DOUBT

The desire to be able to prove the existence of a divinity has troubled humanity since human consciousness first became aware of the divine. To this very day we are fond of saying that any number of things—from sunsets to hot fudge sundaes—are "proof that there is a God." We get so caught up in the story of "doubting Thomas" that we fail to notice that today's Gospel gives us John's account of Pentecost, the bestowing of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples following the Resurrection. Thomas, evidently, missed out not only on seeing the Risen Christ, but receiving the Holy Spirit as well. This is not to be taken lightly and, perhaps, makes Thomas' disbelief a bit easier to comprehend. It also makes his professing that Jesus is his Lord and God—the only time the New Testament explicitly refers to Jesus Christ as "God"—more remarkable.

FEAST OF FAITH

The Psalms in the Liturgy

The book of Psalms is a prayer book, hymnal, and anthology of verse all rolled into one. It contains one hundred fifty ancient songs—poem-prayers that express the joys and sorrows of the Hebrew people and their longing for God. The psalms are incredibly varied in tone. Some are solemn anthems of praise that once accompanied processions of great multitudes to the temple; others record the lonely cries of a faithful soul who feels abandoned by God.

This ancient prayer book of the Hebrew people is our principal prayer book as well. The psalms are everywhere in the liturgy—in the antiphons and acclamations of the Mass, and most particularly in the responsorial psalm that follows the first reading. The psalm that is sung at Mass usually echoes the themes of the first reading, and sometimes even comments on it. On this Third Sunday of Lent, we listen to the Exodus account of the stubbornness of God's people in the desert, and then the psalm comes to remind us: "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts" (Psalm 95:8). In their wonderful variety, the psalms teach us how to pray.

SAN GABRIEL MISSION HIGH SCHOOL GALA & AWARDS CEREMONY
SATURDAY, APRIL 24, 2021

San Gabriel Mission's High School is celebrating educators and heroes of the pandemic. For over 70 years and with over 6,000 graduates, the school has been serving the greater Los Angeles Area and San Gabriel Valley community. Mission High School, a non-profit Catholic college preparatory high school for young women, provides an affordable quality education for students and families located on the campus of the historic San Gabriel Mission. Mission could not have reached this milestone without the support of its faculty, staff, residents, volunteers, alumni, partners, and communities that it serves. In addition, the Mission is grateful for the first responders who worked to save the Mission during the fire which started on July 11th, 2020.

On Saturday, April 24, 2021, Mission High School will honor educators and heroes of the pandemic by hosting a virtual fundraising gala. The citizens, businesses, and organizations of Alhambra are invited to be a part of the ceremony and help honor those who continue to unselfishly serve our communities. All the proceeds of the event will be used to support its students, families, and faculty. For more information, contact Jackie Cuevas at sgmhs@missionpioneers.org or call (626) 282-3181. To register, make a contribution, or to donate a silent auction

LA DUDA

El deseo de ser capaz de demostrar la existencia de una divinidad tiene a la humanidad con problemas desde que por primera vez se hizo consciente de lo divino. Hasta el día de hoy nos gusta decir que un sinnúmero de cosas, desde puestas de sol hasta los helados de crema de chocolate, son "pruebas de que hay Dios". Estamos tan atrapados en la historia de "Tomás el incrédulo" que no nos damos cuenta de que el Evangelio de hoy nos ofrece el relato de Juan acerca de Pentecostés, el descenso del Espíritu Santo sobre los discípulos después de la Resurrección. Tomás, evidentemente, se perdió no solo de ver a Cristo resucitado, sino también de recibir el Espíritu Santo. Esto no se debe tomar a la ligera y, quizás, hace que la incredulidad de Tomás sea un poco más fácil de comprender. También hace que su profesión de fe en que Jesús es su Señor y su Dios —la única vez que en el Nuevo Testamento hay una referencia explícita a Jesucristo como "Dios"— sea más notable.
