DID YOU KNOW?

Trick-or-treating safety, social distance style

If your neighborhoods are allowing trick-or-treating for Halloween this year, now would be a good time to review safety rules and guidelines with your family. Make sure your children are visible in their costumes, especially if they are wearing dark colors. Consider adding reflective tape and carrying flashlights. Young children should always be accompanied by an adult. For children old enough to trick-or-treat alone, consider giving them a cell phone so you can reach them, and discuss where they can and cannot go, and when they need to be home. Saints Simon and Jude, Apostles

October 28 – Feast

Patron Saints of hopeless causes (Jude) and tanners (Simon)

Saints Simon and Jude disappear from the pages of the Gospels after the brief mentions of their names. Nothing is known of either of them with any certainty, not even where they evangelized or where they met death. As Apostles, however, we know with certainty that they were key actors in laying the deep foundations of the Church in the rock-solid substrata of the Middle Eastern culture in which they lived. The Catholic Church is the household of faith. An earthly family is united by blood, while the theological family of the Church is united by the Sacraments and the Creed. But it is not sufficient for a family to be united by biological or theological DNA.

A family is little if it is not a household. A household works together, prays together, and eats together. A household is where a family feels like a family. A boy may know who his father is, but if he doesn't share everyday life with that father, their family relationship means little. It is in the household that life happens all over the globe. Mom and dad, sons and daughters, brothers and sisters, in the kitchen, around the table, in the garden, at Mass, a band united in both mundane and sacred duties. The Church is the household of faith where God's family gathers week in and week out, century after century. Christians must not only be united intellectually, but must live united, and feel that unity in their bones. Today's saints worked long ago to build the household we now enjoy. They dug the well so that we could pull up the water and drink. They planted so that we could reap. They lit the fire so that we could warm ourselves close to the flames, one universal family living in one universal household we call the Church.

PRAYER

Saints Simon and Jude, we ask for your intercession in heaven as members of the Twelve Apostles. Approach the Lord Jesus with our needs in your hands. Answer the prayers we present. Fulfill the petitions we seek. Amen.

ALL SOULS DAY

Monday, November 2, is ALL SOULS Day and will be celebrated with Mass at 7:00 p.m.

Envelopes are available for those who especially want family members prayed for during November.

A Statement from the Regional Bishop
- Concerning the National Elections and a Call to Faithful Citizenship

In just a few weeks, the Nation will complete the voting process. I am taking this opportunity to respond to some inquiries I have received from Church members in recent weeks.

First, the Church does not support or oppose any candidates running for office.

Second, where the Church takes a position on particular legislation, that position is based on issues of morality and not of politics. In casting your vote, consider the moral implications of the proposition.

Third, there is no "Catholic party." No political party fully agrees with all the moral positions of the Church. If anyone, even a bishop or a priest, should tell you that as a Catholic you cannot vote for a particular party or that you must vote for one party rather than the other, know that the Church does not endorse such a position. Vote the party of your choice.

Fourth, the Catholic Church is not a one issue church. There are a great many moral and ethical concerns the Church is called to address. It is a danger to consider only one issue to the detriment of all others. Fifth, as Catholics, we are called to vote for the common good (in other words, to vote for what is the greatest good for the greatest number of people) and to vote from our conscience (not from political, social or financial convenience).

Finally, the Church encourages each one of us to register and vote – it is the responsible and Catholic thing to do. We are all called to be faithful citizens.

The Lady of All Nations

Lord Jesus Christ,
 Son of the Father,
 send now Your Spirit
 over the earth.
 Let the Holy Spirit live
 in the hearts of all nations, that they may be preserved
 from degeneration, disaster and war.
 May the Lady of All Nations,
 the Blessed Virgin Mary,
 be our Advocate,
 Amen.

"This prayer originated in Amsterdam in 1951.
 Since that time it has received many endorsements.
 After the local bishops consulted with the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith in regard to the prayer, the Congregation approved the text of the prayer, but with the instruction to change the original phrase 'who once was Mary' to 'the blessed Virgin Mary', due to possible misunderstanding.
