant and other ministers enter in procession and reverence the altar with a bow and/or a kiss. The altar is a symbol of Christ at the heart of the assembly and so deserves this special reverence.

All make the SIGN OF THE CROSS and the celebrant extends a greeting to the gathered people in words taken from Scripture.

If there is such a thing as a Catholic "trademark" it is the sign of the cross.

As early as the third century, Christians were tracing the sign of the cross on their bodies. Today, this superb baptismal gift is a sign of belonging to Christ and the community, a way of focusing our attention, of asking for God's blessing, of tracing on our shoulders a willingness to find meaning in life's burdens. In the sign of the cross, we have an ever-available means of expressing gratitude for our baptism. (Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.)

"Let us not then be ashamed to confess the Crucified. Be the Cross our seal made with boldness by our fingers." – St. Cyril of Jerusalem.*

La Misa: Estructura y Significado

La Misa comienza con el canto de entrada. El celebrante y los demás ministros entran en procesión y saludan el altar con una reverencia y/o un beso. El altar es un símbolo de Cristo en el corazón de la asamblea y por eso merece esta especial reverencia.

Todos hacen la SEÑAL DE LA CRUZ y el celebrante extiende un saludo a la gente reunida con palabras tomadas de la Escritura.

Si existe una "señal" católica, es la señal de la cruz.

Ya en el siglo III, los cristianos trazaban la señal de la cruz en sus cuerpos. Hoy, este grandioso don bautismal es un signo de pertenencia a Cristo y a la comunidad, una manera de centrar nuestra atención, de pedir la bendición de Dios, de trazar sobre nuestros hombros la voluntad de encontrar sentido a las cargas de la vida. En la señal de la cruz, tenemos un medio siempre disponible para expresar gratitud por nuestro bautismo. (Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.)

"No nos avergoncemos, pues, de confesar al Crucificado. Sea la Cruz nuestro sello hecho con valentía por nuestros dedos." – San Cirilo de Jerusalén. *
