@FrCraig

When the story of human history comes to a close, death and violence don't get the final word. The love of God does. That love, burning bright in the heart of Fr. Emil Kapaun in the darkness of a POW camp in the Korean war, made him a hero.

St. John Altar and Rosary Announces Virtual Bake Sale

During the pandemic, it is not possible to have bake sales. However, we would like to continue our basic responsibilities to St. John Church, as well as provide a scholarship to a graduating senior next year.

During the Month of November, we are going to hold a "Virtual Bake Sale" - no baking needed! Instead, we are asking for donations. With each donation, we will enter your name into a drawing for a $25 gift card from The Foundry Bakery and Deli which will be drawn in early December. Please place your donation in the collection basket in an envelope marked "Virtual Bake Sale" (checks payable to St. John Church). Half of the total collected will be for the 2021 Scholarship, and the other half will go into our general fund. Questions? Call Kathie Dekker at 517-629-6066. We appreciate whatever you can do to help us!

Washington Archbishop Designated A Cardinal

On Sunday, October 25, from a window overlooking St. Peter's Square, Pope Francis announced that he will raise 13 men to the rank of cardinal in a ceremony on November 28, including Archbishop Wilton Gregory of Washington, D.C.

Archbishop Gregory, 72 years old, converted to Catholicism while attending a Catholic grammar school in his native city of Chicago. In recent months, Archbishop Gregory has pushed for better race relations in the church, saying it was important that young Black Catholics see church leaders who look like them.

According to the Wall Street Journal, "Cardinal-designate Gregory's promotion reinforces his standing as a major Black American leader at a time when the U.S. is debating the legacy of racism and many across the country have demonstrated for racial justice."

Fratelli Tutti*

Pope Francis' newest encyclical, "Fratelli Tutti, on Fraternity and Social Friendship," gives tender challenge to "all people of goodwill" in a world fractured by political and economic ideologies. Instead of seeing the person from another nation, religion or group as "other," the Pope challenges us to see a neighbor, a brother and sister. To encourage us to resist "the temptation to build a culture of walls, to raise walls, walls in the heart, walls on the land, in order to prevent this encounter with other cultures, with other people," he offers the parable of the good Samaritan (No. 27).

In this parable, we discover "how a community can be rebuilt by men and women who identify with the vulnerability of others" and to "embrace the world" in the midst of its myriad sorrows (Nos. 67, 78).

Such compassion requires much from us. It necessitates the humility to see where the divisions lie in our own hearts.

Praying the Rosary from usccb.org

1. Make the Sign of the Cross.
2. Holding the Crucifix, say the Apostles' Creed.
3. On the first bead, say an Our Father.
4. Say one Hail Mary on each of the next three beads.
5. Say the Glory Be
6. For each of the five decades, announce the Mystery* (perhaps followed by a brief reading from Scripture) then say the Our Father.
7. While fingering each of the ten beads of the decade, next say ten *Hail Mary*s while meditating on the Mystery. Then say a *Glory B*e. (After finishing each decade, some say the following prayer requested by the Blessed Virgin Mary at Fatima: O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell; lead all souls to Heaven, especially those who have most need of your mercy.)

After saying the five decades, say the Hail, Holy Queen, followed by this dialogue and prayer:

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.
R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray: O God, whose Only Begotten Son, by his life, Death, and Resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life, grant, we beseech thee, that while meditating on these mysteries of the most holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord.

Conclude the Rosary with the Sign of the Cross.

For details about which Mystery to pray, visit usccb.org and search Rosary or click the "Prayer & Worship" tab.*

Hail Holy Queen

Hail, holy Queen, mother of mercy,
our life, our sweetness, and our hope.
To you we cry, poor banished children of Eve;
to you we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.
Turn, then, most gracious advocate,
your eyes of mercy toward us;
and after this, our exile,
show unto us the blessed fruit of your womb, Jesus.
O clement, O loving,
O sweet Virgin Mary.
