DID YOU KNOW?

Back to school preparations during a pandemic

In August, families are usually preparing to start a new school year, with all the excitement and anxiety that brings. But this year, in the midst of the coronavirus pandemic, no one knows what lies ahead for school children. Talk to your children about how they're feeling and what they're worried about. Many people, including young children, are struggling with anxiety and depression during this pandemic, so be sure to check in frequently, and provide a safe space where children can talk about their concerns. For more information visit <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know>

THEME

As we welcome one another around the twin tables of Word and Eucharist, perhaps our prayer today can be for the grace to welcome also those who are outsiders

First Reading, Isaiah 56:1, 6-7

Isaiah challenges the people to put their faith into practice by making God's temple a place of prayer for everyone.

Psalm Response for this week

O God, Let all the nations praise you!

Our response reminds us of our call to share God's majesty with all peoples in the world.

Second Reading, Romans 11:13-15, 29-32

Paul reminds both Gentiles and Jews they have been disobedient to God. Only God's mercy brings salvation to both Jew and Gentile.

Gospel, Matthew 15:21-28

Jesus is confronted by a Canaanite woman whose strong faith persuades Jesus to heal her daughter.

Queenship of Blessed Virgin Mary

August 22—Memorial

... Mary is both a queen and a mother, but she is more mother than queen. Mary's Queenship and "motherhood," or motherhood, spark to life simultaneously. In the very moment Mary becomes a mother at the Annunciation, she also becomes a queen. The Archangel Gabriel tells Mary that her Son will sit on "the throne of his Father David" and that "he will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end" (Lk 1:32-33). Since Jesus is a king, and since He is conceived in the womb of Mary, and since in the land of Israel the mother of a king was always a queen, (the daughter not necessarily so), Mary becomes a queen. Some texts from the early centuries of the Church call Mary the "domina," the female of "dominus." Latin for "master" or "Lord."...

Prayer

Oh Mother Mary, Queen of the Universe, in your Son's Kingdom, the faithful struggle to be faithful and to be fruitful. We are under your regal yet maternal care. May we please both our King and Father, and you, our Queen and Mother, since all parents are deserving of their children's honor. Amen.

Prayer to Our Lady of Divine Love

-Pope Francis

O Mary,

You shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sic, who, at the foot of the cross,

Were united with Jesus' suffering, And persevered in your faith.

Protectress of us all, you know our needs,

and we know that you will provide, so that, as at Cana in Galilee,

Joy and celebration may return After this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, To conform ourselves to the will of the Father and to do what Jesus tells us.

For he took upon himself our suffering

And burdened himself with our sorrows

To bring us, through the cross, To the joy of the Resurrection.

Amen.

We fly to your protection, O Holy Mother of God;

Do not despise our petitions in our necessities,

But deliver us always from every danger,

O Glorious and Blessed Virgin.
